

SOCIAL Activities

ENTERTAINMENTS WEDDINGS RETROSPECTS

Miss Mabel Stowe, who will be married to Owen Cook at Roberts Park M. E. Church May 28, was the honor guest Tuesday evening at a pretty candlelight party and shower given by Mrs. Virgil Wayman and Mrs. W. G. Holaday, 420 N. Garfield Ave.

Blue, yellow and pink, the bridal colors, were used in the house and table decorations and carried out in baskets of spring flowers, in tall, lighted tapers and a gay parasol over the table from which Miss Stowe's gifts were suspended.

Guests included Messrs. and Mesdames Harry Singer, Norman Martz, George Silver, Scott McCoy and O. B. Little, and Misses Helen Barrett, Alice Witt, Mabel Eisenhart, Lulu Taylor, Hazel Pank, Veryl Bennett, Oleta Bundy, Juanita Donaldson, Lois Hagelorn, Ernestine Menzley, Charline Mendley and Marcia Mendley.

The Children's Sunshine Club of Sunnyside entertained with a luncheon-bridge today at the home of Mrs. Charles Jackson, 5335 N. Delaware St. Assisting the hostess were Mesdames Harry McHale, Ralph Duncan, Rowland Rothwell, Clyde Knapp and Miss Louise Smith. Saturday the children of Sunnyside will celebrate May day, under the auspices of the Children's Sunshine Club.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Harry Miller, 1307 N. Alabama St., will have at their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Karsell, Bloomington, Ind., who spent the past winter in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. They will arrive today. A sister of Mrs. Miller, Mrs. J. F. Levy of Kokomo, Ind., with twenty-five members of her club, were entertained at Ayres' tearoom and afterward attended Keith's Tuesday.

Miss Louise Van Voorhees of New York City and Miss Gertrude Herose, a niece of Dr. Louis Burkhardt, were honor guests at a dance given by Miss Adele Pantzer, 717 Middle Dr., Woodruff Place, Tuesday evening.

The Indianapolis branch of the American Association of University Women will hold its May meeting at the Propylaeum, at 1 o'clock luncheon Saturday. Miss Amelia Waring Platter, president-elect, and Mrs. W. J. Hasselman, for twenty years branch treasurer in Indianapolis, will be the honor guests. A business meeting will follow the luncheon. A program will be given in charge of the international relations committee, of which Mrs. Sue Hamilton Yeaton is chairman. The speaker will be Hua Cheng of Tsinghua College, Peking, China, a fellow in political science in the University of Chicago graduate school.

Mrs. Paul D. Goeke, who will leave this week to live in Denver, Col., will be the honor guest this evening at bridge party given by Miss June Wilson, 1930 N. Illinois St. The house will be decorated with pink sweet peas and yellow jonquills and a fancy hat box, containing going-away gifts for Mrs. Goeke, will form the table centerpiece.

The hostess will be assisted by her mother, Mrs. Lillian Wilson. Other guests will be Mesdames A. F. Deane, William Averill, C. G. Wilson and Edward Goeke and Misses Margaret Ryan, Mildred Miller, Doris Wilson, Marie Gardner, Florence Kessler, Josephine Schlenker, Katherine Ruddy and Helen Moore.

Miss Mary Hess, 2347 N. Alabama St., will entertain Thursday in honor of Miss Marian Hedges who will leave for Newcastle, Saturday. The guests will be the Misses Hazel Heib, Pauline Hedges, Bernice Shaw, Maxine Gray, and Messrs. Ray Cleveland, Edward Callender, Collier Young, Emory Sharp, Dick Elrod, Warrant Peacock, Meredith Rose and William Sayce.

The active chapter of Sigma Alpha Iota, national musical sorority, elects.

Says He Has No Sign of Asthma Now

Cough and Wheeze Disappeared in 1924 and Never Returned

Readers who suffer from asthma and bronchitis will be interested in a letter written by Neval Hamlyn, Wamamaker, Ind. (within 10 miles of Indianapolis). He says:

"After suffering severely for several months my doctor pronounced my trouble asthma. I coughed very hard and it was so tight that I thought I would tear me up. I was getting weaker all the time and was losing weight. I took cold easily, had shortness of breath and wheezed so I couldn't take a deep breath, and would choke up so that I could not sleep. I only weighed 127 pounds. I had tried everything without obtaining relief, and had been confined to my bed for a week when I started taking Nacor in September, 1924. I used three bottles of Nacor in 1924 and felt fine. All asthma symptoms left, gained until I now weigh 140 pounds, sleep like a baby, and have no return of my trouble. I have been able to work all winter, outdoors all kinds of work, and have never felt better in my life."

