

SPORTSMEN OF INDIANA PLAN MEETING HERE

Conservation to Be Stressed at Gathering May 20 and 21.

By Times Special
NEWCASTLE, Ind., April 16.—H. H. Evans, Newcastle attorney, and president of the Indiana Sportsmen's Association, announced plans today for a State-wide meeting of Hoosier sportsmen, May 20 and 21, in the House of Representatives, Statehouse, Indianapolis. Evans is president; Harry Hilgeman, Ft. Wayne, vice president, and Ben Mitchell, Bloomfield, secretary-treasurer of the body in charge of the plans for the meeting which is to be "nonpolitical and nonsectarian."

The sessions will open Thursday morning, May 20.

Governor to Talk
Governor Jackson will make the address of welcome. This will be followed by short addresses by L. Ert Slack, on "True Sports," and Senator James E. Watson, on "The Great Outdoors." Thursday afternoon "Conservation" will be discussed.

Thursday evening the Marion County Fish and Game Association will be host to the gathering at a banquet in the Indianapolis Athletic Club. The banquet speakers will be John W. Holtzman, Barry Hilgeman and Secretary of State F. E. Schortmeier.

To Name Officers
Friday morning George C. Waggoner, executive agent State of Kentucky, will speak on "How We Do Things in Kentucky." Richard L. Lister, conservation director for Indiana, will discuss "Conservation in the Old World."

Officers will be elected Friday afternoon and the legislative committee appointed.

The slogan of the meeting is "Indiana First in Conservation."

$1,000 BOND PROVIDED

Soft Drink Parlor Allowed to Remain Open.

A decree closing the soft drink parlor operated by Frank Turk at 959 N. Holmes Ave., as a public nuisance has been issued by Judge T. J. Moll of Superior Court Five. Petition to close the place was brought by Jess E. Martin, Anti-Saloon League attorney, after Turk was convicted of violating the liquor law in Criminal Court.

However, Turk will be permitted to keep his business open since he provided $1,000 bond, as provided by law. Bond is accepted on promise that no intoxicants will be kept or handled at the place for one year, the length of time the place was technically padlocked.

Puzzle a Day

repeat it, but could not, as he had forgotten which pins to move. Can you help him?

Last puzzle answer:
The puzzle stated that Mr. Doze sold 3,536 rabbits in the last eight weeks, increasing every week's supply by one dozen rabbits. Therefore, he sold 400 rabbits the first week; 400 plus 12, or 412 rabbits the second week; 424 plus 12, or 436 the third week; 448 plus 12, or 460 the fourth week; 472 plus 12, or 484 the fifth week; 496 plus 12, or 508 the sixth week; 520 plus 12, or 532 the seventh week; 544 plus 12, or 556 the eighth week. Adding 400 plus 412 plus 424 plus 436 plus 448 plus 460 plus 472 plus 484 equals 3,536.

Double Duty Chamois Skin, 69c

These pieced, double-ply chamois are similar in bulk to a one-piece $1.50 chamois. In this case, necessity proved the mother of invention; one manufacturer with an idea, instead of wasting small pieces of chamois, sewed them securely together with silk thread, and they make the best kind of chamois—ideal for household and automobile use.
