The Red Pencil Sale!!

That's Right!

The less a man pays for clothes the more careful he should be where he spends his money!

You can depend on Strauss — absolutely!

You can be certain at all times, sale or no sale, to get the utmost in value and satisfaction for your money!

—is the greatest sale of men's suits and overcoats in the history of the Strauss business. It includes not only an abundance of the finest clothing produced—but also vast stocks of medium priced grades that stand out for real merit.

Strauss popular priced clothes are finer and better than the general run—they haven't that "cast iron" look—they fit—they give wonderful service! They are strictly correct. In this sale you save big—on the kind of clothes you like to wear.

The Overcoats in the Red Pencil Sale—range from the lowest priced worth having to the finest to be had. Your particular attention is directed to these two great groups—featuring overcoats made from Sheurman fabrics that wear like iron—new colors, new smart models.