Hundreds of people who suffered for years from asthma, bronchitis and severe chronic coughs, have told how their trouble left and never returned. Their letters and a book of vital and interesting information about this serious disease will be sent free by Nacor Medicine Co., 413 State Building, Indianapolis, Ind. The book contains your case, the more important this free information may be to you. Call or write for it today.—Advertisement.

Mail Orders Filled Same Day Received

FOR THE BABY

60c Hemo49c
75c Robinson Baby49c
50c Robinson Baby49c
35c Brook Baby Baby49c
60c Merck's Milk Sugar49c
50c Borden's Malted Milk49c
15c Castle Soap, 2 for25c
15c Hygea Bottles, 2 for25c
15c Hygea Breads49c
25c Menner's Borden's Tale25c
25c J. & J. Baby Tale25c
25c Borden's Eagle Brand49c
3 for49c
40c California Syrup of Figs49c
40c Castoria49c
40c Castor Oil, Tasteless49c
50c Hand's Baby Remedy49c
50c Jayne's Vermifuge49c
90c Mellin's Food61c
90c Mead's Dextro Maltose41c
$3.25 Mead's Dextro Maltose$3.48
25c Milk of Magnesia29c
25c Milk of Magnesia29c
25c Dextro$1.48
$3.75 Horlick's Malted Milk$2.98
$1.00 Horlick's Malted Milk89c
50c Horlick's Malted Milk49c
50c Peptogene Powder$1.19
40c Peptogene Powder49c
40c Lasky Food49c
40c Nestle Food$2.48
25c Nestle Food29c
25c Nestle Food29c
Glass Caps for the milk bottle, 10c

KIDNEY REMEDIES

60c Doan's Kidney Pills49c
60c Doan's Kidney Pills49c
60c Doan's Kidney Pills49c
60c Doan's Kidney Pills49c
60c Doan's Kidney Pills49c
60c Doan's Kidney Pills49c
60c Doan's Kidney Pills49c
60c Doan's Kidney Pills49c
60c Doan's Kidney Pills49c
60c Doan's Kidney Pills49c

60c Doan's Kidney Pills49c
60c Doan's Kidney Pills49c
60c Doan's Kidney Pills49c
60c Doan's Kidney Pills49c
60c Doan's Kidney Pills49c
60c Doan's Kidney Pills49c
60c Doan's Kidney Pills49c
60c Doan's Kidney Pills49c
60c Doan's Kidney Pills49c
60c Doan's Kidney Pills49c

Sorority to Stage Benefit Dance

Admission

Mr. Hathaway, senior, quickly took the bag in his hands, opened it, saw all its lovely fittings, and then looked at me interestedly.

"What's this got to do with the episode at the restaurant?" he inquired.

"A lot. Your son sent this doggy little bag, with a note saying he had made the restaurant people buy the bag and put in two hundred and fifty dollars which you will find in the pocketbook inside."

Mr. Hathaway, senior, examined the beautiful brocade bag very carefully and then he turned to me, saying:

"Well, young woman—Miss Dean, wouldn't you consider the incident closed? Why did you come here with your story?"

"For many reasons. First, I don't believe the manager of your restaurant sent me either the bag or the money. I think your son sent them to me as he knows I'm out of a job this morning and need it just at this time very much."

"If that's the case, why don't you accept it and say nothing? He gave you a very good excuse to do so. I still cannot see why you are bringing it to me."

"Oh, don't you? You own the restaurant, don't you? I believe the management of your restaurant owes me the money and a new bag. Not as good as this one, though. Mine was a very modest little affair. I knew I couldn't get at the truth of the thing by interviewing any of your people and of course neither Jimmy Costello or your son would tell me the truth. I don't intend to be under any obligation to Mr. Gerald Hathaway or any other man. I'm going to do it."

"I'm not a gold-digger, Mr. Hathaway. Neither am I a person who believes a thing because I want to believe it. Thinking the matter over, it seemed to me that I could only learn the truth from you. That's why I've come, Mr. Hathaway. I think I have a right under the circumstances to ask you to take the bag and the money and make the investigation yourself and let me know what happens."

"You certainly'll get along, Miss Dean, if you try to go through the world the way you've started. I'll tell you what I'll do. I myself will make restitution. Take the bag and the money. I'll pay Jerry back for it. It is my right. You lost it in my restaurant."

He held out the bag to me. I drew back.

