

COMMENCEMENT AT SCHOOL OF MUSIC

Twenty-One Students Graduated—Butler University
Dean Speaks and Presents Diplomas.

The thirty-first annual commencement exercises of the Metropolitan School of Music were held Friday evening at the school, twenty-one students being graduated. Dean James W. Putnam of Butler University addressed the class and presented the diplomas. He was introduced by Edward Nell, president of the school.

Miss Mildred Morey Casey, through affiliation of Butler University and the Metropolitan School of Music, received the degree of bachelor of music. Seven students received certificates in the two-year course in public school music.

"Appreciation of music—good music is greatly needed at this time," asserted Dean Putnam. "We need messengers of art and we need teachers who will give to the children an appreciation of good music."

A musical program was given by a number of graduates of the school

among them Misses Dorothy Margaret Ryker, Mary Ellen Galbraith, Frances Anne Wishard, Louise Graham Cox, Helen Claire Payne, Martha Ann Rundell and Elizabeth Flora Clements and Earl Howe Jones, Don Watson and Adolph Schellschmidt.

Others in the graduating class beside Miss Casey, were piano: Beulah May Beckwith, Dorothy Emily Berger, Mary Ellen Galbraith, Mildred Lucille Glick, Helen Irene Hamilton; voice: Selma Ann Zahl; dramatic art: Louise Graham Cox, Helen Lucille Emert, Martha Angelyn Hoyle; certificate of graduation; voice, Elizabeth Flora Clements, Helen Claire Payne, Dorothy Margaret Ryker; violin, Martha Ann Rundell; certificates, Dorothy Emily Berger, Charles Leroy Byfield, William Horton Byfield, Nell Denny, Charles Geyer, Mildred Lucille Glick, Agnes Loretta Pusine.

Miss Vera Maple, who will be married to Crawford H. Barker next Thursday, was the guest of honor at a pretty luncheon and miscellaneous shower given Friday evening by Mrs. L. R. Ford, 2852 Washington Blvd. The house was decorated with summer flowers and in the dining room a miniature wedding party formed the table decorations. Covers were laid for Mesdames Kenneth Smith, Omer Maple, Nathaniel Barker, Herman Rahe, Rose Winterrowd, C. W. Pensinger, J. L. Hogue, E. D. Mackey, Otto E. Gulley Jr., F. A. Hogue, Wallace Smith, A. W. Albrecht, Esther Paul, Frank Smith, Charles Van Eaton, Martha McIntosh and Harry Winterrowd.

Miss Frances Bridge, 2708 N. Illinois St., entertained with a miscellaneous shower Thursday evening in honor of Miss Gladys Murphy, who will be married to Offa Noyse on June 22. The appointments were in the bridal colors of pink and white.

The guests were the members of the Gamma Sigma Phi Sorority, of which the bridge-elect is a member. Guests included Mesdames Lewis Murphy, Alex McMasters, Russell Oberlies, Arthur Smith, Emmet Harpolt, Earl Kiefer, Fred Bridges and Misses Catherine Steigman, Gladys Martin, Myrtle Stafford, Ethel Callahan, Catherine Drury and Gertrude Bishop.

The George H. Chapman W. R. C. No. 10 will meet Tuesday at 2 p. m. at Port Friendly, 512 N. Illinois St.

Mr. and Mrs. George Biegler, 4936 Central Ave., entertained Friday evening at the Columbia Club for their daughter, Miss Emily Biegler and William J. Lang, who will be married tonight. A centerpiece of pink roses lighted with pink tapers, tied with green tulle bows, decorated the table. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Biegler, Mr. Lang, Dr. and Mrs. E. F. Abbott and Misses Kathleen Biegler, Dorothy Ann Mueller, Grace Warren Abbott and Messrs. Ray T. Sovern, Graham E. Hunt and George Biegler Jr.

Miss Norene Collins, who will be married to Edwin H. Andrews June 28, was honor guest at a bridge party and shower at the home of Mrs. E. B. Haggard, 2914 Washington Blvd., Friday evening. The bridal colors of pink and blue were used in the decorations and appointments. Guests with Miss Collins were Mesdames Frances Pruitt, I. H. Derby, W. E. Smiley and Robert Littell and Misses Edith Luckay, Ellen Collins, Almyra Kinder, Ethel Carson, Cordelia and Kathleen Wolf and Mrs. O'Connell.

