

U. S. ATTORNEY TALKS

Ward Tells Rotary Club Members About His Job.

The position of United States district attorney entails many duties. United States District Attorney Albert S. Ward revealed that to Rotary Club members at luncheon Tuesday. Ward said that many people have an erroneous idea that all the district attorney has to do is to prosecute cases for the Government. He said it was part of the district attorney's duties to examine titles to real estate which the Government desired to obtain, collect fines, sue on defaulted bonds, look after postal service in the district and perform statutory duties.

TRIBUTE TO ART SMITH

Fl. Wayne Plans Permanent Memorial for Aviator.

By United Press. FT. WAYNE, Ind., Feb. 17.—A campaign was launched today for a fund to erect a permanent memorial to Art Smith, Ft. Wayne aviator killed in the crash of a mail plane at Montpelier, Ohio, last week. While two Army aeroplanes circled overhead and dropped flowers on the open grave, Smith's body was laid to rest in Lindenwood cemetery here yesterday. It is planned to erect a monument in Memorial Park, from which Smith made his first flight at the age of 16.

INSTRUCT BEEKEEPERS

Chief State Apiarist Holds Meetings on Improved Methods.

Under the leadership of C. O. Yost, chief apiarist for the State conservation department, a series of meetings is being held throughout Indiana for giving instructions in improved methods of beekeeping. Meetings have been held in Richmond, Walton and Albion and Purdue University and are scheduled for Terre Haute, Friday, Shelbyville, Saturday, Greentown next Thursday and Aurora next Friday.

WILMETH MAY GET JOB

Former City Judge Mentioned for Council Attorney.

Former City Judge Delbert O. Wilmeth was mentioned today as a strong possibility for city council's attorney.

The occupant of the new office will be named by Boynton, council president, with approval of the councilmen.

When the ordinance to create the office was introduced, Charles J. "Judge" Orblin, former Democrat, was prominently considered, but it is said he yielded after appointment of his son, Telford, as park board attorney.

CARRIERS TO CONVENTION

State Convention Will Open Monday at the Denison.

Indiana State Association of Letter Carriers will hold its convention Monday at the Denison. Delegates will arrive Sunday and be the guests of Indianapolis branch No. 39, Orrin A. Collins, branch president announced.

The delegates will be taken on an auto tour Sunday. Postmaster Robert H. Bryson and Mayor Duval will speak at the convention. The meeting will close with a dinner and dance at the Chamber of Commerce Monday night.

PURDUE DEAN, SPEAKER

Dr. A. A. Potter, dean of the Purdue University engineering schools, will be the principal speaker at the Purdue Alumni Association banquet at the Severin, Thursday evening. He will tell how 17,000 persons in Indiana were reached last year through the engineering extension service work.

COLLEGE STRIKE LOOMS

Ft. Wayne Students Protest Expelling of Basketball Star.

By United Press. FT. WAYNE, Ind., Feb. 17.—President Loucks of Concordia College conferred today with upperclass leaders to prevent a strike of the student body.

Strike threats were made in protest against the expelling of Christian Rittman, star basketball player, for violating the school rules by staying out all night.

The ill-feeling came to a climax last night with a near riot at the mess hall when students were locked out and stones were thrown through windows of the building.

Concordia College is a Lutheran denominational school.
