

ADMINISTRATION WORKERS SEEK WATSON SCALP

Governor Jackson Approached to Enter Senatorial Race.

Alarmed at the coolness of Indiana farmers toward President Coolidge, administration supporters are intent upon defeating Senator James E. Watson, whom they fear, plans to run without endorsement of the chief executive.

That was the explanation offered today by politicians for the fact that Governor Jackson has been approached to enter the senatorial race against Watson.

Jackson recently advocated the World Court, an administration measure, which Watson and Senator Arthur R. Robinson failed to support.

May "Ditch President"

Those in touch predict Watson is preparing to "ditch the President," a movement a number believe may involve Robinson, who is dependent on the Watson machine for backing outside of Indianapolis.

Denounced by the Indiana State Federation of Labor, Watson has turned to farmers for the votes, in the opinion of many observers. The recent pussyfooting of Coolidge on the farm relief question, it is said, has antagonized thousands of farmers from the Administration.

Must Act Soon

Anti-Watson forces must act soon if they would overcome the early lead established by the fast-moving State organization he has perfected.

Should Jackson refuse to enter the race, Oswald Ryan, Anderson attorney, and Clavis Adams, former Madison County prosecutor, are likely possibilities. Some persons doubt whether the anti-Watson movement will oppose Robinson's candidacy.

WEAK AND HELPLESS AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Strong and healthy now. Says Milk's Emulsion newspaper ad saved life.

"The flu left me a helpless invalid. I was laid up in bed three months. After trying almost everything I could think of, I happened to see Milk's Emulsion advertised in the paper, so I got one of the large size bottles. Before I had used half of it I was surprised at the change it brought, and I improved from that time on. Now I am well and as strong as I ever was. It was certainly lucky for me that I saw that ad, as I had just about given up. I am positive I never would be alive now if it wasn't for Milk's Emulsion."

—Mrs. L. P. Hurley, 8 W. 16th St., Kansas City, Mo.

Milk's Emulsion restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and physics. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food, thus building flesh and strength, which are Nature's only aids in conquering germs and repairing the effects of wasting diseases. This is the only solid emulsion made and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. Wonderful for weak, sickly children. No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milk's Emulsion. If not satisfied with results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 60c and $1.20 per bottle. Sold by druggists everywhere.

NEW MORTUARY OPENING HELD

Impressive Services Mark Dedication.

Impressive services marked the dedication of the new Plummer & Buchanan mortuary, 25 W. Fall Creek Blvd., south drive, Sunday afternoon. The service, held in the new chapel, was in charge of Dr. Lewis Brown, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

Assisting Dr. Brown were Dr. J. Ambrose Dunkel, pastor of Tabernacle Presbyterian Church; Dr. Virgil E. Rorer, pastor of Meridian Street M. E. Church, and the Rev. William I. Caughman, pastor of First Congregational Church. St. Paul's Episcopal vested choir and Mrs. Fannie Johnson, soprano soloist, provided music.

A patriotic musical program will be given tonight in the chapel, to which the public is invited. The program will be broadcast from 8 to 9, by WFBR.

This afternoon special music was provided from 3 to 5, by Walter Flannery, organist; Mrs. Ray D. Barnes, soprano soloist, and Mrs. Robert W. Blake, contralto soloist.

A musical program has been provided for each afternoon and evening on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

BIRD SPECIES ARE NUMEROUS

Nature Study Club Visits Turkey Run.

During a recent two-day jaunt through Turkey Run State Park more than a score of different species of birds were observed by six members of the Indiana Nature Study Club. It has been reported to the State conservation department.

That the park is an excellent bird sanctuary is shown in the fact that 1,004 individual birds were counted, representing twenty-two separate species. Club members making the bird census were A. P. Thomas, E. H. Elwood, C. C. Chillingworth, W. P. Morton, James E. Cook, S. E. Perkins, III.

Practically all of the different kinds of birds that ever have frequented Indiana, with the exception of the now rare woodpecker, were observed on the expedition, Perkins reports.

Among the birds listed in the census were ducks, quail, hawks, hairy woodpeckers, downy woodpeckers, red-headed woodpeckers, red-bellied woodpeckers, flicker, jay, crow, goldfinch, white-throated sparrow, tree sparrow, junco, song sparrow, Carolina wren, white-breasted nuthatch, tufted titmouse, Carolina chickadee, black-capped chickadee and robin.

FUNERAL IS TUESDAY

Services for Moses Hene Will Be in Indianapolis.

Funeral services for Moses Hene, 77, Muncie dry goods merchant, will be conducted at 10 a. m. Tuesday by Rabbi Morris Feuerlicht of the Indianapolis Hebrew Congregation at the home of Mr. Hene's son-in-law, Dr. Edgar F. Kiser, 3715 Washington Blvd. Burial will be in Hebrew cemetery.

Mr. Hene died Sunday night at the Spink-Arms. He was on his way to a Martinsville sanitarium six weeks ago when he was stricken at the hotel and was never able to leave his room. He had been an active Muncie business man forty-two years.