Mrs. O. C. Hagemer, 2903 N. Capitol Ave., entertained with three tables of bridge today for Mrs. Fred Beck, who is leaving soon to live permanently in South Bend. Guests included Mesdames Carl Thompson, C. G. Claman, James Scott, L. T. Gilford and Mildred George and Misses Kathleen Weed and Statia O'Connell.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd E. Williamson, 153 N. Gladstone Ave., entertained Friday evening for Miss Ruth Jones of Chattanooga, Tenn. The house was decorated with pink roses and peonies. A centerpiece of pink rosebuds formed the table decoration. Ices and appointments were in pink and white.

Musical selections by Miss Josephine Williamson were accompanied by Mrs. Forest Emmert and several duets were given by Floyd Williamson and Burge Emmert. Miss Jones played several piano numbers during the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Helms, who have recently returned from an extended trip along the Pacific coast and in Mexico, spoke. The host and hostess were assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Jensen.

The Misses Anna C. Brennan, Honora O'Neil, Margaret Cavanaugh and Mary A. O'Neil have gone to Chicago to attend the national eucharistic congress. They will be gone several days.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Grosskopf, 4847 Carrollton Ave., entertained with three tables of bridge Friday evening. The color scheme of pink and green was carried out in the decorations and appointments. Roses and peonies were used throughout the house. The guests included Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Kelly, Mesdames and Messrs. Gayle V. Pollister, William J. Ervin, Stanley Norris, Frank Kern, Leota Wielcke and Arden Fenwick.

The Omega Chi Sorority will give a treasure hunt June 26. Reservations should be made by calling Kenwood 4415.

The regular monthly dinner of the Woman's City Club will be held at the Chamber of Commerce Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Williamson, 153 N. Gladstone Ave., entertained Friday evening for Miss Ruth Jones of Chattanooga, Tenn. The house was decorated with pink roses and peonies. A centerpiece of pink rosebuds formed the table decoration. Ices and appointments were in pink and white.

Musical selections by Miss Josephine Williamson were accompanied by Mrs. Forest Emmert and several duets were given by Floyd Williamson and Burge Emmert. Miss Jones played several piano numbers during the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Helms, who have recently returned from an extended trip along the Pacific coast and in Mexico, spoke. The host and hostess were assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Jensen.

The Misses Anna C. Brennan, Honora O'Neil, Margaret Cavanaugh and Mary A. O'Neil have gone to Chicago to attend the national eucharistic congress. They will be gone several days.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Grosskopf, 4847 Carrollton Ave., entertained with three tables of bridge Friday evening. The color scheme of pink and green was carried out in the decorations and appointments. Roses and peonies were used throughout the house. The guests included Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Kelly, Mesdames and Messrs. Gayle V. Pollister, William J. Ervin, Stanley Norris, Frank Kern, Leota Wielcke and Arden Fenwick.

The Omega Chi Sorority will give a treasure hunt June 26. Reservations should be made by calling Kenwood 4415.

A benefit luncheon for the Children's Sunshine Club of Sunnyside will be held Wednesday, June 22, at 1 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Samuel Kuhn, 1441 Fairfield Ave.

The Riley Hospital Cheer Guild will hold the last meeting of the year at the Claypool Tuesday at 2 p. m. It will be a business meeting.

Irene Noerr, soprano, student of Frieda E. Heider of the Metropolitan School of Music and the Thelma Krentler trio will furnish music for the June dinner of the Woman's City Club at the Chamber of Commerce Wednesday evening at 6:30.

Miss Noerr will furnish the following program: "Neapolitan Nights," by Zamecnik: "A Memory," by Ganz, and "Stars Brightly Shining," by Bronte.

Members of the trio are Clara Krentler, violinist; Thelma Krentler, pianist, and Mabel Krentler, cellist, who will play a group of modern compositions.

There will be a farewell party at the Columbia Conservatory Monday at 8 p. m. for the Misses Ross, Laibfert, Mary Barrow and Lily Stewart, who, with Miss Beulah Tanner, will leave Thursday night for Madison, Wis., where they are enrolled in the special summer school course for women workers in industry.

