SALES MEETINGMany Delegates Will Go to New York Show.

The seventy-fifth anniversary sales conference of Marmon officials, dealers and distributors was to terminate today after several sessions. Many of the 500 delegates will return to their homes and businesses, but a large number will board a special train for New York, where they will visit the automobile show.

The climax of the three-day meet was reached Tuesday night at a banquet and entertainment in the ballroom of the Columbia Club. The principal talk was delivered by Dick Miller, vice president of the Chamber of Commerce. He spoke on the traditions which surround the Marmon factory and predicted a year of bountiful return for those who apply themselves.

G. M. Williams, president of the Nordyke & Marmon Co., acted as toastmaster. Out-of-state delegates vied with each other in giving yells and their State songs. There was also special musical numbers and vaudeville entertainment.

AUTOS CLAIM
SECOND DEATHMrs. Louise Hayes New Victim of 1926.

Coroner Paul F. Robinson today was investigating the death of Mrs. Louise Hayes, 25, wife of Earl C. Hayes, track coach at Indiana University, at city hospital, Tuesday. Her death was the second caused by auto accidents this year.

Mrs. Hayes died from injuries received Dec. 5 when the auto in which she was riding with Henry Perkins of Bloomington, Ind., crashed through the safety gates at the Bell Hallway and S. Meridian St., and struck a train that was standing still at the crossing.

Perkins, who was slightly injured in the crash was slain on an assault and battery charge.
