Appointments Announced by President Gates.

Committees for 1926 have been announced by Frank E. Gates, Indianapolis Real Estate Board president.

Chairmen are: J. S. Cruse, appraisal; Walter T. White, arbitration; E. K. McKinney, budget; Z. B. Hunt, by-laws; Charles H. Badger, civic affairs; Thomas F. Carson, forms; R. B. Wilson, legislative; Paul McCord, membership; Scott R. Brewer, examining board; Lawrence J. Welch, multiple listing; Henley T. Hottel, publicity; Harry Templeton, social; L. H. Lewis, luncheon; program; John K. Burgess, welfare; T. E. Grinslade, plat book; Z. B. Hunt, home complete.

Gates said the board will interest itself in civic affairs in 1926. Past president will entertain members at a Christmas party Wednesday at the Columbia Club.

COORDINATING OFFICER

State Auto Department Employee Is Given New Position.

Oliver P. Wright, Marion, a State automobile department employee, has been appointed coordinating officer between the department with which he is now associated and the State motor police force, it was announced by Frederick E. Schortemeyer, secretary of State.

Wright's new duties, which begin Jan. 1, will consist of tracing stolen automobiles, investigating motor bus traffic and cooperating with local police in the enforcement of the prohibition laws.

PROMISES TO WORK

Judge Releases Man Who Says He Will Help Support Children.

Jesse C. Fowlkes, colored, was released on his own recognizance by Criminal Judge James A. Collins when he promised to get work and help support his three children, who live with their mother, Mrs. Jennie Fowlkes, colored, 2532 Boulevard Pl.

Paul Mills, colored, was fined $210 and costs and sentenced six months on the Indiana State Farm on charge of assault and battery. He is alleged to have cut John Burk, 424 N. West St.

SUPPORT CLERK AIDS AT CHRISTMAS TIME

Dependent Wives and Mothers Call for Allowances to Buy Gifts—Exchange 'Postoffice' Operated.

"Is there anything here?" Such is the uniform question asked by the hundreds of men and women who apply to Mrs. Grace Flood, county support clerk, for funds left by divorced men or women for dependent wives or children.

Mrs. Flood's answer has a more significant meaning this time of the year. It may mean a happy Christmas or perhaps a day of unhappiness.

Wives and mothers shopping baskets apply early in the morning with the hope of receiving five, six or seven dollars to buy a few gifts. Husbands and fathers too, seem eager to pay their allowances as set by the courts, apparently hoping that they will not mar the cheerfulness of those who do not live with them any longer.

While Mrs. Flood's primary task

By United Press
FRANKFORT, Ind., Dec. 23.—Stepping backward out of a locomotive cab in the Nickel Plate shops here, Eldon Palmer, boilermaker, fell twelve feet to a cement floor and was severely injured.

Two "Strong Men" Die

Eugene Sandow and Sigmund Breitbart succumbed at early ages. Many persons build up a wonderfully muscular physique. It is a natural falling with men to feel that they are vigorous and healthy. But are they? Kidneys are as seldom discovered in time "too late"—how those two words describe the fate of thousands. Keep a close guard on your kidneys to protect them from overwork and abuse by periodically giving them the natural milk of Mountain Valley Milk from Hot Springs, Arkansas. Prescribed by physicians.
