

MISS SHEETS AND HAROLD SCOTT WED AT CHURCH

Pastor Performs Single Ring Ceremony—Reception at Club.

A beautiful wedding took place at the Methodist Street M. E. Church this afternoon when Miss Dorothy Sheets, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert P. Sheets, 3535 Central Ave., became the bride of Harold Irving Scott. The single ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Virgil Rohr, pastor of the church. As the guests were being seated Miss Frances Luke sang "At Dawning" and "Because." Miss Annabel Stroull, organist, played.

Miss Sheets' attendants were her sister, Miss Edna Sheets, maid of honor, and bridesmaids, Miss Mildred Schneider, Jasper, Ind., and Miss Judy Jenkins, Detroit, Mich. Little Virginia Rea was flower girl and Arthur Elchenheiser, Ft. Wayne, Ind., best man.

Heading the wedding procession were the ushers, Edward Wehmer, Ft. Wayne, and Edward Dunlap, Plymouth, Ind. The maid of honor was in turquoise blue georgette with wide, transparent pale pink hat. She wore silver slippers and carried a bouquet of spring flowers, with roses predominating. Miss Mildred Schneider wore peach tulle, wide peach, transparent hat and carried spring flowers, while Miss Jenkins was in light green tulle, with green picture hat.

The bride, on the arm of her father, wore a gown of white satin, made with lace waist and with full overskirt of lace, caught here and there with orange blossoms. Her veil was arranged with a bandeau of rhinestones and she carried a shower bouquet of white roses and white sweet peas.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Indianapolis Athletic Club for friends and relatives.

She's Prettiest at Atlanta

Mrs. Do Sales Harrison has been elected prettiest member of the Atlanta Junior League for 1926.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott left immediately on an auto tour through the South. They will be at home after May 15, at Plymouth, Ind.

TIRED, ACHING FEET

THE minute you put your feet in a "Tiz" bath you feel pain being drawn out and comfort just soaking in. How good your tired, swollen, burning feet feel. "Tiz" draws out the poisons that cause tender, aching feet.

"Tiz" takes all the soreness out of corns and callouses. Get a box of "Tiz" at any drug or department store for a few cents.

End foot torture forever—wear smaller shoes, keep your feet fresh, sweet and comfortable.

COLUMBIA CLUB PLANS THREE BIG AFFAIRS IN MAY

Junior Frolic, Dinner and Speedway Dances Feature Month.

A junior frolic, a dinner dance closing the social season, and a speedway dance, are on the program of the Columbia Club for May, according to announcements sent to members by John C. Ruckelshaus, president.

The junior frolic will be held in the grill room Thursday evening, May 6. It was arranged by the junior membership committee, and is intended primarily for members in that classification, men between the ages of 21 and 30, although senior members will be welcomed. A buffet lunch at 7 will be followed by an address by Attorney General Arthur L. Gilliam.

The dinner dance which will close the formal social season of the club is scheduled for Saturday evening, May 15. The dinner in the main dining room will be served from 7 to 9:30 and the dance will follow in the ball room. The entertainment committee has arranged a lively musical revue during the dinner. This will be the last appearance this season of the Charlie Davis Columbia Club Orchestra.

For the Speedway race period appropriate music and entertainment are planned for the Saturday and Sunday evenings preceding the race, and on Monday evening the Speedway dance will be held.

Her Own Way. A Story of a Girl of Today

MISS CLEVER'S SAD EYES

Mamie said she could get away, or at least she said she would get away, and I started out to hunt another job, first putting two hundred and twenty-five dollars in the bank. I was not going to take any chances in the future.

I made up my mind I would write Mamie a check for twenty-five dollars for rent when I arrived back at the house.

When I first went in Morton's department store I was a little bit flustered. The young woman clerks looked so well dressed and fashionable that I was sure my own plain little frock stood out like a sore thumb.

A good looking man of about 45 walked past me, turned quickly and came back with a smile.

"What is it you wanted? Can I do anything for you?"

Someway I could see that he didn't think me a back number and I told him I wanted a job.

For a moment he seemed a bit surprised and then he asked again: "In what department are you going to make your application?"

"In any department where there's a vacancy," was my reply.

"Have you had any experience?"

"None. But I am sure I can sell dry goods. I like things to wear and I think as a rule people like me."

"I'm sure they do," he said.

He looked at me a moment as though making a sudden resolution. "I believe you could sell goods. Have you any recommendations?"

"Yes, Gerald Hathaway, Senior, will vouch for me if you will call him up." It seemed to me when I mentioned Mr. Hathaway's name a speculative look came into the man's eyes.

"Come with me," he said. He hadn't even asked my name.

As we started toward the elevator a very stunning looking woman came forward and asked:

"Is there anything I can do for you, Mr. Robinson?"

"Nothing, Miss Cleaver, thank you. It seemed to me that Mr. Robinson's tone carried quite a little annoyance."

The woman frowned and I saw she was much older than I thought when she was smiling. She had the saddest eyes I have ever seen.

SMOCK FOR BEACH WEAR

Design No. 2721—Smock with slightly flared hemline of cretonne in pretty floral pattern, with plain gingham used for contrasting on collar, pockets and cuffs. It has large roomy pockets and notched collar.

You may wear it in the kitchen to prepare dinner, for work in the garden or at the beach over your bathing costume. It's so attractive and practical, and only requires 3 1/2 yards of 40-inch material with 1/4 yard of 27-inch contrasting for the 36-inch bust measure. And best of all, it is so easy to make. A smart yoke effect is made by slashing the collar at perforations; the lower edge of which is gathered and joined to upper edge. The side and shoulder seams joined; pockets stitched at perforations; collar rolled with fronts of smock and sleeves set into armholes. Complete instructions with pattern.

Cuts in sizes 16, 18 years, 36, 38, 40 and 42 inches bust. Pattern price 15 cents, in stamp or coin (coin preferred). Our pattern is made by the leading Fashion Designers of New York City and are guaranteed to fit perfectly.

Every day The Times will print on this page, pictures showing the latest up-to-date fashions.

This is a practical service for readers who wish to make their own clothes.

You may obtain this pattern by filling out the accompanying coupon, enclosing 15 cents, coin preferred, and mailing it to the pattern department of The Times. Delivery is made in about one week.

Be sure to write plainly and to include pattern number and size.

Unapproachable Pa

Dear Miss Lee: I am 16 years old. There is a certain young man 20 years old that I especially like. I have known him since the latter part of January. He writes to each other all the time. Although my mother seems pleased with our friendship, I am not so sure about my father. Since my father is not exactly as kind as he could be, I do not like to bring my friends home. My mother says I cannot meet him out. He has told me that he loves me and I believe him. He seems really that of all the boys I know, I really have more respect for him than the rest put together. We have tried every way to think of how he could approach my father and ever so many times I have thought I give up the thought of ever going with him or should I bring him home and have a very deceiving understanding?

Bring him home, child, and beard the lion in his den without a quake. Take him right up to father and say, "Father I know you want to meet John Smith. Mother says we may go to the movies tonight with Betty and Betty. And may we all come back here afterward?" Take the attitude that you know father is just bursting to meet all your interesting young friends and he may jog out of his disagreeableness long enough to fall in with your mood.