(Copyright, 1926, NEA Service, Inc.)

NEXT. An inkling of a family.

management of your restaurant owes me the money and a new bag. Not as good as this one, though. Mine was a very modest little affair. I knew I couldn't get at the truth of the thing by interviewing any of your people and of course neither Jimmy Costello or your son would tell me the truth. I don't intend to be under any obligation to Mr. Gerald Hathaway or any other man. I'm going to do it."

"I'm not a gold-digger, Mr. Hathaway. Neither am I a person who believes a thing because I want to believe it. Thinking the matter over, it seemed to me that I could only learn the truth from you. That's why I've come, Mr. Hathaway. I think I have a right under the circumstances to ask you to take the bag and the money and make the investigation yourself and let me know what happens."

"You certainly'll get along, Miss Dean, if you try to go through the world the way you've started. I'll tell you what I'll do. I myself will make restitution. Take the bag and the money. I'll pay Jerry back for it. It is my right. You lost it in my restaurant."

He held out the bag to me. I drew back.

(Copyright, 1926, NEA Service, Inc.)

NEXT. An inkling of a family.

management of your restaurant owes me the money and a new bag. Not as good as this one, though. Mine was a very modest little affair. I knew I couldn't get at the truth of the thing by interviewing any of your people and of course neither Jimmy Costello or your son would tell me the truth. I don't intend to be under any obligation to Mr. Gerald Hathaway or any other man. I'm going to do it."

Her Own Way. A Story of a Girl of Today

FEARLESSNESS BEGETS ADMIRATION

Mr. Hathaway, senior, quickly took the bag in his hands, opened it, saw all its lovely fittings, and then looked at me interestedly.

"What's this got to do with the episode at the restaurant?" he inquired.

"A lot. Your son sent this doggy little bag, with a note saying he had made the restaurant people buy the bag and put in two hundred and fifty dollars which you will find in the pocketbook inside."

Mr. Hathaway, senior, examined the beautiful brocade bag very carefully and then he turned to me, saying:

"Well, young woman—Miss Dean, wouldn't you consider the incident closed? Why did you come here with your story?"

"For many reasons. First, I don't believe the manager of your restaurant sent me either the bag or the money. I think your son sent them to me as he knows I'm out of a job this morning and need it just at this time very much."

"If that's the case, why don't you accept it and say nothing? He gave you a very good excuse to do so. I still cannot see why you are bringing it to me."

"Oh, don't you? You own the restaurant, don't you? I believe the management of your restaurant owes me the money and a new bag. Not as good as this one, though. Mine was a very modest little affair. I knew I couldn't get at the truth of the thing by interviewing any of your people and of course neither Jimmy Costello or your son would tell me the truth. I don't intend to be under any obligation to Mr. Gerald Hathaway or any other man. I'm going to do it."

"I'm not a gold-digger, Mr. Hathaway. Neither am I a person who believes a thing because I want to believe it. Thinking the matter over, it seemed to me that I could only learn the truth from you. That's why I've come, Mr. Hathaway. I think I have a right under the circumstances to ask you to take the bag and the money and make the investigation yourself and let me know what happens."

"You certainly'll get along, Miss Dean, if you try to go through the world the way you've started. I'll tell you what I'll do. I myself will make restitution. Take the bag and the money. I'll pay Jerry back for it. It is my right. You lost it in my restaurant."

He held out the bag to me. I drew back.

(Copyright, 1926, NEA Service, Inc.)

NEXT. An inkling of a family.

management of your restaurant owes me the money and a new bag. Not as good as this one, though. Mine was a very modest little affair. I knew I couldn't get at the truth of the thing by interviewing any of your people and of course neither Jimmy Costello or your son would tell me the truth. I don't intend to be under any obligation to Mr. Gerald Hathaway or any other man. I'm going to do it."

"I'm not a gold-digger, Mr. Hathaway. Neither am I a person who believes a thing because I want to believe it. Thinking the matter over, it seemed to me that I could only learn the truth from you. That's why I've come, Mr. Hathaway. I think I have a right under the circumstances to ask you to take the bag and the money and make the investigation yourself and let me know what happens."

"You certainly'll get along, Miss Dean, if you try to go through the world the way you've started. I'll tell you what I'll do. I myself will make restitution. Take the bag and the money. I'll pay Jerry back for it. It is my right. You lost it in my restaurant."

He held out the bag to me. I drew back.

(Copyright, 1926, NEA Service, Inc.)

