

OFFICERS HAVE TWO CLEWS IN KILLER SEARCH

Hold-up Murder Takes Place at Belt Railroad Elevation.

With two clews, detectives today sought the Negro murderer of John Ward, 42, of 1226 Cottage Ave., who was fatally shot in a hold-up at Prospect St. and the Belt elevation late Sunday night.

John W. Worley, Royal Hotel night clerk, told police he has been checking up on a man in connection with that hold-up and learned he is in town again. This suspect's description tallies with that of the man who shot Ward, and police hope to arrest him to-day.

Mrs. G. H. Graves, 123 S. Good St., said a Negro attempted to enter her home Sunday night. The description she gave was similar to that of the bandit who murdered Ward.

Ward was found in the front

Law Alleges Woman 'Mrs. Bluebeard'

By United Press
EAST LIVERPOOL, Ohio, Jan. 18.—The Rev. William Chrysty, an attache of the Christian Missionary Alliance, who died suddenly Wednesday from arsenic poisoning, was the seventh husband of his widow, Mrs. Laura E. Chrysty, who is held in the county jail at Lisbon. County Prosecutor Brookes declared today.

Characterizing Mrs. Chrysty a "modern woman Bluebeard," Brookes said he had found the woman's brother, Charles Whipple, and that the latter had enumerated seven matrimonial ventures of his sister and asserted six of the husbands had died suddenly and under mysterious circumstances.

Ward, 42, of 1226 Cottage Ave., who was fatally shot in a hold-up at Prospect St. and the Belt elevation late Sunday night.

John W. Worley, Royal Hotel night clerk, told police he has been checking up on a man in connection with that hold-up and learned he is in town again. This suspect's description tallies with that of the man who shot Ward, and police hope to arrest him to-day.

Ward told Lieutenant Dean and emergency squad that he was pushing his bicycle through the mud at the elevation, when the bandit approached him with a gun.

Then Ward said he dropped the wheel, took off his overcoat, and offered the bandit 35 cents, all he had.

Bandit Fired Shot

The bandit walked behind him and said, "I am afraid of you," according to the statement to Dean. Then he fired a shot.

Ward picked up his coat and bicycle and staggered to the Brooks home. He died a few hours after being admitted to the hospital.

Funeral arrangements have not been made, pending word from a sister who lives in Pasadena, Calif. Ward was not married. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Ward; a brother, Thomas Ward, and five sisters, Mrs. Mary Troy, Mrs. Catherine Swisher, Mrs. Frank Roth and Mrs. Harry Whrye, all of Indianapolis, and Mrs. Samuel T. Bailey, Pasadena, Calif.

CHILDREN START FIRE

Timely Arrival of Man Saves Three Left Alone by Parents.

Timely arrival of H. C. Prunk, 156 Bright St., at the home of William and Maude Carew, 157 Geisendorff St., Saturday probably saved the Carews' three children, Owen, 7; Elinora, 4, and Thomas, 2, from being burned.

Prunk said the children's parents had left them at home alone and when he went to the home he found it on fire. He extinguished the blaze.

Prunk said the children attempted to light a lamp and set the house on fire.

When found by the police the children were huddled on an old mattress on the floor. They were sent to the Detention Home.
