

STIRRIN' the DOPE

By VEDDER GARD

ORVAL MARTIN of Bellmore, Ind., is at Chicago to participate in the national interscholastic track and field meet. The youth won the mile run in the State high school tourney at Technical field. He deserves credit, as facilities for training at Bellmore are meager.

Martin, however, may have had advantages which he does not realize—invigorating air, good food, regular sleeping hours and conditions which made concentration on his purpose easier because outside distractions were not present.

City boys do not always have these advantages, although they may have fine tracks and other up-to-the-minute facilities.

UST what happened so suddenly to the Boston Braves? After defeating Brooklyn in a double-header on Wednesday, they came right back Thursday to give the leading Cincinnati Reds a drubbing. The bustling, bustling Braves' new motto seems to be, "A dozen runs a game."

Against Brooklyn, twelve runs were made in each contest and a total of thirty-four hits piled up. Again on Thursday the score was 12 to 5 and fourteen blows were sent screaming on their way.

In the last three games the Braves have made thirty-six runs and forty-eight hits—three dozen tallies and four dozen sacrifices.

ONE ought to be able to pick a few winners from all the race tracks that are in operation at the present time. Latonia, Aurora, Belmont Park, Fairmount, Thornecliffe and Kempton Park are in full blast.

The field for the Latonia Derby on Saturday is sure to be small. Right now the certain starters appear to be Navigator, Blondin, Rhinokk, Recollection and American Son.

The Latonia Derby is a real test of stamina, as the distance is one mile and a half. It appears to be an open race since the withdrawal of Bubbling Over. The Bradley entry of Bagenbagg and Red Post is not so impressive without the dazzling stablemate who won the Kentucky Derby.

UST what happened so suddenly to the performance of Babe Ruth and the Yankees? It is said that the most interesting feature of major league baseball in New York is the appearance of Andrew Cohen in the uniform of the Giants.

McGraw recently paid something like $20,000 for the stocky little Jew who was obtained from Waco of the Texas League. The newcomer is a southerner who attended the University of Alabama, where he was an all-around athlete. He had his nose broken playing football. Cohen is an infielder, preferably short or second.

The young Hebrew has not got into the game yet, as Farrell has been at short while Jackson is out of the game with an injury. He probably will be carried along, however, as a box office attraction.

McGraw once said he would give $100,000 for a real Jewish star. Considering the percentage of Jews in New York, Andy should have four friends out of every five fans.

THE British give the score of the Walker Cup matches as 5½ to 5½, counting the Von Elm-Hedest halved affair as one-half point for each team. No use arguing about it, the advantage of one point is still there. The United States Golf Association says half points should not be scored in Walker Cup competition.

Bobby Jones' victory over Cyril Toole by a score of 12 and 11, was the most one-sided in history of the cup play. Jones was in remarkable form, while the Englishman was just as bad as Bobby was good.

Jones very likely will stay over for the open meet on June 23, since his fine showing. Other Yankee amateurs likely will go after the crown now held by Jim Barnes, another American.

FINALE WITH SENATORS TODAY; TOLEDO HENS HERE SATURDAY

MORGAN, DELANEY WINNERS

Tod and Jack Outclass Opponents in New York Bouts.

By Paul W. White,
United Press Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK, June 4.—Trying to dope out a "natural" in boxing is one of those entertaining pastimes that drive promoters to strong drink.

No matter how well matched two fighters appear on the record books, they may get in the ring and provide an uneven spectacle that reaches the limit of utter boredom. The case in point was the card at Ebbets field, Brooklyn, Thursday night.

The two feature bouts between Jack Delaney and Tommy Burns, light heavyweights, and Tod Morgan and Steve (Kid) Sullivan, junior lightweights, had a great deal in their favor on paper.

But the fights themselves were so uneven that the hardened customers yawned, and the softer-hearted turned their faces from the carnage.