MINISTER'S SON 'BUM REFORMER'

Chum He Tried to Save Burns to Death.

By United Press CHICAGO, Feb. 22.—J. Howard Hogsheds, the minister's son who miraculously escaped death when his companion, the millionaire Frederick B. Pearson, was burned to death in his hotel room today "swore off" attempts at reforming.

"Pearson was an old friend of mine," Hogsheds said. "I knew he was going to the dogs by drinking too much and I tried my best to reform him. I thought by being a 'good fellow' and taking occasional drinks I could gain his confidence and would have more influence with him."

"But I've come to the conclusion that I'm a bum reformer. I've sworn off that stuff now."

Pearson was burned to a crisp when a lighted cigarette set fire to the chair in which he had fallen asleep after an all-night cabaret party with Hogsheds and two girls.

$18,000 GIVEN MEETING FUND

Goal for 1926 Raised to $35,000.

Indianapolis started on its way to maintain its reputation as a "glad-you-came" city today, when William A. Atkins, chairman of the executive committee of the Indianapolis convention bureau, announced contributions totaling $18,000 had been received toward the 1926 budget of $25,000.

Atkins, at the get-together luncheon at the Chamber of Commerce, said that, in view of the fact that more than one-half of the proposed budget had been raised the committee had decided to secure $35,000.

Subscriptions came from three sources: The Indianapolis Merchants' Association, the Indianapolis Hotel Keepers' Association and the Chamber of Commerce.

It was pointed out that many cities the size of Indianapolis, and some even smaller, have convention funds twice the size Indianapolis now is seeking.

COUNTRESS NOW IN AMERICA

Ten-Day Stay Granted—Her 'Prayers' Answered.

By United Press NEW YORK, Feb. 22.—Verna Countess, the catheart, is at liberty within the United States for ten days under her personal bond of $500, but the exclusion order based on her admission of "moral turpitude" still stands.

Permission to leave Ellis Island came inexplicably and suddenly last night after she had retired. The Countess, her lawyers, Commissioner of Immigration Curran, United States District Attorney Buckner, representatives of the Department of Labor here—all denied knowledge of how the order came to be issued.

"It's so wonderful," explained the Countess, "I don't know how it all happened. All I can say that I'm sure it is an answer to my prayers to ask God to show me if I had done anything to be punished for."

BLAST TRAPS MOONSHINERS

One Brother Killed, Other Has Feet Burned Off.

By United Press CLEVELAND, Ohio, Feb. 22.—Frank Lenniger, 26, was killed and his brother, Amos, 28, had his feet burned off when they were trapped by fire in their "moonshine cavern" high up on a hill, prohibition agents revealed today.

Called to the Pine Ridge district by reports that "something was wrong in a cave," the agents found Lenniger unconscious with his feet charred from his body. The officers then discovered a cave and entered. They found a complete distilling apparatus and the charred body of Frank. Fumes from a gasoline stove had ignited, killing Frank and igniting his clothing. Amos had dragged himself into the open.

Anglers Expect Good Season

EARLY manifestations of spring brought a horde of impatient anglers to the countryside Sunday, and not a few catches were reported.

The main difficulty, according to the tyros, was a lack of worms or other suitable lures, the fish being in a decidedly hungry frame of mind and biting viciously. During the recent warm spell some of the casting brotherhood have unrigged their nickel-plated paraphernalia and have snugged some mighty good bass in various central Indiana streams.

In a few weeks the tasty black sucker will begin his up-stream trek, and, weather permitting, some good catches may be anticipated on ordinary tackle, using large worms. Because of the persistent high water during the winter an unusually good fishing season may be expected, according to the experts.

G. O. P. GATHERS AT FT. WAYNE

Indiana Senators to Be Principal Speakers.

By United Press FT. WAYNE, Ind., Feb. 22.—Republican leaders from all parts of Indiana were here today for a round of meetings to precede the annual Republican Love feast of the Twelfth district.

The day's activities opened this afternoon by a session of the women's organization of the district at the Anthony Hotel. The program for the afternoon was arranged by Miss Alma Miller of La Grange, county chairman.

Following the program, which was attended by Senators Arthur R. Robinson and Watson, was the banquet for 4.30 p. m., will be held in the new Shrine temple here. Both Senators Robinson and Watson, will be the principal speakers at the meeting.

Governor Jackson, prominent State officials and representatives in Congress will attend the meeting.

UNION LEADER BURIED

Local Man Devised Printing Label, Fathered Eight-Hour Day.

Last rites for Hugo Miller, 69, vice president of the International Typographical Union, who died Friday, were held Sunday at Flanner & Buchanan mortuary. Burial was in Crown Hill cemetery.

Mr. Miller has been vice president of the union for forty years. He came here from Freiberg, Saxony, where he had been head of the German Typographical Union. When the German organization was combined with the international body, Mr. Miller became fourth vice president of the latter organization. He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Hattie M. Hutchins and Mrs. Elsie Scudder, of Indianapolis.