NEXT. An inkling of a family.

management of your restaurant owes me the money and a new bag. Not as good as this one, though. Mine was a very modest little affair. I knew I couldn't get at the truth of the thing by interviewing any of your people and of course neither Jimmy Costello or your son would tell me the truth. I don't intend to be under any obligation to Mr. Gerald Hathaway or any other man. I'm going to do it."

SPANISH PARTY GIVEN BY CLUB

Inter Nos Organization Has Guest Affair.

The Inter Nos Club gave a unique guest party at the home of Mrs. H. L. Van Dorin, 2164 Broadway, this afternoon. This year the club has devoted its study to the literature and history of Spain, and the party was planned as a Spanish fiesta. Red and yellow formed the color scheme for the decorations and the menus were striking covers of old Spanish-Moorish design.

A doll dressed as a Spanish senorita formed the centerpiece at each table. The rooms were decorated with baskets of red and yellow flowers. Covers were laid for twenty-five guests.

Dressed in costumes of Spanish Gypsies, Misses Harriet Haworth, Helen Kimberlin, Virginia Wood and Albert Wood served luncheon, which was entirely of Spanish dishes. The committee in charge included Mesdames Harry Orloff, R. W. Shaw, Walter H. Wood, B. B. Sullivan and M. Van Dorin. Those on the musical program were Mrs. Julio Samper, Mrs. Glenn Diddle, Mrs. T. M. Rybolt, Misses Dorothy Jackson and Julian Kiser.

WOMEN'S COUNCIL NAMES OFFICERS

Mrs. O. C. Lukenbill Chosen President by Directors.

Mrs. O. C. Lukenbill, 1902 E. Washington St., was elected president of the Indianapolis Council of Women by the board of directors at a meeting in Fletcher American National Bank Tuesday. Other officers elected were: Mrs. W. S. Mitchell, vice president; Mrs. A. B. Glick, recording secretary; Mrs. Carl Day, financial secretary; and Walter Giesel, treasurer.

The board also appointed the following committee chairman: Mrs. M. E. Robbins, program; Mrs. Bert Gadd, hospitality; Mrs. M. L. Moon, peace and resolutions; Mrs. C. J. Cook, public health; Mrs. Grace Altwater, Americanization; Mrs. Frank J. Lahr, legislation; Mrs. W. S. Mitchell, visitation; Mrs. Frank Symmes, civics; Mrs. W. H. Clark, education; Mrs. Guy Seaton, court; and Mrs. Curtis Hodges, indorse.

Recipes By Readers

NOTE—The Times will pay $1 for each recipe submitted by a reader and printed in this column. One recipe is printed daily, except Friday, when twenty are given. Address: Recipe Editor of The Times. Checks will be mailed to winners.

Write only one recipe, name, address and date on each sheet.

ESCALLOPED VEAL CHOPS

Trim nice veal chops, season with pepper and salt and brown quickly on one side in a hot buttered frying pan. Put one cup of chili sauce or tomato catsup in the bottom of a casserole. Break twelve soda crackers into small pieces, but do not crush. When the meat is ready put the crackers on top of the sauce and dot liberally with little pieces of butter. Sprinkle with two tablespoons of grated cheese. Lay the veal chops, browned sides up, on top and bake thirty minutes without a cover.

Mrs. F. H. Reynolds, 2318 Meredith Bldg., City.

Lemon Juice Whitens Skin

The only harmless way to bleach the skin white is to mix the juice of two lemons with three ounces of Orchard White, which your druggist will supply for a few cents. Shake well in a bottle, and you have a whole quarter-pint of the most wonderful skin whitener, softener and beautifier.

Massage this sweetly fragrant lemon bleach into the face, neck, arms and hands. It can not irritate. Famous stage beauties use it to bring that clear, youthful skin and rosy-white complexion; also as a freckle, sunburn and tan bleach. You must mix this remarkable lotion yourself. It can not be bought ready to use because it is prepared best immediately after it is prepared.

RUGS and CARPETS and LINOLEUMS

Floor Coverings; beautiful Dutch patterns; per- 49c
DORFMAN RUG CO.
207 W. Wash. St. L. 5720

Arch Supports of All Kinds

Jung's Arch Bands Mode Bros. 141 E. Wash.

Buy YOUR Wearing Apparel on the AMERICAN BUDGET

THE WHY STORE 29 East Ohio St.

Martha Lee Says YEP, HE'LL LOVE YOU IF YOU FEED HIM!

No question about it, the shortest road to a man's heart is emphatically through his tummy! But why a woman should have to stand in a hot kitchen all day baking bread, and cake and spending hours preparing specialties for any man is more than I can see!

