

CANDIDATES FOR OFFICE CLASSED BY DRY LEAGUE

No Preference Expressed for Watson or Adams—Robinson Indorsed.

Announcing its choices among candidates to be voted on in the primary next Tuesday, the Indiana Anti-Saloon League today expressed no preference for Senator James E. Watson or Charles Adams, Indianapolis attorney, contesting for the Republican long-term senatorial nomination.

For the Republican short-term nomination the league indorsed Senator Arthur R. Robinson, declared Oswald Ryan of Anderson is "supposed" to be dry and listed Ward E. Hiner of Frankfort as "wet."

Arch G. Graham of South Bend, it was declared "so far as is known has heretofore never taken any attitude in favor of prohibition, but has been regarded in some quarters at least as liberal."

Democratic Candidates

Three candidates for the Democratic long-term nomination were announced today and three indorsed. John E. Frederick of Kokomo, L. Ert Slack and Albert Stump, both of Indianapolis, were indorsed.

William A. Cullop of Vincennes and George W. Rauch of Marion were said to be "wet of record," and L. William Curry, Indianapolis, was

KONJOLA PROVED TO BE WHAT HER SYSTEM NEEDED

Indianapolis Lady Says New Compound Improved Her Health in Every Way.

Another remarkable instance in which this new Konjola compound produced amazing benefit was described a few days ago by Mrs. Anna Gorties, popular Indianapolis lady, living at 411 E. Ohio St., this city, while talking with "The Konjola Man, who is at Hook's drug store.

Mrs. Anna Gorties

corner Pennsylvania and Market Sts., Indianapolis, where he is introducing this explaining this surprising new medical preparation.

"I had suffered for fifteen years with stomach and bowel troubles," said Mrs. Gorties. "It is an actual fact that I had spent over two thousand dollars, trying every means that seemed possible to remove the cause of my suffering. It seemed that nothing could be done for me."

"I think the worst part of my misery was from the terrible head aches I would have. Why, sometimes I felt as though my head would split open—the pain was so intense. My stomach caused the trouble, for every time I ate a meal I would suffer agony from gas that formed in my stomach which would blow me up and cause swelling in my chest and pains around my heart. At times I thought I suffered heart trouble. My liver was torpid and inactive, also my system would just seem to fill with bile, which brought on attacks of dizziness and black spots before my eyes. My nerves were on edge all the time, and I kept getting worse, because the food I ate seemed to do me no good except to cause indigestion and misery. My condition had gotten so serious that I didn't know what to do next, for I had tried about every form of treatment and medical aid possible."

"I was told about Konjola by a friend, who explained the amazing relief which this medicine had brought to other sufferers, and so I was confident I should try Konjola. My condition had been so bad that I thought it would take a little time before it would help me, but I declare that the first few doses of this wonderful compound proved to me that it was just what my system needed, and now my health is so improved in every way that it all seems astonishing to me. I don't have the least sign of stomach troubles, either from indigestion, bloating or fermenting of food. My liver and kidneys have been stimulated to healthy action, so that I do not have the dizzy spells or the black spots before my eyes. I don't have the slightest headache at any time or any pain or suffering from bowel troubles, and I can only say in all truthfulness that Konjola has benefited me more than everything I got for the two thousand dollars, or more, which I spent during the past six years trying to regain my health. Konjola surely is wonderful. I think it is a blessing that this medicine is offered to the public, so that everyone can get it, and do not hesitate to tell anyone who suffers just how this compound restored my health."

"The Konjola Man is at Hook's drug store, corner Pennsylvania and Market Sts., Indianapolis, where he is daily meeting the public and introducing and explaining the merits of this remedy. Free samples given. Konjola also is for sale at every Hook drug store in Indianapolis and by all druggists in the nearby towns."

Mrs. Grange Soon, Says Rumor

Vivienne Segal, musical comedy star, is going to be Mrs. "Red," Grange, according to reports in Chicago, where she is playing. She and "Red" refuse to deny it—and they do say "Red's" big roadster is parked outside the stage door night after night.

listed as "said to favor light wines and beers."

All candidates for Seventh District congressional nominations were listed dry. Of the Republicans, Representative Ralph Updike's record was praised, as was the record of Merrill Moores and Franklin McCray. James M. Ogden's indorsement, brief, was "Dry. An excellent Christian man and citizen with fine record."

Collins "Unsatisfactory"

Criminal Court Judge James A. Collins was listed "unsatisfactory." T. Ernest Mahoin, one of his opponents for the Republican Criminal Court judgeship nomination, was listed as "not recommended," and Ralph E. Jones, other aspirant for the nomination, was listed "Dry. Regarded as best of the three candidates." Clarence Weir was recommended for the Democratic Criminal judgeship nomination.

Renomination and re-election of Prosecutor William H. Remy, Republican, was strongly recommended and Raymond F. Murray was indorsed for the Democratic nomination.

Sheriff Omer Hawkins was recommended for renomination and no preference was expressed for Charles Summer or Fred G. Hess, Democratic sheriff aspirants.

Seven Listed Dry

Seven Democratic candidates for Representative from Marion County were listed as dry. Eleven will be nominated. Those listed: William H. Montgomery, Harry B. Perkins, Charles M. Clayton, John R. Williams, Edward Hohit, Howard E. Robertson and Edna M. Christian.

