

HUGE BIOGRAPHY BEING PREPARED

Contains Histories of 20,000
Former Congressmen.

By Times Special
WASHINGTON, June 4.—The biographies of 20,000 former Congressmen, representing the entire past membership of the House and Senate, are being embodied in book form by Ansel Wold, clerk of the joint congressional committee on printing.

Wold has been engaged in his gigantic task for several years and has written thousands of letters and made thousands of inquiries. He has considered it his duty to complete careers of the former members after they left Congress.

One of the most interesting careers unearthed by Wold was that of Senator James Shields, a native of Ireland, but who represented three States during his career—Illinois, about 1849, then Minnesota, whence he came back to the Senate, and finally California, which State he also represented.

Wold also has discovered that former Representative William Crapo of Massachusetts is the oldest living ex-member of the House. Crapo is 97. He served four years in the House, retiring in 1883, or forty-three years ago.

MOTHER'S WORK

NEW YORK.—Mother is entitled to $35 a week that she does not get, according to data offered by the home economics teachers of a large western electrical concern. The teachers compiled a table of work done in the average American home by the mother and showed that, on the basis of servant's pay, mother would earn that much.

EMPEROR SEES BABY

TOKIO.—His majesty and the empress recently saw for the first time since birth their first grandchild, the daughter of the prince regent and crown princess. The baby is four months old.

GIRL SCOUTS SAY CIGARETS ARE O. K.

European Leaders Approve
Use of Smokes.

By Times Special
BOSTON, June 4.—It was surprising, even a bit shocking, to some of their hostesses. For who would have expected Girl Scout leaders to approve the feminine use of cigarettes.

Those who did were European delegates to the international Girl Scout convention at Briarcliffe, N. Y., who spent several days here as guests of local and State leaders.

Three of them not only let it be known that they thought it was all right for nice young women to smoke, but admitted that they themselves indulged in cigarettes.

"I smoke—naturally," said Baroness Myriam de Broqueville. "But of course we members of the Girl Scouts cannot smoke when we are in uniforms."

The Baroness' statement was seconded by Miss Helene Depauw Dumesnil of France and Miss Vichy Schneider of Luxembourg. That there is any debate being waged in the United States as to whether women should smoke was a surprise to Baroness de Broqueville. Cigarette smoking, she explained, was an everyday thing taken as a matter of course in Europe.

DOG HELPS BUILDERS

KIRKWALL, Scotland.—Electricians erecting a new organ in a church here were confronted with the problem of getting an electric cable through a 12-inch pipe sixty feet long. A small dog was placed at one end of the pipe, with a string attached to his collar. His master called him from the other end. Along came the dog, the string and finally the cable.

Old Folks Need a Mild Laxative —Not a "Physic"

Most men and women past fifty must give to the bowels some occasional help else they suffer from constipation. One might as well refuse to aid weak eyes with glasses as to neglect a gentle aid to weak bowels.

Is your present laxative, in whatever form, promoting natural bowel "regularity"—or must you purge and "physic" every day or two to avoid sick headache, dizziness, biliousness, colds, or sour, gassy stomach?

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin helps to establish natural, regular bowel movement even for those chronically constipated. It never gripes, sickens or upsets the system. Besides, it is absolutely harmless and pleasant to take.

Buy a large 60-cent bottle at any store that sells medicine and just see for yourself.
