FACTIONS SEEK SEATS

Coffin and Voters' League Candidates for Convention.

Rival factions of the Republican party here will contest for delegates to the State convention. Lists of candidates, one headed by George V. Coffin and other prepared by the Marion County Voters' League were filed Wednesday with the county clerk.

The 235 delegates of Marion County will have much to say if the short-term race goes into State convention for decision. Men are aligned for Senator Arthur R. Robinson, and it is believed the league will favor Arch G. Graham, South Bend attorney.

Revocation of Truck Certificate Asked in Petition.

In a petition filed today with the public service commission, revocation of the Kibler Trucking Company's certificate for its Indianapolis-Terre Haute route is asked by the Old Trails Express Company, a competitor.

The complaint alleged the Kibler company violated the law by suspending service and by failure to set up a depreciation reserve fund.

NIGHT'S REST DISTURBED

Is Nature's Way of Telling You "Danger Ahead."

Mrs. G. W. Bushong, 1012 S. East St., Bloomington, Ill., says, "Lithiated Buchu tablets relieved me of bladder weakness. I feel I am well. I tried many remedies. In one week after taking Lithiated Buchu I could notice improvement. I will be glad to tell or write my experience. Lithiated Buchu is not a patent medicine. The formula is on the bottle. It cleanses the bladder as upon salts do the bowels. The tablets cost 2 cents each at all drug stores. Koller Laboratory, Mechanicsburg, Ohio. Locally at Book Drug Co.—Advertisement.

BORNS TALKS FOR ECONOMY

Candidate for Legislature, Others Make Promises.

Economy in government through an honest, business-like program was stressed by Frank Borns, Republican candidate for renomination as State representative from Marion County, at a meeting at Twenty-Seventh St. and Cornell Ave. Wednesday night.

Promise of fair appraisal was voiced by John E. King, seeking the Republican nomination as Center Township assessor, at three meetings at the First United Brethren Church, Park Ave. and Walnut St., 2217 E. Michigan St. and at 1450 Shepard St.

Patrick J. McCormick, candidate for the Democratic nomination as prosecuting attorney, said citizens, especially women, are careless about voting at primary elections in an address at his headquarters in the Farmers' Trust Bldg.
