

LIGHT COMPANY CONTROL WILL REMAIN IN CITY

Indianapolis Concern Head
Says Stock Sale Involves Minority Holdings.

Sale to Eastern capitalists of $5,650,000 worth of Indianapolis Light and Heat Company stock, representing the largest financial deal ever negotiated here, involves only a minority of the stock and will not affect control of the company, President Walter C. Marmon, declared today.

"The Indianapolis Light and Heat Company is what its name implies, an Indianapolis company, independent, home-owned and home-controlled and it will remain so," Marmon said. He does not know the identity of the persons who bought the stock from Indianapolis brokers late Friday, he said.

Marmon said that the 11,235 shares sold comprised only a little more than a fourth of the company's 42,281 shares, and that the controlling interest, held by the Perry and Marmon estates, represented in the company by himself and Secretary Norman A. Perry, was not affected. The purchase is regarded only as an investment.

The sale included, it is said, stock held by Newton Todd, George H. Evans, Donald N. Test, Skiles E. Test, Dorothy E. Test, Arthur C. Newby, Mrs. Mary E. Test, and J. R. McKee and Mrs. Mary H. McKee of New York.

The company's property includes two large power plants, one at St. near Fall Creek and the other at Kentucky Ave. and South St., six substations, an office building on Monument Circle, 1,000 acres of coal land in Sullivan County, and 120 acres south of Indianapolis which eventually may be used for a super-power station site.

Operation of the company will continue along the same conservative lines as in the past, Marmon said, with an expansion program to keep pace with the city's development carried on.

Resinol healed in few weeks

"I have been troubled with sores on my leg for a year or more and all the many different remedies I tried did no good. One day I saw an advertisement for Resinol Ointment in the newspaper and I bought a jar of it. In less than three weeks my sores healed up and have been well ever since. As my wife has been sick for nearly a year and had bed sores we induced her to try this salve and the sores are healing splendidly. I have bought several jars of it and believe me it will always be on the shelf in my bath room." (Signed) Alfred E. Baur, 1014 Monroe St., Toledo, Ohio. Advertisement.

DEAF-MUTE IS GIVEN DIVORCE

Interpreter at Trial Arouses Interest.

Mrs. Lola May Lon, a deaf-mute, was a free woman today as result of a divorce granted her Friday by Judge James M. Leathers of Superior Court One from William C. Long, also a deaf-mute.

The case, which was uncontested, aroused interest since an interpreter was necessary. The first order given Mrs. Long through the interpreter was, "just tell the court briefly what caused the separation."

For approximately three minutes the deaf-mute replied in the sign language. Turning to Judge Leathers, the interpreter said, "she answers you she did not understand the question."

When Mrs. Long was advised the court prohibited her from marrying for two years, she replied, "I wouldn't have a man."