Tuesday night at 5:45 the Y. W. C. W. will meet at the "Y." bathing suits and lunch under their arms, to go together to Broad Ripple for a swim. Supper will follow the swim. Each girl will bring her own supper.

The industrial department clubs will have a picnic at the tourist camp on Wednesday night, and afterward those who wish to will go to Riverside Park. They will meet at the "Y" at 5:45 and must register as usual by Tuesday noon.

At 11 p. m. Thursday night the girls who are going to Wisconsin summer school will be at the Union Station making final arrangements for their departure that night. Any one wanting to "see them off" can join the group at the information window.

Camp Delight opens for employed girls on July 10. Get set, girls, for a week or a week-end at camp. Any one can plan to have a picnic there, or dinner in the camp dining room, if they register in advance. Registrations close the morning of each day preceding, as Tuesday morning for Wednesday night, etc. The early registrations will receive preference.

The Omega Chi Sorority will give a treasure hunt June 26. Reservations should be made by calling Kenwood 4415.

Of successful banking experience is at your command when you do your banking business with this Strong Company—the oldest in Indiana. Your savings or surplus account welcomed.

4% Paid on Savings

During the months of July and August our banking rooms will close each Saturday at 1 p. m.

THE INDIANA TRUST CO.
FOR SAVINGS
CAPITAL-SURPLUS, $2,000,000

Take Travelers Cheques with you on your vacation.

Dorfman Rug Co. RUGS
207 W. Wash St. — LL. 5750
"It covers the floor—We have it."

Carpets and Linoleums

LEA & PERRINS' SAUCE

A Delicious Dressing for Beets
3 parts Hot Butter and 1 part

SAUCE

Take Travelers Cheques with you on your vacation.

Brides of June on Trips and at Home

Bugbee (Photo by Moorefield, Inc.)
Inset: Miss Jane Pritchard (Moorefield photo), and Mrs. Roy L. Fosbrink (Photo by Cuyler Studio).

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

Miss Vera Maple, who will be married to Crawford H. Barker next Thursday, was the guest of honor at a pretty luncheon and miscellaneous shower given Friday evening by Mrs. L. R. Ford, 2852 Washington Blvd.

The house was decorated with summer flowers and in the dining room a miniature wedding party formed the table decorations. Covers were laid for Mesdames Kenneth Smith, Omer Maple, Nathaniel Barker, Herman Rahe, Rose Winterrowd, C. W. Pensinger, J. L. Hogue, E. D. Mackey, Otto E. Gulley Jr., F. A. Hogue, Wallace Smith, A. W. Albrecht, Esther Paul, Frank Smith, Charles Van Eaton, Martha McIntosh and Harry Winterrowd.

Miss Frances Bridge, 2708 N. Illinois St., entertained with a miscellaneous shower Thursday evening in honor of Miss Gladys Murphy, who will be married to Offa Noyse on June 22. The appointments were in the bridal colors of pink and white.

The guests were the members of the Gamma Sigma Phi Sorority, of which the bridge-elect is a member. Guests included Mesdames Lewis Murphy, Alex McMasters, Russell Oberlies, Arthur Smith, Emmet Harpolt, Earl Kiefer, Fred Bridges and Misses Catherine Steigman, Gladys Martin, Myrtle Stafford, Ethel Callahan, Catherine Drury and Gertrude Bishop.

The George H. Chapman W. R. C. No. 10 will meet Tuesday at 2 p. m. at Port Friendly, 512 N. Illinois St.

Mr. and Mrs. George Biegler, 4936 Central Ave., entertained Friday evening at the Columbia Club for their daughter, Miss Emily Biegler and William J. Lang, who will be married tonight. A centerpiece of pink roses lighted with pink tapers, tied with green tulle bows, decorated the table. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Biegler, Mr. Lang, Dr. and Mrs. E. F. Abbott and Misses Kathleen Biegler, Dorothy Ann Mueller, Grace Warren Abbott and Messrs. Ray T. Sovern, Graham E. Hunt and George Biegler Jr.

Miss Norene Collins, who will be married to Edwin H. Andrews June 28, was honor guest at a bridge party and shower at the home of Mrs. E. B. Haggard, 2914 Washington Blvd., Friday evening. The bridal colors of pink and blue were used in the decorations and appointments. Guests with Miss Collins were Mesdames Frances Pruitt, I. H. Derby, W. E. Smiley and Robert Littell and Misses Edith Luckay, Ellen Collins, Almyra Kinder, Ethel Carson, Cordelia and Kathleen Wolf and Mrs. O'Connell.

