

PROTEST BASE REMOVAL

Kokomo Leaders Consider Remonstrating Air Squadron Change.

Kokomo Special
KOKOMO, Ind., April 16.—Vigorously protesting against removal of the 113th observation squadron of the Indiana National Guard to Indianapolis, local civic leaders today were considering carrying a remonstrance to Governor Jackson. Chamber of Commerce officials expressed surprise at the move, in view of recent announcement that the unit is stationed, will be paid in advance.

"Kokomo has been treated rather shabbily," declared Chamber President W. J. Gollightly. Recent conferences with Adjutant General William H. Kershner, which he denied had been held, let to action by the chamber pledging funds to retain the squadron.

PETITION INVESTIGATED

Widening of W. Michigan St. Asked by Residents.

George G. Schmidt, city engineer, today is investigating a petition of citizens to widen ten feet of W. Michigan St., from White River to Holmes Ave.

The board of works Wednesday authorized permanent improvement of Abbott St., from West to California Sts.; Craft St., from Boyd St. to State Ave., and Charles St., from Morris St. to Ray St.

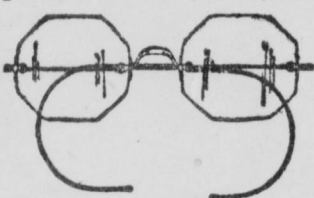

PRISONER ESCAPES

Police today watched for Sherman Rector, 45, who escaped from Lebanon, Ind., deputy sheriffs late Wednesday. He was held awaiting trial on a charge of grand larceny. A deputy took Rector to a barber shop near the jail and he escaped, according to the word received.
