

WIDER SUBSIDY OF SCHOOLS BY STATE FAVORED

Governor Studies Report Compiled by Rural Education Group.

Wider subsidy of public schools by the State is urged in a report compiled by the Indiana rural education committee during the last year, being studied today by Governor Jackson.

- Recommendations
- 1. Diversion of the State inheritance tax to the common school fund.
  - 2. Consolidation of the Congressional township school fund and the common school fund.
  - 3. Reduction of administrative costs of township schools.
  - 4. Rapid consolidation of rural township schools.
  - 5. Uniform school tax rates within each county.
  - 6. Elimination of township trustee's school duties.
  - 7. State rotating fund for poorer schools.
  - 8. Publicly supported endowment funds for schools.
  - 9. Steps to attract more competent teachers to rural schools.
  - 10. More adequate supervision of rural school teachers.

FRENCH CRISIS HOLDS INTEREST OF EUROPE NOW

England Settles Hers, but Briand Faces Defeat—Franc Crashes.

By Clifford L. Day

LONDON, March 24.—With the governments of Great Britain and Germany overwhelmingly sustained by their respective parliaments on their actions at the recent League of Nations meeting at Geneva, the interest of Europe turns today to Paris, where Premier Briand seems on the verge of being voted out of office for the ninth time.

The French franc today set a new record for depreciation on the local bourse, where 135 francs could be bought for one pound sterling. The franc closed yesterday at 138.5, Belgian currency was sympathetically weak at 121 1/2, compared with yesterday's close of 120 1/2.

French financial difficulties, menacing as they are to the rehabilitation of Europe, have not, however, eclipsed the acute problem of Locarno and the League of Nations. Today's London papers, except the Daily Mail, are hostile to Sir Austen Chamberlain, the foreign secretary, and suspicious of his lengthy explanation in the House of Commons yesterday.

The 325-to-136 vote which defeated Lloyd George's motion of censure last night is generally described as "a party victory, a hollow triumph."

KINCADE CASE DELAYED AGAIN

Two Important Witnesses Are Touring World.

By Times Special

NOBLESVILLE, Ind., March 24.—Because two important witnesses are now touring the world, the third trial of Lee Kincaide, charged with murdering his father, wealthy farmer, has been postponed until May. It was to have opened Tuesday.

Kincaide was convicted of manslaughter here and was granted a new trial at Tipton. The jury disagreed in the second trial.

Financial circles today mourned the death of Alex W. Thomson, 67, senior partner of the brokerage firm of Thomson & McKinnon, 300 Fletcher American Bank Bldg., who died following a heart attack Tuesday at the home of his brother, Henry C. Thomson, 3456 Central Ave. Mr. Thomson had been ill since January.

The firm of Thomson & McKinnon, brokers, was established in 1913 when Mr. Thomson formed a partnership with R. W. McKinnon, S. P. White of Chicago and T. J. Brosnan of New York. Later Henry Holt became a resident partner of Mr. Thomson and partnerships were formed with H. L. Winters, A. W. Mansfield and J. H. Vail of Chicago and A. G. De Lany, B. H. Etzelson, W. J. Lyons and T. P. Brosnan of New York.

The firm had branch offices in New York, Chicago and twenty other cities in the United States and correspondents in more than thirty cities. Private wires connect the local and other offices with the leading stock and produce exchanges of the United States and Canada. Nearly 600 persons are employed.

Mr. Thomson was active in Masonic activities and a member of the Indianapolis Athletic and Columbia Clubs and the Athenaeum. He is survived by his brother and two sisters, Mrs. Stephen P. Bogert of Indianapolis and Mrs. Ida Schultz of Los Angeles, Cal. He lived at his country home near Thirty-Eighth St. and Pendleton pike.

RICH HUSBAND SAYS WIFE HAD ONE BIG THIRST

Suit Charges She Was Drunk on Dance Hall of Every Big Hotel.

By Times Special

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., March 24.—John P. Mahlstedt, a wealthy New York business man, has answered his wife's suit for separation by asserting that Mrs. Mahlstedt "was drunk on the dance floor of every important hotel in New York."

The case, peppered with amusing charges and counter-charges, was heard before Supreme Court Justice Tompkins and a group of interested friends of the couple.

Mrs. Mahlstedt recently brought her suit in New York, alleging abandonment and cruel and inhuman treatment. The case was transferred to White Plains and Mahlstedt's counsel presented his side of the affair on Tuesday. The couple eloped and were married in 1922.

"In October, 1925, while dancing with Mr. Elmer, president of the Miami Beach Corporation, at the Hotel Plaza, Mrs. Mahlstedt made a spectacle of herself," Humphrey J. Lynch, the defendant's attorney, told the court.

Very Drunk

"Without mincing words, the plaintiff got very drunk."

"How is that possible now?" interjected Judge Tompkins.

"She was able to do so," continued Lynch, urbanely.

"At 3 a. m., in the Mahlstedt's apartment, the plaintiff insisted upon telephoning to Mr. Elmer. Mr. Mahlstedt took the receiver from her and that constitutes one of the alleged acts of cruelty."

"Mrs. Mahlstedt gave a Halloween party at the Westchester Biltmore Country Club and drank too many high balls," the lawyer proceeded.

