'NATION IS CHILDISH OVER RUM'

So Says Prohibition Czar Andrews, Flaying Public Demand for Liquor.

COURTS ARE DENOUNCED

America Will Be Dry When People Want It Dry.

By William J. Losh

United Press Staff Correspondent
ST. CATHERINE ISLAND, Dec. 28.—"If the people continue to demand liquor, it will be almost impossible for the Government to prevent it from reaching the market," Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Andrews said here today during his inspection trip of rum row along the south Atlantic coast.

"The law will be enforced when the people want it enforced, and not until then," he said.

The work of the people who want prohibition is cut out for them, Andrews said. They must create a sentiment against drinking, hence cutting down the demand, and also create a sentiment for adequate punishment of violators by the courts.

"America Childish"

The bootleg industry, he continued, can only operate through bribery and corruption of public officials, and so long as revenues continue to pour into their coffers it will be powerful.

"America's reaction to the prohibition law has been the most childish thing I ever heard of," Andrews said, "in that many people took to drinking because they were forbidden to drink," but added "thank goodness that's dying out."

The dry czar blamed the Nation's judiciary for part of prohibition's troubles, and urged voters, particularly women, to apply the remedy.

"The law is enforced only when the courts enforce it. In many sections the legal machinery is inadequate.

More Judges

"There is a lesson for Congress in this. We have got to have more judges—appropriations," he said.

"Women, he added, should attend courts, vie with the legal machinery in operation and note the kind of sentences the judges give.

"I can't conceive of a case where the law would not be properly enforced if it was put up to the women," he said.

The dry czar continued his trip with a cruise on the maze of inlets and sloughs of the south Georgia coast and gained a close-up view of the difficulties of preventing smuggling. He was to rejoin the cutter Modoc at Brunswick, Ga., tonight to proceed to Key West and Havana.

DISPUTE MAY BE SETTLED

Compromise Is Expected in Street Opening Muddle.

Compromises in the dispute between the board of works and south side residents over opening of Shelby St. to Washington St. will be proposed at board of works meeting today, it was believed.

South side residents plan to remonstrate against assessments for opening Cruse St. south of Washington St. in the event the board refuses to reconsider its determination to stand by original plans.

More than 100 citizens attended a mass meeting at Fountain Square, Sunday night.

M'CRAY IS IN HOSPITAL

But Former Governor Is Not Seriously Ill, Dispatch Says.

ATLANTA, Ga., Dec. 28.—Ex-Governor McCray of Indiana, who is serving a twelve-year term for using the mails to defraud, has been removed to the Federal Prison hospital here following a breakdown caused by high blood pressure.

McCray is not seriously ill, it was said, and as soon as he recovers he will be given lighter duties. He has resigned as editor of the prison magazine, Good Words, and supervisor of the print shop.

Who Will Pay?

The House recently passed a tax reduction bill. It covers principally the income tax in which every one is more or less directly interested.

Roscoe B. Fleming, a Times Washington correspondent, has written six articles explaining the bill in detail.

The first article appears on the Editorial Page today.

COL. COOLIDGE IS ATTACKED BY PARALYSIS

President's Father Also Suffers Frequent 'Heart Block' Recurrences.

By United Press

PLYMOUTH, Vt., Dec. 28.—Colonel John C. Coolidge, father of the President, has been stricken with paralysis, affecting his right leg and has been ordered to bed by his physician, Dr. Albert M. Cram.

While Dr. Cram does not consider the Colonel's condition as immediately serious, he has notified President Coolidge of this latest development by means of a long distance telephone conversation with Major James F. Coughlin, the President's personal physician, in Washington.

Besides the paralysis, Col. Coolidge is suffering more frequent recurrences of the heart block which caused his recent serious illness, according to Dr. Cram and the condition of the 80-year-old patient is causing some concern.

The paralysis has affected Colonel Coolidge's right leg only and has not yet influenced other parts of his body, according to Dr. Cram. The Colonel's brain was clear, he said, and the patient, as usual, was optimistic regarding his condition.

INCREASED BUS FARES SOUGHT

Red Ball Company Receiver Files Petition.

Another Indiana motor bus company sought higher fares today when Fred J. Jones, receiver for the Indiana Red Ball Company, formally asked the public service commission to fix a new tariff schedule.

Present rates are inadequate and do not even produce operating expenses, the petition stated.

The Interstate Public Service Company recently was authorized by the commission to charge a basic rate of 3 cents a mile on its bus routes.

The Red Ball Company operates between Indianapolis and the following cities: Greensburg, Crawfordsville, Clinton, South Bend, Sheridan, Noblesville, Elwood, Richmond, Martinsville and West Lafayette. Branch lines run between Ladoga and Crawfordsville and Rochester and Logansport.

State Gets Much More Than Appraised Value of Tracts.

A total of $12,905 was realized by the State today on seventy-six acres of meandered land in Lake County which had been appraised at only $4,065.70.

The marsh land, which consisted of several tracts, was sold by State Auditor L. S. Bowman.
