

AQUILLA JONES AID TO BUTE

Bar Members Laud Attorney
—Rites at Church.

Two services were held today in memory of Aquilla Q. Jones, 72, attorney, who died Sunday at his home, 3258 Fall Creek Blvd. At 11 a. m. tribute was paid Mr. Jones by the Indianapolis Bar Association in Circuit Court.

James M. Ogden, president, presided. Charles E. Cox, former Indiana Supreme Court judge, presented a resolution on the death of Mr. Jones. Other members of the committee named by Ralph Bamberger, chairman memorials committee, were: Judge E. A. Dausman, Appellate Court; Judge James A. Collins, Criminal Court; John W. Holtzman, Martin M. Hugg, Henry Spaan, Lew Wallace, J. Clyde Hoffman and William W. Hammond. Committee members spoke.

Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. at the Church of the Advent, of which Mr. Jones was a member. The Rev. Clarence W. Blasheim, rector, and Bishop Joseph M. Francis of the Indianapolis diocese, officiated.

Active pallbearers included three members of the law firm of which Mr. Jones was the senior member, William W. Hammond, C. Severin Buschmann and Alan W. Boyd, and three close friends, Bernard C. Carmell, Henry W. Bliss and Dr. Frank Abbott. Honorary pallbearers were Henry Eltel, Charles H. Badger, George H. Evans, Linton A. Cox, William H. Howard and Judge James A. Collins. Burial was in Crown Hill cemetery.

G.O.P. TO MEET AT LOGANSPORT

F. Wayne Love Feast Postponed Until Feb. 22.

With the tri-district Republican love feast at Ft. Wayne Thursday postponed until Feb. 22, the Lincoln day banquet at Logansport Friday night, at which Senator Arthur R. Robinson will be the principal speaker, is expected to draw hundreds of politicians and prospective candidates from all over the State.

The Ft. Wayne affair was postponed until Washington's birthday, at the request of Senator James E. Watson, who found it impossible to leave the capital while the tax reduction bill is before the Senate, because of his membership on the Senate Finance Committee.

Brief funeral services will be held at 1 p. m. Wednesday at the home of Norris C. Freeman, 34, of 5723 N. Meridian St., who died from an attack of heart disease at his office Monday afternoon. He was president of the Vapor Heat and Oil Company, 400 N. Illinois St.
