To Whiten Skin with Lemon

The only harmless way to bleach the skin white is to mix the juice of two lemons with three ounces of Orchard White, which my druggist will supply for a few cents. Shake well in a bottle and you have a whole quart of the most wonderful skin whitener, softener and beautifier. Massage this sweetly fragrant lemon bleach into the face, neck, arms and hands. It can not irritate. Famous stage beauties use it to bring that clear, youthful skin and rosy-white complexion; also as a freckle, sunburn and tan bleach. You must mix this remarkable lotion yourself. It can not be bought ready to use because it acts best immediately after it is prepared. —Advertisement.

Sister Mary's Kitchen

Breakfast—Stewed dried peaches, cereal, thin cream, waffles, maple syrup, milk, coffee.
Luncheon—Hot chicken sandwiches, radishes and milk, tea.
Dinner—Cream of tomato soup, cheese souffle, creamed asparagus, brown bread, frozen fig pudding, milk, coffee.
This dinner menu is planned particularly for one of those first warm spring days. A nourishing, well balanced meal is served without meat.

Bits of left-over canned or fresh fruits are used in the "cup" suggested for the luncheon dessert. It may be topped with whipped cream if convenient and if preserved or maraschino cherries are not at hand a bit of current jelly makes an excellent garnish. Of course any kind of jelly "open" can be used but a bright colored one is naturally more effective.

Hot Chicken Sandwiches
Three-fourths cup chopped cold cooked chicken, 1/2 cup milk, 3 tablespoons butter, 2 tablespoons flour, 1 tablespoon grated onion, 1 teaspoon curry powder, 1 teaspoon lemon juice, 6 slices bread.
Combine chicken and ham. Melt butter, stir in flour and when perfectly smooth slowly add milk, stirring constantly. Moisten curry powder in a little cold milk and add with onion to sauce. Bring to the boiling point and boil three minutes. Add chicken and ham and bring again to the boiling point, but do not let boil. Remove from fire and stir in lemon juice, salt and pepper. Melt butter in frying pan and saute bread until a golden straw color on both sides. Spread each slice with chicken mixture and serve at once.

Her Own Way. A Story of a Girl of Today

RETRIBUTION

"Although Buddy Tremaine had never spoken a word of love to me I had known for some time that I was in love with him. If a day passed when I did not see him the world turned gray."

"His attentions to me had been such lately that I was sure he was in love with me and I fully expected he would soon tell me this and ask me to be his wife."

"It did not seem possible to me that, if he had any other interest in me, he would take me into his mother's box at the opera and other most public places."

"I expect his wife had seen me many times with him and probably thought I was just like all the rest. I was so humiliated and hurt, Julie, that I thought I could never face any of Madame Seria's patrons again."

"At the thought of Madame, I blazed up with anger, for of course she must have known it all. She must have known that Mr. Tremaine was married, and I didn't doubt for an instant that she had only done this because she was being paid for all the gorgeous gowns and hats that she said she had given me for advertising purposes."

"Then and there I made up my mind that I would not stay with her another day."

"I went to the models' dressing room and got into my own little suit frock and I left a note with one of the girls for Madame saying that I thought she had treated me very badly in not telling me that Mr. Tremaine was married and letting me publicly accompany him to all the restaurants and public places in town when she knew that even with her as chaperon, my reputation in town was being blasted."

"I told her I could not understand her conduct as that of a woman who respected herself and me. Consequently I was leaving her employ."

"As I knew that Buddy Tremaine had bought all my fine clothes, I sent them all back to him with a note saying that I had just found out that he instead of Madame Seria had given me all the beautiful clothes that I had been wearing lately and so I was sending them back to him, and although I appreciated his kindness, I was sure he could not expect me to take such valuable presents from any man not my husband."

"I felt so utterly broken about Toronto that I could not go to see him. It seemed to me that I had lost more than my reputation when I realized that I could not go on with my music lessons. It was like covering up an open grave and leaving that which I loved best there."

READ THE MESSAGE IN THE SKY

In this picture, the man in the aeroplane is writing on the sky. Huge, fleecy, white letters nearly half a mile high drift out behind him on the breeze.

Just so, above great noisy cities and above placid little hamlets streams a message that she who will may read. It is a message from women to women. Can you read it?

Far and wide it carries the testimony of thousands of happy women who have improved their health and gained a brighter outlook on life by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. For over fifty years, this dependable medicine has been helping them to find the Sunlit Road to Better Health.

FROM GEORGIA

"I can not express in words how thankful I feel for the results that I have obtained from taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. My side hurt me all the time and I was very nervous and felt tired and weak. I read about the Vegetable Compound in a paper and the woman's condition was the same as mine. I have taken five bottles and it has been worth twice its price to me."

MRS. W. T. THOMPSON,
Route No. 5,

TO WASHINGTON

"I was doing cannery work, canning, sealing, etc., but had to quit work as I would be so weak I could hardly walk across the room. A friend told me of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Everyone says I am a healthier and stronger girl. I am recommending the Vegetable Compound to all my friends and I am willing to answer letters from women asking about it."