Personally, I like baker's bread as well as that mother used to make—and she made awfully good bread! Anybody with average intelligence can follow a cook book's directions for palatable goodies and not wreck her morals, either! Right down on the brass tacks: Isn't it true that food turns out as well, if not better, now with the aid of definite directions and quantities than it did when mother guessed at her measurements each time and sometimes it was delicious and sometimes—it fell flat? Sure it is. Anthony Ludovici, in his book on "Woman's Future," gives me mental riddles wedding him on the last household arts, writing: "The art of cooking is becoming a mere fool's game—the preparation of which requires no thought or trouble." And "Never have the country's food and its preparation been in a more deplorable condition than today." Bah, pshaw and piffle! Some men are incurable woman-drivers!

Another One Dear Martha Lee: I have married a young woman who is a home maker. She is not making a home for me. Her idea of a meal is something out of a couple of cans and she buys canned everything already prepared, like bread and cake, and even meats. I want a comfortable married life, and I like mother used to make, and plenty of good things. My mother cooked in a kitchen as large as my living-room. Now I live in a small apartment. I have my wife as a real home for me. I shall have to leave her. What you advise? HERMAN.

Listen, Herman, you're one of those people who make me positively ill! I have never been able to see that woman's place was in the kitchen spending day after day preparing foods for a gourmandize to devour wholesale in thirty-five minutes! Canned foods properly seasoned and cooked and prepared are just as appetizing as the kind you spend hours fixing and steaming over. Baker's bread is just as wholesome as that made at home. Any busy woman's foolish to cook away her life worrying over a cake when she can buy a delicious one that she knows has come out right. That big kitchen of your mother's—I'll bet it sapped her life away visibly, and the million steps she took there teaching you to slave-drive a woman kept her from taking them with you, letting her enjoy her life and yours. The solution for your family is for your wife to provide a cook for you, who knows nothing else and wants to do that.

FARMER MURDERED

BRAZIL, Ind., April 23.—Michael Miller, 50, a bachelor farmer, was found murdered today on the porch of his home south of Brazil.

Cuticura Toilet Trio

Send for Samples To Cuticura Laboratories, Dept. E, Malden, Mass.

LIEBER AT SOUTH BEND

By Times Special SOUTH BEND, Ind., April 23.—Organized conservation has cost the people of Indiana 30 cents per capita for the seven years of its existence, and is doing the work with six separate State agencies formerly accomplished. South Bend Post-Tribune was told today by Conservation Director Richard Lieber.

Women's Safety

from loss of charm under trying hygienic conditions secure this way. True protection—discards like tissue

SCORES of women's disorders are largely traced today to old-time "sanitary pads," insecure and unsanitary.

Eight in 10 better-class women today employ "KOTEX."

Wear lightest gowns and frocks without a second thought, any day, anywhere.

Discards as easily as a piece of tissue. No laundry. Five times as absorbent as ordinary cotton pads!

Deodorizes. Ends ALL fear of offending.

You get it at any drug or department store simply by saying, "KOTEX." No embarrassment.

In fairness to yourself, try this new way. Costs only a few cents. Twelve in a package.

KOTEX

No laundry—discard like tissue

VISIT OUR NEW STORE

31 Monument Circle LYMAN BROTHERS

BUY SILKS AT THE SILK SHOP Highest Quality Silks Moderately Priced. 27 the Circle

Look! $3.85 for this Genuine SELLERS KITCHEN CABINET

Steam and Moisture-Proof Finish
Wedge Tenon Dovetail Joints
8 Piece Glassware Set
Roll Curtains - Protection from Dust & Dirt
Porcelain Work Surface Free from Scratching Doors
3-Point Suspension Drawers - No Jamming
Large Metal Bread Box
Ant-Proof Casters Keep out Ants
Sellers No. 404
40 Inches Wide—66 Inches High
At Least $5 Allowance for Your Old Cabinet—More if It Is Worth It

This is not a cheap cabinet, built down to a price. It is a genuine SELLERS, offered at the lowest price in Sellers history through volume production in their enormous plant.

Here are some of its interesting features:
—Roll Curtain Enclosed Front.
—Extension Porcelain Work Table.
—Three Drawer Base.
—Tint Proof Casters.
—Three-Point Suspension Drawers—they will never stick.
—Sellers standard materials and construction throughout.
—Beautiful and durable oak finish.

BANNER-KOTTEMAN
31-33 South Meridian Street—Half Block From Washington