The Tabernacle Presbyterian church was the scene this morning at 10:30 a.m. for the wedding of Miss Junia Roemer, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Roemer, 1534 S. State St., and Albert J. Eggert.

The Rev. J. Ambrose Dunkel read the service before an altar arranged with palms and ferns. Preceding the ceremony, Paul Matthews, organist, played a program of music from "Tales of Hoffman." He played "To a Wild Rose" during the ceremony.

The bride was charming in a gown of rose georgette, and a picture hat of beige. She carried an arm bouquet of orchids, sweet peas and valley lilies. Her only attendant was Mrs. Bartlett Brooks, of Marion, Ind., who wore a pretty gown of French blue satin romaine crepe, fashioned with a circular skirt. She wore a small blue hat and carried sweetpeas and pink roses. Julius Caesar was best man, and the ushers were Lawrence Geisendorff and William Reisen.

MADE HER WORSE

Milks Emulsion ended constipation, gave her new complexion and health.

"For a number of years I suffered from constipation. I was continually taking pills and cathartics of all kinds, but after the effect of each dose wore off, I seemed to be worse than ever. My complexion was muddy, my eyes dull, my brain sluggish; I had no appetite and no energy. Like a drowning person I grasped at every straw. Seeing Milks Emulsion advertised I decided to try that, and was delighted with the results of the first bottle. Every one noticed my improvement. My skin cleared up, eyes became brighter, and I began to have roses in my cheeks. Was entirely a different person. Eventually I took fifteen large bottles of Milks Emulsion, and I look wonderful and feel the same way. It absolutely made me over. It seems to have cleaned my entire system and made a new person of me!"—Mrs. R. Campbell, Diversburg, Tenn., R. R. No. 2.

Milks Emulsion restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and physics. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food, thus building flesh and strength, which are Nature's only aids in conquering germs and repairing the effects of wasting diseases.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. Wonderful for weak, sickly children.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milks Emulsion. If not satisfied with results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 60¢ and $1.20 per bottle. Sold by druggists everywhere.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it did her a wonderful lot of good. She had been out of school for four months. When I was fourteen I took to my bed and did not get up for eighteen months. Everyone thought I could not live. After four months and I began taking your wonderful medicine Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I could notice a great change almost at once. Now I feel like a new person. I wish all girls would try Lydia E. Pinkham's wonderful medicine."—Mrs. C. M. Re-elected Head of Musical

With many misgivings and feelings of sorrow for the future, Mrs. Trinidad Lopez, of Mexico City, Mexico, with five Mexican children, today was en route to her homeland, the country of bull fights and chili con carne, after having left Indianapolis Tuesday in custody of John S. Sherman, Federal immigration officer, from Cincinnati, Ohio.

Sherman will accompany the family as far as Kansas City. They will be taken on to Mexico from there.

Two years and five months ago Mrs. Lopez brought the youngsters, varying in age from 4 to 12 years, into the United States. They moved to Indianapolis. Two of the boys, half-brothers, are her own, she said, while the other three children were given to her when they were "little bit too over in Mexico."

The children were unanxious in their desire to stay in America.

"I remember Mexico better than the other," said Natividad, the eldest girl, "and I think it is terrible that we go to go back."

She is with three of the others, has been attending school here, officials, hearing of Mrs. Lopez's difficulty in supporting her family by washing and sewing, investigating.

It was revealed that she had falsified in order to get the children into this country. Deportation proceedings followed. Roland C. Snider, chief duty jailer of the Marion County jail, escorted the family to the Union Station.

"Me cry, cry all the time. I no want to go back," said Mrs. Lopez.

"One can hardly blame him for this, for up to date to the outside it seems to go ahead."

"Go ahead, child. Make these rich wasters pay for your voice if possible, but take my advice, don't be too easy. It's a game with most of these men—a game they love to play—and the girl who gives them the most for their money is the girl who will lose out every time. I sometimes think they enjoy being circumvented by some smart gold-digger. Buddy Tremain is a charming man and his music-ped. But, having always had money, he thinks it will buy anything he wants."

"I began to thank Madame Seria effectively, but she stopped me immediately."
