

SENATOR ENGLISH LAID REST BY FRIENDS, LODGES

New Attends — Governor Heads Colleagues—Elks, Masons Participate.

State Senator William E. English was to be buried in Crown Hill cemetery at sunset, following extensive funeral services starting at 2:30 p. m., in which high state government dignitaries, a representative from President Coolidge's Cabinet, and delegations from three fraternal organizations participated.

Dr. Frank S. C. Wicks of All Souls Unitarian Church and Dr. Floyd Van Keuren of Christ Church will conduct services in the parlors of the English Hotel. Masons and Elks conducted fraternal rites before the Christian services. Spanish American War veterans will fire a salute of honor at the grave. A delegation of his colleagues in the Legislature was headed by Governor Joseph Postmaster. Congressman Harry S. New arrived from Washington at 11 a. m.

Parking was banned on the north half of the circle. Hundreds attended. Under directions of Mr. English, written and hidden before his death, the service opened with a solo by Mrs. Norma Mueller, "Lead, Kindly Light."

The Rev. Van Keuren read the liturgy of the Episcopal Church. In his address, the Rev. Wicks said of Mr. English:

"He might have said with Paul: 'The time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith.'"

Masons held services at the grave. Taps sounded and a gun squad of Spanish American War veterans stepped forth for the final salute.

Luke May, criminologist, is to decide whether Mrs. Bertha Landes continues as mayor of Seattle or not. The city manager plan, which would do away with mayors, lost by about 100 votes in a recent election, and he's to decide if any votes were tampered with.

CRIME DECREASE NOTED BY POLICE

Few Week-End Robberies Are Reported.

A marked decrease in crime was noted over the past week-end, police said today. Few robberies were reported.

His horse, wagon and harness were stolen from a barn at Indiana Ave. and Johnson St., Charles Hyde, 734 Blake St., reported. Theft of $5 was reported by F. A. Elsey, 321 N. Alabama St.

CHILDREN OF 'FAIR' AREAS ARE ERRING

Lead in Numbers of Those Appearing in Juvenile Court During Year.

Not the slums of Indianapolis, but the neighborhoods classified by Juvenile Court Judge Frank J. Lahr as "fair" have produced the greatest number of erring children, according to the annual report of Judge Lahr given out today.

Of the children appearing in that court 475 were from fair, 158 from bad and 91 from good neighborhoods.

The report revealed that the seventh grade produced the greatest number of delinquents.

Saved From Stigma

Through operation of a complete probation system many were saved from a reform school stigma.

Of $35 boys brought before him, Judge Lahr sentenced only thirty-two to the Boys' School and only five of 616 girls to the Indiana Girls' School.

"Lack of care" was designated as the cause of most cases of delinquency in the court.

Much Paid In

Money for the support of children paid in by parents during the past year amounted to $67,783.92, more than twice the cost of operating the juvenile court.

Cases settled informally without judicial procedure were nearly half the total number that came to Judge Lahr's attention. Of 3,331 cases submitted, 1,528 were settled informally.

so far. Everything that I care for has been smashed to bits so far. That does not take my faith away from me. I will take up the bits and start again. I may not see what I have dreamed of in my lifetime, but I know it will come."

Baldwin promised government protection during and after the strike to any men who would defy the strike order and remain on their jobs.

Strike Inevitable

A. J. Cook, secretary of Miners' Federation, declared the general strike was inevitable.

Air Only Hope for Tourists

By Times Special LONDON, May 3.—Only one way for escape remained today for hundreds of American tourists, stranded here as a result of the general strike. That is the air.

Aviation employees are non-union and all aviation companies are preparing for rush business.

has not involved a large number of soldiers or sailors. A battalion of infantry was en route to the South Wales mine fields; troops and sailors were being concentrated in their barracks. All machines on local passes have been summoned to Portsmouth, but naval leave has not yet been curtailed except for some radio men who have been recalled, presumably for coastal wireless duty.

The strike hit the London Daily Mail today, compelling the London office of that great paper to close down owing to a strike in the mechanical departments of union men who objected to an editorial prepared for today's paper. The editorial denied the general strike could be viewed as an industrial dispute and called it a threat against the life of the community. The Mail called on all citizens to support the king and country.

Forecasting the possibility of all British papers being closed by the strike, the government has taken over the broadcasting facilities of the country and is already putting bulletins on the air.