Stopped in Second
Delaney stopped Burns in the second round of their scheduled ten rounder. The referee stopped the bout in order to avert a massacre.

While Delaney was expected to win from the DeGloiter no one anticipated such a hopelessly ill-matched affair.

The scheduled 15-round go between Morgan, who is the world's champion of his class, and Sullivan, who once held the title, was another dud.

Morgan made his first appearance in the East and demonstrated that they rear good boxers in Seattle. He was so much better than Sullivan that there was nothing to it. Sullivan's second round in the towel in the sixth round.

De Kuh Wins
Art De Kuh won the decision over Carl Carter of Cuba, the Negro proving a decidedly dispirited trial horse. Carter was easily the Italian's master at boxing, but the youngster who is touted as a comer in the heavyweight ranks, kept plugging away and in the last two rounds had the Cuban in distress.

Cannonball Martin, former bantam champion, who was to have fought in a six-round preliminary did not show up.

Wid Matthews got the Van Camp bean gift Thursday. Matty started the fracas with a home run over the low right field fence. He's a mile of a fellow to be hitting circuit drives. He caught the ball on the nose and it sailed over Leibold's head and into the runway.

Matty had a peculiar day at bat. He got a homer and single and struck out twice. On his single in the seventh, Langford juggled the ball slightly and Matty dashed to second, moved up on Sicking's out and scored on Yoter's sacrifice fly.

Hruska, the last man up for the Senators, was retired on a fly in short left center, Matthews making the catch after a long run.

Matty nearly snared Grimes' terrific drive that went for two bases in the seventh. Roy gave the sphere a hard ride to deep left center. Wild dashed back and over and knocked it down. It was ticketed for a triple or homer. Grimes overpowers the ball when he gets a solid poke.

Ninth-inning action had the fans nervous. Grimes singled after one out and went to third on Langford's double. With two strikes, Langford reached up and hooked Hill's offering and shot it against the high right-field fence. Strand batted for Connolly and fanned. Hruska was next and was retired.

Threatening weather and a drizzle before game time held down attendance, and many Washington Park customers missed out on a superb contest.

Hill's mates gave him good support to show they appreciated his fine twirling.

Connolly played a fancy fielding game at short for the visitors. He can "go get 'em."

Matthews, Holke and Hartley each got two safeties off Faeth. With Miller on second and Yoter on first in the fourth, Hartley pushed a single between Connolly and McCarren to score Miller and put Yoter on third. Grover then stole second.

Hill missed scoring a shutout by "inches." With Grimes on third and one out in the seventh, Connolly flied to Russell, and Grimes barely beat Rob's throw home. It was one of the closest plate plays at the park this season.

With the radius of the district increased from thirty to sixty miles around Indianapolis, the local district golf association tournament, to be held Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, June 14, 15 and 16, promises to be one of the biggest golfing events the city ever has had.

Cliff Wagoner, secretary, announced that under the larger radius, twenty-four clubs are eligible for membership and entry.

The boundary goes east nearly to the State line, north to Kokomo, west to Crawfordsville and south to Bloomington. This means there will be some high class golfers in the tournament.

The posters are out bearing the information about the tourney. The phone their entries to mail or telephone their entries to Cliff Wagoner, 700 Traction Bldg., Circle 7200. It will be necessary that all clubs mail a complete, certified list of handicaps of their players, or for each player to have his entry blank signed by the club secretary or chairman of the handicap committee. On Saturday, June 12, the pairings will be made.

The tournament committee, comprised of Eddie Zimmer, chairman; Reub Morris, James Hammill, Bernie Lehman and Wagoner, met Thursday night, when final arrangements were made. It was decided to award twenty prizes.

To the first five players finishing with low net scores at the end of fifty-four holes, prize awards will be made.

Prizes will be given to first and second low net at the end of each eighteen holes.

The first five players finishing with low gross scores will be given prizes at the end of the fifty-four holes.