He designed the union printing label and was sponsor of the eight-hour day law.

I have a Message for the Deaf

... a sudden illness ... all my savings ... long battle with throat ... discharged from a hospital ... cured, but with my hearing impaired ... then DEAFNESS. In a few short months, the income from my work dwindled to practically nothing, and I faced the world broken in spirit and with an affliction that seemed to make it impossible for me ever to secure my former income again.

Then I made a Startling Discovery

It's the story of that discovery and what it means to me in improving my hearing ... fighting my way back ... that I want every man and woman to read, who is deaf or even half of hearing.

My message is in booklet form ... it points the way for YOU ... it shows YOU how to regain for yourself, the full, active, happy life you enjoyed before.

Don't let this opportunity knock in vain ... don't postpone ... now, as you read, send for the booklet "My Message to the Deaf." It will be sent FREE to YOU. Send for it today—NOW. Address,

Business & Industrial NEWS

'RENT-A-CAR' BUSINESS IS DOING WELL
More Persons Realize That It Is Cheap Transportation.

"The 'rent-a-car' business is coming rapidly into its own," Walter T. Boyer, manager of the "U" Drive System, at 38 Kentucky Ave., said today. "More persons are constantly coming to realize that it is much cheaper to adopt the 'U' Drive System than to own and operate their own cars."

"It must be remembered," he continued, "that when people are driving their own cars, they should not only estimate the amount of gas and oil they are using but must consider the real cost which is the depreciation of the car. This being true, the driving of their own cars costs them from eight to twenty-five cents a mile. Using our system, they pay only twelve cents a mile, and they are saved much bother."

"Our system relieves them of looking after a garage, parking space, and chauffeur, and of the responsibility of repairs. Our cars are always ready—clean, filled with gas and oil, ready to start right off. That can't always be said of a fellow's own car, can it?"

Boyer, who has been furnishing excellent "U" drive service for over four years to Indianapolis persons, keeps "stepping right along." He's now installing new equipment adding ten brand-new shiny cars, to his already large fleet of Fords and Chryslers.

A traveling man, who had been in town calling on Indianapolis trade all day, paid a bill of $3.44. "Had that car out since early morning," he remarked. "This 'U' Drive System doesn't charge when a car is standing still—only when it is in actual motion. Think what my bill would have been if I'd have hired a taxi all this time!"

FISH PUT ZEST IN OYSTER DIET AT RESTAURANT
Philadelphia Oyster House Adds Another Food Delicacy.

"From frying pan to you!" might be the slogan for the crispy brown, fine, fresh fish that the Philadelphia Oyster House, 105 E. Ohio St., has added to its usual oyster menu.

"Folks seem to associate oysters and fish," the proprietor, J. W. Everingham, remarked. "Perhaps because they both come from the water. Anyway, I've had lots of requests for fish, so we're serving them now, and believe us, they're good!"

People who like oysters will enjoy a steaming hot stew at the Philadelphia. And they've got a wide choice. Boston, cream pan, and clam stew are on the bill of fare and, if folks prefer fried oysters, well just try 'em here once.

The Philadelphia claims to be the only oyster house in the State serving direct from the shell. Right before your eyes, Everingham cracks all you want of fine, fresh shipments which arrive constantly from New Jersey coasts. It's a treat to watch him. Everingham is an old time oyster man, you know, and has worked with oysters all his life. That's why with a few skillful turns, he lifts a quart or so from their shells before you realize it.

Nowadays when food values are receiving more attention than ever from thoughtful folks, it's a good thing to know that oysters are conceded to be one of the most nutritious and healthful of foods. "People with very delicate stomachs, can safely eat oysters," an authority states.

JESSUP-ANTRIM FIRM PREPARES NOVEL DISHES
Holiday Hostesses Benefit by Special Ice Cream Dainties.

This is George Washington's birthday, and in numberless homes hostesses are honoring the "father of his country" by appropriate decorations. The Jessup & Antrim Ice Cream Company, 713 N. Illinois St., made the decoration problem easy for Indianapolis hostesses by putting out an especially attractive line of ice cream specialties for this holiday.

Rich brick cream with hothots in the center and brick cream with the national colors have been especially popular. The individual figures of either George or Martha Washington in whatever color desired have brought forth large orders, and another popular special is the American flag in rich red, white and blue.

For St. Patrick's day, just around the corner, there are shamrocks in cream, and a lot of people are enthusiastically about a special novelty called the "fruit basket." This is made of delicious rich cream, into which ten pieces of ice cream, molded into the form of fruits, repose. The basket itself, when sliced, will serve ten persons.

J. P. Russell is the "dessert artist" for Jessup & Antrim and Russell can carry out any idea that a hostess may have. For children's parties he has a whole colony of "Teeny Weenies," made from delicious ice creams in any flavor or color. For such important occasions as weddings, he has many novelties, such as brides and grooms and lovely ice cream cakes of intricate and exquisite design, to grace the center of the table.
