

PRESBYTERY OF DISTRICT WILL MEET TONIGHT

Annual Spring Session to Open—Rivalry in Elections Likely.

Church politics buzzed today among eighty Presbyterian ministers and laymen from Marion and seven adjoining counties, gathering for the spring session of the Presbytery of Indianapolis, which convenes at Westminster Presbyterian Church, 445 N. State Ave., tonight.

A moderator for the presbytery will be elected tonight and election of the stated clerk and commissioners to the Presbyterian General Assembly in Baltimore May 27, will be held Tuesday.

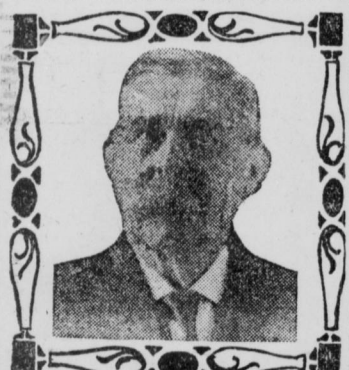

Spirited rivalry appeared between groups with "favorite sons." It was believed the election will devolve into a contest among the counties in the election of a moderator. It appeared likely, however, that the Rev. Thomas B. Hunt of the Seventh Presbyterian Church, 828 Elm St., will be re-elected state clerk without opposition. But competition should reappear with election of commissioners.

A sermon by the Rev. Victor L. Raphael of Greencastle will open the

HAD SUFFERED IN RHEUMATIC PAIN FOR YEARS

Well-Known Indianapolis Citizen Surprised When the New Konjola Relieved Long Suffering.

It is generally conceded that rheumatic trouble is due to impurities in the system. Residue waste matters and old metabolic poisons are held within the body, due to imperfect elimination through the kidneys and bowels, and these impurities seem to concentrate in the sockets or joints, or to filter through and saturate the tissues and muscles, thus causing the awful aches and pains. It is declared that waste matters may continue to collect within the system in this manner for years before the effect is really felt, which is one of the reasons why rheumatism trouble is more common among people past 40 or 45, but it is stated that, in an event, improper elimination will nearly always result, sooner or later, in a bad case of pain and misery that is known as rheumatism.

In view of this it is believed that what is really needed by the rheumatic sufferer is an internal medical preparation that will thoroughly cleanse the system and which will restore the kidneys and bowels to improved activity so that the body will be kept free of impurities. For instance, this new medical compound Konjola, has given surprising relief in many rheumatic cases. It is a wonderful cleanser for the general system, having effect on such organs as the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, invigorating these parts to healthy action so that the rheumatic poisons are driven out of the system in nature's way. A remarkable statement describing the power of this Konjola in rheumatic cases was received just a few days ago by The Konjola Man, who is at Hook's drug store, corner Pennsylvania and Market Sts., this city, from Mr. Ernest Schaefer, well known Indianapolis citizen, living at 1017 English Ave., this city:

"I had suffered from rheumatic pains for years," said Mr. Schaefer. "I was afflicted with this disease in my hips and all through my limbs. Every morning I would suffer so terribly that it was torture for me to get out of bed. Sometimes I would just have to cry out in pain. My limbs would be so stiff each morning that it would take almost until noon before I was able to walk about without suffering misery, but I would always feel stiff, aching and painful during the whole day long."

"I got Konjola, and I tell you, it was an honest fact that the third morning I got up and it took only a few minutes to limber up, and I was able to walk down the stairs without stopping to rest—and that was the first time in many a day that I was able to do this. I was certainly surprised, and I kept on taking this medicine and now I'm getting around fine, better than I have for years. I can also sleep through the whole night without any of the terrible pains from which I used to suffer, and oh, you don't know how much better this makes me feel each morning. I get up and dress like I did years ago. I tell you, that is a wonderful medicine in Konjola. It has even helped me other ways, because my nerves are strengthened, and my general health is improved. I certainly want others to know what Konjola has done for me, as I know there is not another medicine like it, for I believe I have tried nearly everything. I am glad to endorse this wonderful new compound to others who are suffering."

The Konjola Man is at Hook's drug store, corner Pennsylvania and Market Sts., Indianapolis, where he is daily meeting the public and introducing and explaining the merits of this remedy. Free samples given. Konjola is also sold at every Hook drug store in Indianapolis—Advertisement.

Youngest Child to Get Boots' Bob

Catherine McLin, 3, believes she is the youngest flapper in Indianapolis to follow the example of Boots, heroine of "Boots and Her Buddies" on the comic page of The Times, in the matter of haircuts. Catherine's father, Hardin McLin, a barber at 3425 Nowland Ave., gave her the Boots bob shown here.

AFRICAN CHURCH MEETING HERE

1928 Conference to Be in Indianapolis.

The General Conference commission of the African Methodist Episcopal Church in a recent two-day session at Atlanta, Ga., selected Indianapolis for the 1928 quadrennial session of the conference. It was forty years ago that this conference met in this city.

The conference will meet for a month during the spring of 1928, and will bring together upward of 10,000 Negro people.

The Indiana delegation to Atlanta was headed by W. T. Vernon, register of the United States Treasury from 1906 to 1911, present presiding bishop of the Indiana Episcopal District.

STABBED IN ARM

Police said an argument led to a cutting affray at 1631 Le Grande Ave., Sunday night, Lorin Johnson, 22, of 1923 S. State Ave., was found suffering from a stab wound on the left fore arm. He charged his brother-in-law, Griffin Steadham, 23, of 2029 Linden St., cut him. Steadham escaped.

LAVA DESTROYS ISLAND VILLAGE

New Outbreaks From Hawaiian Volcano.

By United Press
KONA, Hawaii, April 19.—A second outbreak from the crater of Mauna Loa, the largest active volcano in the Pacific, located on the island of Hawaii, today sent a new stream of glowing lava slowly down the mountain slope to the sea.

The lava, which started flowing with the first eruption from the crater, destroyed the village of Hoopuloa.

Natives Had Fled

The river of running rock, glowing an angry red, came down the mountainside, overran the village and streamed onward into the sea.

As it struck the water a terrific roar went up and clouds of steam arose from the quarter mile wide point of contact.

Almost at the time the stream from the first outbreak reached the sea, intensity of activity increased in the main crater, more than 10,000 feet high on the side of the mountain, which rises abruptly from mid-Pacific.

New, smaller craters broke out, and the mountain and the island near it shook.