The low gross player will be awarded a prize at the end of each eighteen.

The twentieth prize will go to the newspaper man with the lowest net score.

We will see you at the Country Club, June 14; the Coffin course, June 15, and at Broadmoor, June 16.

Golfing is booming at the Avalon Country Club. Each week shows more players using the course. In fact the "Avalon Affairs" club publication, in a recent issue stated that many new members were being added just because the present members were able to invite their friends to the course for a round and thus sell them a membership idea.

As a member-getter, Clark Young seems to have the honors. The Affairs states he is at the course Saturday afternoon and Sunday morning and afternoon with different guests. In fact all the members are enthusiastic about their eighteen.

Thousands of dollars a year are wasted by golf players inspired with haste, who play on with another ball instead of giving more concentrated thought to a systematic combing of the rough. An early golf lesson teaches to watch the ball after a shot and mark its stopping place with some nearby object and then walk to the ball on a line. Lost balls seem to be the result of a habit and the Avalon Affairs asks the members to avoid the "lost ball habit."

It says: "Losing golf balls is a bad habit that should be corrected in its inception. Persist in finding your ball. If you do not somebody else will. One member found five excellent balls last Saturday and Sunday and three of them were close together. Losing balls is a form of careless golf that should not be tolerated."

The remainder of the season is to be filled with golf action. Last Saturday, Sunday and Monday the Avalon members engaged in both flag tournament and a medal play meet. The balance of the season schedule is as follows:

Sunday, June 13—Team play by foursome, eighteen holes. Nassau system of scoring. Merrill Brown to select team captains. Losers to throw dinner party for winners the following Saturday, June 16, at the clubhouse.

Sunday, July 4—Medal play, eighteen holes, club handicap. Suitable prizes for first and second low gross and first and second low net.

Sunday, July 18—Mixed foursomes; women to select men partners. Nassau system of scoring, nine holes. Play to start 9 a. m. No handicaps.

Sunday, Aug. 1—Interclub match, most eighteen holes.

Saturday, Aug. 28, and Sunday, Aug. 29—Qualifying round for club championship, eighteen holes. Finals to be thirty-six holes. Play will be in foursome brackets. Championship night, sixteen players; consolation night, sixteen players; President's night, thirteen; first and Greens Committee night, will also be played. The first round of match play will start the following week after the qualifying round.

Home run—Matthews. Two-base hits—Leibold, Hartley, Grimes, Holke, Langford. Sacrifice hits—Langford, Connolly. Double play—McCarren to Connolly to Grimes. Left on bases—Columbus. Indianapolis, 7. Bases on balls—Off Hill, 2; off Faeth, 3. Struck out—By Hill, 3; by Faeth, 3. Umpires—Fowell and McGraw. Time—1:30.

BIG FOUR ROUTE

N. D. TEAM IN TRACK TOURNEY

Hoosier State Champion Squad After New Laurels at Marquette.

By Times Special
NOTRE DAME, Ind., June 4.—Notre Dame trackmen will stack up against the best of the non-Conference thinny clads in the Middle West in the interstate intercollegiate meet at Marquette, Saturday. The field of which the "Irish" are picked to win will be comprised of such schools as Butler, Creighton, Marquette, Grinnell, Michigan State and Lombard.

Stack May Run
The report that Jimmy Stack, star Notre Dame quarter-mile runner, may be back in his running togs Saturday has bolstered "Irish" hopes in the 440 and mile relay. Stack can be counted on to give Phillips, Butler ace, and Grim, Michigan State, a "run for the money" in the quarter-mile.

Lahey, Coughlin and McDonald are other Gold and Blue entries that will bear watching in this event.

Again, Joe Della Maria, one of the most sensational stars on Rockne's team this year, will meet old rivals in the dashes. Alderman of Michigan State and Klance of Creighton are both out to lead Della Maria at the tape. Alderman broke even with Della Maria in their former meeting.