Violence has occurred in Glasgow and in London, in each case the result of Fascist efforts to heckle labor or Socialist outdoor speakers. Police arrested two Fascist leaders in Glasgow and half a dozen in London. Great labor meetings took place elsewhere in Britain, but without fighting.

"HANDS OFF" POLICY

American miners have no agreement with operators by which they could curb exportation of coal to Great Britain as a sympathy strike in behalf of 1,000,000 striking miners. It was learned at international headquarters of the United Mine Workers here today.

They might be reluctant to exercise such an agreement if it existed. It was learned, because antithetic mined in Wales was shipped to America in high quantities during the recent walk-out of 158,000 eastern miners.

John L. Lewis, international president, was in Washington, D. C., today. Before leaving Saturday he was asked to make any comment whatsoever about the British strike situation. Other officials of the union took their cue from him and refused to be quoted.

Opinion Favors Water Company

Greensburg Firm's Valuation Set Higher.

Public service commission was enjoined temporarily from enforcing its rate schedule of May 25, 1925, against the Greensburg (Ind.) Water Company, and the fair valuation of the company's property was set at $340,000, in an opinion announced in Federal court today. The commission must set a new rate, based on the property's valuation decided by the court.

ADAMS FINISHES G. O. P. BATTLE

Hean national committeeman, supporting Watson as "indeed feasible." Adams declared the party organization should keep hands off in the primary.

Watson remained in Washington. He issued a perfunctory statement expressing confidence and thanking his political friends.

Adams' faction is counting on consolidating all Watson's political foes behind the candidacy of the Indianapolis attorney.

One Speech by Watson

During the campaign Watson made but one speech in the State, and in that he completely ignored Adams' query, "Why Watson?" An appeal to the voters of Indianapolis, his "home city," was made today by Robinson in a public statement. He expressed opposition to the unexpired term of the late Senator Samuel M. Ralston. Planks in his platform were support of President Coolidge's economy program and cooperation in enactment of farm relief legislation and laws providing adequate immigration requirements. He expressed opposition to entangling international alliances.

Robinson's supporters predict his vote will be consistently strong in all parts of the State.

A. G. Graham of South Bend, seeking the short term nomination, is expected to poll a substantial vote in northern Indiana.

STATEMENT ISSUED

John G. Yeagley, South Bend, Graham's campaign manager, in a statement issued today predicted victory for his candidate. Absence of "muddling" by Graham was mentioned.

Oswald Ryan of Anderson admittedly has developed strength in central and eastern Indiana by his attacks on Robinson's alleged connection with D. C. Stephenson, former Klan dragon, serving a life term for murder.

The wet campaign of Ward B. Hiner of Frankfort has aroused interest.

Failure of any candidate to secure a majority of all votes cast throws the nomination contest into the Republican State convention June 3 at Tomlinson hall.

May Go to Convention

The chances of a convention choice are believed strong in the Democratic long-term nomination, where six candidates are entered.

PARK CUSTODIAN DIES

Pneumonia Fatal to Thomas Bray, Active Democrat.

Thomas Bray, 65, of 1127 Union St., Spades Park custodian for the past nine years, died Sunday night at his home from pneumonia after two weeks' illness.

Mr. Bray was born in Madison and had lived here nearly all his life. He was active in Democratic politics. He was a member of Tent 35, Macabees.

The widow and two sons, Charles T. and Thomas L. Bray, Deland, Fla., and three daughters, Mrs. Robert Slagle, Mrs. Mary T. Wilson and Miss Kathleen Bray, and one sister, Mrs. Mary Scanlon, survive.

The State's ten Republican Congressmen, except one, face opposition. Harry E. Rowbottom of Evansville is unopposed for the nomination. In Marion County, James M. Ogden has made a strong campaign against the renomination of Ralph Updike. Merrill Moores, former Congressman, also has developed strength.

Morris Greenleaf, another aspirant for the Seventh district Republican nomination today asserted that, if elected, he would back Indianapolis in a business way at the nation's capital.

Other G. O. P. congressmen aspiring for renomination are Noble J. Johnson, Terre Haute; Richard N. Elliott, Connersville; Albert H. Vestal, Anderson; Fred S. Purnell, Altica; Will R. Wood, Lafayette; Albert R. Hall, Marion; David Hogg, Ft. Wayne, and Andrew J. Hickey, La Porte.

Arthur H. Greenwood of Washington, Frank Gardner, Scottsboro, and Harry C. Canfield, Batesville, all Democratic Congressmen, appear likely nomination winners. Greenwood is unopposed.
