

ON OUTSIDE
LOOKING IN

It's never too late to begin! Between now and Christmas morning, there's a lot of time that can be filled in fixing up a Christmas basket and toys for some family that will be so disappointed without it. Eighty families have been cared for, so far.

There's old folks on this list. Forborn little old people without any young bloods to bring Christmas to them or cheer their lonely old hearts.

And do you think there's some kind of a special Santa Claus that looks after little dark-skinned folks? Not so's you can notice it! Little dark-skinned babies believe in Santa Claus too, and it's the same old, jolly round, fat fellow that the rest of us love. And these chubby youngsters with soft southern dialect are going to hang up their stockings on Christmas eve, just like the little white chillicons.

Pick Your Family

Here's the list, folks! Wouldn't you like to call Main 3500 and ask for The Times Santa Claus and get the name and address of one of these needy families, so you can make Christmas a bright day in their drab calendar?

65. A hard working widow, a colored woman, goes out by the day and her oldest son brings home his wages, but even so they barely have enough money to go around. The boys are 6, 8 and 21. The girls are 12 and 15. Family Welfare Society recommends a generous basket.

73. A widow, a colored woman, has been doing her best to support

Campaign Against Adoption of Orphans for Work Starts.

CHICAGO, Dec. 23.—A campaign to stop families from adopting orphan boys for the sole purpose of working them through the summer and then returning them to orphanages was started today by the Rev. E. J. Flanagan, head of a non-sectarian orphanage.

"It doesn't seem possible that there are human beings so low to do this, but there are and it will take the combined services of every orphanage in the country to stamp out the evil," Flanagan said.

Stockings for all of the children are badly needed and a basket of food will also be appreciated.

95. Troubles beyond her control made life hard for this conscientious mother of six children. She cleans office buildings to earn money for their support, but has no margin to provide a holiday dinner and gifts for the children. The girls are 3, 10 and 13, the boys, 1, 6 and 8.

96. An 11-year-old girl needs a family supply of dependable cough medicine. Easily made and saves about 82.

97. 98. A 4-year-old girl and 7-months-old baby boy are depending on The Times Santa Claus for play-things. Their father's work has been irregular and the family income has often reached the vanishing point. A basket and small gifts.