In Pole Vault
Notre Dame hopes to be able to repeat its pole-vault performance of a few weeks ago in winning the Indiana State meet and score a grand slam in this event. Harrington has been having less trouble with his injury than at any other date and prospects of his going over the thirteen-foot mark are bright.

The big Blue and Gold squad is in the best condition that it has been for some time.

FRENCH GOLF CHAMP

SAINT GERMAIN, France, June 4.—Mademoiselle Simonie Thion De La Chaume became women's golf champion of France Thursday, defeating Miss Cecil Leitch of England in the finals, 3 up and 2.

Hens Coming for 4 Games—
Hill Hurls Great Ball
Thursday.

The Columbus Senators had their last chance today to get a victory out of the series with the Indians, and likewise the Tribesmen were in a position to make it a clean sweep. It was "ladies' day" for the Columbus finale.

Casey Stengel's Toledo Hens will make its first visit of the season to Washington Park Saturday and will be here for four days. Toledo has a strong batting outfit and several new players the fans will be interested in seeing perform.

The Bushmen made it three in a row over the Senators Thursday by winning, 4 to 1. Carmen Hill turned in a brilliant brand of twirling and held the invaders to six hits. The lone Columbus marker was scored on a double and two sacrifices fly balls.

The visitors had found Hill for only two hits up until the seventh stanza. He struck out four. Tony Faeth, Columbus right-hander, operated in fairly good style and the locals were unable to stage any big rallies.

The Tribe hit total was nine. One run was scored in the first inning, one in the fourth, one in the sixth and one in the eighth. "Sparkie" Matthews clouted a home run in the opening inning to give the Indians a lead they never lost.

The Thursday "win" was the fourth straight for the Indians. They annexed the last game of the Louisville series and followed with three triumphs over the Senators.

The Bushmen are four games behind the league-leading Colonels.

College Twirler Joins Tribe
Owens Bush's Indians took on a promising finger from the college ranks today when they signed Tom Stanton of St. Louis University. His home is in the Mount City and he was recommended by First Baseman Walter Holke, who also resides there.

Stanton is 22, is a right-hand twirler and he won six games and lost one for his rah rah nine this spring. The collegian arrived in Indianapolis today and was to don a Tribe uniform this afternoon.

At Harrison

Joe Anderson

In one of the feature scraps at the open air Ft. Harrison arena Tuesday night Joe Anderson, middleweight, of Covington, Ky., will try his glove prowess with Al Webster, Montana mauler, the pug who trounced Joe Packo at the Fort recently.

Anderson is said to be a capable mixer, who owns a good punch and plenty of ring skill. It will be a ten-round affair.

In another ten-rounder Jackie Reynolds, Muncie, will tackle Chick Maglion, Akron, Ohio. The usual prelims will be carded.

WENTWORTH CLUB, VIRGINIA WATER, England, June 4.—American professional golfers were trailing their British opponents at the end of the first eighteen holes in the first round of Ryder cup play today. The morning matches ended with the British stars ahead in three matches, Americans in one, and the fifth all-square.

Today's play was devoted to two-ball foursomes, the contestants alternating their shots. Singles matches are set for Saturday. The Ryder cup occupies the same position in professional golf as the Walker cup in amateur golf.

Jim Barnes, the American who last year won the British open championship, was one of the contestants, and two former champions, Walter Hagen and George Duhan also were entered.

Results of the morning round play: George Duncan and Abe Mitchell, British, were leading Jim Barnes and Walter Hagen, 4 up.

British were leading T. D. Armour and Joe Kirkwood, 1 up.

George Gadi and Arthur Havers, British, were 5 up on Bill Melhorn and Al Walton.

Civil Walker and Freddie McLeod were all square with Ted Ray and Fred Robinson.

Joseph Stein and Emmett French, Americans, were 1 up on E. T. Whitcomb and H. J. Jolley.