Of thirty Republican candidates for State Representative listed as dry, seven were especially recommended. They were Frank Borns, H. Walker De Haven, Russell Duncan, John W. Ebaugh, Claremont R. Smith, William F. Werner and Frank E. Wright.

No preference for any of the contestants for the Republican State senatorial nomination in Marion County was expressed.

Three candidates for the Republican nomination and two for the Democratic nomination for judge of juvenile court were indorsed. The Republicans were Frank J. Lahr, Clyde P. Miller and Edwin C. Roswell; the Democrats, Jacob L. Steinmetz and John Corrigan.

Harry O. Chamberlain and Vinson H. Manford, Republicans, candidates for the Circuit Court judgeship, both were indorsed.

Leathers "Fair"

Judge James M. Leathers, Republican, of Superior Court One, has made a "fair record," the League said, and listed Claude H. Anderson, one of his opponents, as a "high-grade Christian man who has strong indorsement of moral forces."

For the Democratic Superior Court Three nomination the league said Woodburn Masson was "said to be the best candidate." For the Republican nomination for judgeship of this court Dixon H. Bynum was listed as a "good lawyer." Harvey A. Grubill as "dry" and William O. Dunlavy as "a high-grade man who has strong indorsement of Christian people."

Givan Recommended

For the Democratic Superior Court Four nomination Oscar C. Hagemier was listed "dry." For the Republican nomination, Judge Clinton H. Givan was recommended and Byron K. Elliott listed as "dry."

Thomas D. McGee and Walter J. Brown were listed dry in the Superior Court Five Democratic nomination race. Joseph M. Milner, Charles E. Bebinger and Russell F. McFall were listed as dry in the Republican nomination race.

ARMORED CARS USED

Cavalry Also Employed to Check Calcutta Rioting.

By United Press. CALCUTTA, India, April 28.—Armored cars and Indian cavalry men commanded by British non-commissioned officers today patrolled the streets of Calcutta where sixty persons have been killed and more than 400 injured in riots since Friday.

The appearance of the military was in response to persistent demands of the population that the most effective means at hand be adopted to stop the terrorism which has disorganized the city.

intendent of Equipment George Bartley, Moses and Victor Goldberg, junk dealers, and C. William Whaley.

Since the report has been sent to Washington a special investigator of the Department of Justice has appeared before the State board of accounts and made an investigation.

The Squibb whisky disappearance came to light more than a month ago when Representative La Guardia, New York, in Congress, said 350 cases of the booze had disappeared since it was brought to the Federal Bldg. in 1923. Two checks showed 350 cases missing.

Because of the length of the probe it is not believed it will be presented to the grand jury when it convenes May 5. A special session will be called if the facts warrant it, Ward said.

"SCANDAL TRUTH" DEMANDED

By United Press. INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 28.—Demand "for the truth in the Squibb liquor scandal" was made in a message from Lew Shank, former mayor of Indianapolis, read at a political meeting here Tuesday night.

The message was read by Asa Smith of Indianapolis, who spoke in place of Shank at a meeting of supporters of Charles Adams, Republican long-term senatorial candidate.

Shank's message asked why Senator Watson, whom Adams is opposing, did not insist on an investigation, before the primary, of the disappearance of a part of the Squibb liquor from the Federal building at Indianapolis.

"Watson helped select the men in charge of the liquor," Shank's message said. "He ought to want to fix responsibility."

PROSECUTOR AT CHICAGO SLAIN

brought more than one hundred to police headquarters.

"I feel sure," he told the United Press, "that this thing came out of the beer war and that McSwigglin was accidentally made a victim."

Stooge said factions in the beer running business had simmered down to two strong organizations—known in the underworld as "the Italians and Irish." The Irish band, under the leadership of Doherty and the notorious O'Donnell brothers, had gained a great deal of business lately controlled by the Italian and Sicilian group. The Italians, he explained, have been disorganized.

"Cicero (a nearby Chicago suburb) has come to be one of the last strongholds of the Italians," Stooge said. "The O'Donnells and Dohertys have recently invaded it and it looks to me that the Italians have attempted to scare them out."

Cicero—almost completely surrounded by corporate Chicago, has long been a center of gambling and has housed many of Chicago's most desperate criminals.

Although only 26 years old, McSwigglin had attained a position of prominence at Chicago's criminal bar. He was looked upon as one of the stars of State's Attorney Crowe's seventy assistants. Five men whom he had prosecuted during the last year were sentenced to hang, from which he had earned the title of "Chicago's hanging prosecutor."

Wondered Why Breath Was So Bad

Miss Rose Dittmar, Brooklyn, writes:—"Even though I brushed my teeth and used a mouth wash, my friends turned away when I talked and I wondered why my breath was so offensive, while people less careful were not troubled. After taking Carter's Little Liver Pills for a while the trouble started to disappear. I also noticed my face had better color and was clearer, my eyes brighter, my appetite more hearty and I had no constipation. Bad breath must be reached at the source of the trouble. CAN'T SELL HIS AUTO

Court Issues Order Against John Zener on Wife's Petition.

John Zener, Republican political boss and former police captain, today was enjoined by Circuit Judge Harry O. Chamberlin from mortgaging or otherwise disposing of his automobile, the court acting on a petition of Earl Askren, attorney for Mrs. Zener. The court dismissed a complaint against several local banks alleged to have held money belonging to Zener. A check on the bank records disclosed they had none of Zener's money on deposit. The banks were named co-defendants.