"She left her guests to enter a private diningroom where members of a golf club were holding a private dinner. She tried to dance with a young man in there, but both fell to the ground."

"The manager of the club put Mrs. Mahlstedt out, her husband broke off relations with her, and she went home with a young man."

"Next morning, while in the bathtub, Mrs. Mahlstedt was confronted suddenly by his wife, who was about to strike him on the head with a large hand mirror. She had been drinking all night and still had her youthful cohorts with her."

He Took Mirror

"The defendant took the mirror from her and she fainted."

"This certainly did not constitute cruelty, as alleged by the plaintiff."

"Mr. Mahlstedt complains that on several occasions his wife slapped his face and called him 'you little Irishman.'"

"We will show testimony that Mrs. Mahlstedt has been intoxicated on the dance floor of every important hotel in New York."

Mrs. Mahlstedt maintains her husband is "worth half a million dollars," while he replies that his assets do not exceed his liabilities by more than $40,000, that Mrs. Mahlstedt gambled away his fortune at roulette last summer, and that as a last straw, she charged a $2,000 mink coat to him the day before she brought suit for separation.

RELATIVES FEAR SUICIDE

Shoe Repair Shop Operator Reported Missing to Police.

Fear that John G. Kurtz, 66, of 1903 Bellefontaine St., might take his own life was expressed by members of his family, who have reported him missing to police.

Kurtz, who operates a shoe repair shop at 51 Kentucky Ave., has been ill for some time, and this may have been the cause for his sudden disappearance, it was said. Kurtz, who is six feet tall, wore a dark overcoat when last seen. Relatives said he had a large sum of money with him.

SATANIC CULT INVESTIGATED

Human Sacrifice Made, Authorities Fear.

OAKLAND, Cal., March 24.—Human sacrifices are believed to have formed part of the mystic ritual of "The Satanic Order of Lucifer," being investigated here.

The theory was first advanced by J. F. Galliana, an attorney and has been strengthened by circumstances surrounding the death of Macario Timon, a leader in the strange organization.

Timon's body was found in his home last week, his throat cut from ear to ear. At the time it was believed he had been killed because of mining secrets, which he was thought to possess, but the queerly marked papers found in his room have been linked now with the "Satanic Order."

The cult is of Mexican origin. Galliana, deciphering "El Libro Infernal" found among Timon's effects, told Tuesday how members of the order inscribed their names on its records, using their own blood for the signatures.

Other fantastic customs were described in the book. Some of them have to do with blood sacrifices and, although the killing of human beings was not mentioned specifically, Galliana said he believed the order had adopted that barbarian custom.

POST BREAKS RECORD

Large Amount Raised for Legion Endowment in Small Town.

All records in the American Legion campaign for a $5,000,000 endowment fund for disabled veterans and orphans of the World War have been broken by Williamson Post No. 394, at Williamson, N. Y.

Commander John R. McQuig declared here today. Williamson is one of a number of communities which are staging delayed campaigns in an effort to complete the entire fund.

With a population of only 550, Williamson reported 750 subscriptions for a total of $2,400. The quota set was $500. The subscriptions ranged from 25 cents to $25 each. The average subscription was almost $4 a person, as against a previous high average of approximately $2 an inhabitant, made by a California town. The post has only forty-six members.

BUSINESS BLOCK SOLD

Timothy W. Foran, former Duluth (Minn.) dry goods merchant, Tuesday bought a brick business block at 55-57-59 E. Washington St., from Thomas H. Peters, it was announced by J. D. Brosnan, 1475 N. Delaware St., who negotiated the deal. Consideration was not announced.

Building is one-story, with 60 feet frontage in Washington St. and 162 foot depth. It consists of three rooms, one of which is occupied by Peters' dry goods store. Coincident with the sale Peters took a ten-year lease.

Beg Your Pardon

The descriptive matter on the Men's $14.95 Spring Suit item, appearing in a Times advertisement of March 19, should have read:

NEW RIOTS IN PEKIN FEARED; OFFICIALS FLEE

Diplomatic Corps Refuses Use of Troops, Including Americans.

By United Press

PEKIN, March 24.—Chinese officials fled to the foreign quarter seeking protection from students who may at any time engage in another anti-government demonstration such as that in which 33 students lost their lives last week.

President Tuan Chi Jui's residence is enclosed within piles of sandbags behind which the presidential guard would stand off the students if they gathered.

In the meantime it was reliably learned that the diplomatic corps today rejected a proposal for the neutralization of Peking and the use of foreign, including American troops to defend the capital against the advancing forces of General Chang Tso Lin and his allies.

The Koumen-chien or nationalist troops now in control of the Peking area, but hard pressed by Chang, may suddenly withdraw from the capital and permit it to be taken without opposition.

The diplomatic corps refused the neutralization proposal after two secret sessions. It is understood that the suggestion came from the Nationalist headquarters, which had hoped that the diplomats would refer the demand to the foreign office, after which foreign troops could have been employed to defend the capital.

Nationalist spokesmen today called upon the Government to carry out its pledge to preserve order in the capital.

Chang and his allies, Wu Pei Fu and Li Ching Lin, have already captured Tien Tsin from the Nationalists in their campaign to gain the entire Peking area. The Nationalist troops were last reported falling back from all fronts.
