

FIDDLER FROM CITY IN MAINE

Joseph Lawson Writes—In National Contest.

Out in Lewiston, Me., the air is fairly blue these days. They're having an Old Fiddlers' contest which began April 5 and will last until April 12. The champion of Indianapolis, Joseph Lawson, 80, of 819 S. West St., winner in The Times contest held in Tomlinson Hall, Feb. 25, is one of the fiddlers at Lewiston.

Lawson made the trip there in his flyover, decorated with elaborate placards. A letter from him to The Times said that he was met by a reception committee and had his picture taken standing by one of "the big bugs" of Lewiston.

"They are fiddlers here from every part of the country," said Lawson. "Some folks say they never would have believed there were so many in the world. There will be 340 in the contest and some of them are so wonderful that I'm afraid that I can't get rosin enough on my bow to get anywhere with 'em." A champion ship cup and $1,000 are the prizes that have drawn so many fiddlers together.

Local sponsors invited Lawson to make the trip, paying all his expenses while he is in Lewiston.

CAMPUS AND PULPIT KEEP STUDENT BUSY

Preaches Two Sermons Each Sunday and Takes Part in Activities.

Keeping busy is one thing that does not bother D. Robert Hutchinson, 21, of 309 Downey Ave., junior at Butler University, and pastor of the Boggsstown (Ind.) Presbyterian Church. Since obtaining the pastorate in September, through the aid of Dr. J. Ambrose Dunkel of the Tabernacle Presbyterian Church, Hutchinson has delivered a sermon each Sunday morning and evening and has built up the congregation to 150 persons.

But Hutchinson does not neglect activities on the Butler campus. He participates in debating, dramatics and journalism, is a member of Sigma Chi, national social fraternity and Tau Kappa Alpha, national debating fraternity and managed the Dramatic Club's recent presentation of the play, "Twelve." He is a past master counselor of the Indianapolis Chapter, Order of De Molay.

and has served as secretary of that organization.

Hutchinson is not certain whether or not he will follow the ministry as a life vocation.

"But I am sure that the experience I have received as pastor of the Boggsstown church will help me all ways," he said.

IT'S HIGHER EDUCATION

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., April 9.—Herbert Anderson, junior at the University of Illinois, is working his way

DR. W. B. CALDWELL AT THE AGE OF 63

To Dr. W. B. Caldwell, of Monticello, Ill., a practicing physician for 47 years, it seemed cruel that so many constipated infants and children had to be kept "stirred up" and half sick by taking cathartic pills, tablets, salts, calomel and nasty oils.

While he knew that constipation was the cause of nearly all children's little ills, he constantly advised mothers to give only a harmless laxative which would help to establish natural bowel "regularity."

In Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin mothers have a regulating laxative which they can depend upon whenever a child is constipated, bilious, feverish or sick from a cold, indigestion or sour stomach. All children love its pleasant taste.

through college by acting as an aviation pilot. His plane is kept near the university, and he takes passengers on short flights about central Illinois.