Mrs. O. C. Hagemer, 2903 N. Capitol Ave., entertained with three tables of bridge today for Mrs. Fred Beck, who is leaving soon to live permanently in South Bend. Guests included Mesdames Carl Thompson, C. G. Claman, James Scott, L. T. Gilford and Mildred George and Misses Kathleen Weed and Statia O'Connell.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd E. Williamson, 153 N. Gladstone Ave., entertained Friday evening for Miss Ruth Jones of Chattanooga, Tenn. The house was decorated with pink roses and peonies. A centerpiece of pink rosebuds formed the table decoration. Ices and appointments were in pink and white.

Musical selections by Miss Josephine Williamson were accompanied by Mrs. Forest Emmert and several duets were given by Floyd Williamson and Burge Emmert. Miss Jones played several piano numbers during the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Helms, who have recently returned from an extended trip along the Pacific coast and in Mexico, spoke. The host and hostess were assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Jensen.

The Misses Anna C. Brennan, Honora O'Neil, Margaret Cavanaugh and Mary A. O'Neil have gone to Chicago to attend the national eucharistic congress. They will be gone several days.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Grosskopf, 4847 Carrollton Ave., entertained with three tables of bridge Friday evening. The color scheme of pink and green was carried out in the decorations and appointments. Roses and peonies were used throughout the house. The guests included Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Kelly, Mesdames and Messrs. Gayle V. Pollister, William J. Ervin, Stanley Norris, Frank Kern, Leota Wielcke and Arden Fenwick.

The Omega Chi Sorority will give a treasure hunt June 26. Reservations should be made by calling Kenwood 4415.

A benefit luncheon for the Children's Sunshine Club of Sunnyside will be held Wednesday, June 22, at 1 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Samuel Kuhn, 1441 Fairfield Ave.

The Riley Hospital Cheer Guild will hold the last meeting of the year at the Claypool Tuesday at 2 p. m. It will be a business meeting.

Irene Noerr, soprano, student of Frieda E. Heider of the Metropolitan School of Music and the Thelma Krentler trio will furnish music for the June dinner of the Woman's City Club at the Chamber of Commerce Wednesday evening at 6:30.

There will be a farewell party at the Columbia Conservatory Monday at 8 p. m. for the Misses Ross, Laibfert, Mary Barrow and Lily Stewart, who, with Miss Beulah Tanner, will leave Thursday night for Madison, Wis., where they are enrolled in the special summer school course for women workers in industry.

Tuesday night at 5:45 the Y. W. C. W. will meet at the "Y." bathing suits and lunch under their arms, to go together to Broad Ripple for a swim. Supper will follow the swim. Each girl will bring her own supper.

The industrial department clubs will have a picnic at the tourist camp on Wednesday night, and afterward those who wish to will go to Riverside Park. They will meet at the "Y" at 5:45 and must register as usual by Tuesday noon.

At 11 p. m. Thursday night the girls who are going to Wisconsin summer school will be at the Union Station making final arrangements for their departure that night. Any one wanting to "see them off" can join the group at the information window.

Camp Delight opens for employed girls on July 10. Get set, girls, for a week or a week-end at camp. Any one can plan to have a picnic there, or dinner in the camp dining room, if they register in advance. Registrations close the morning of each day preceding, as Tuesday morning for Wednesday night, etc. The early registrations will receive preference.

The Omega Chi Sorority will give a treasure hunt June 26. Reservations should be made by calling Kenwood 4415.

Of successful banking experience is at your command when you do your banking business with this Strong Company—the oldest in Indiana. Your savings or surplus account welcomed.

4% Paid on Savings

During the months of July and August our banking rooms will close each Saturday at 1 p. m.

THE INDIANA TRUST CO.
FOR SAVINGS
CAPITAL-SURPLUS, $2,000,000

Take Travelers Cheques with you on your vacation.

Dorfman Rug Co. RUGS
207 W. Wash St. — LL. 5750
"It covers the floor—We have it."

Carpets and Linoleums

LEA & PERRINS' SAUCE

A Delicious Dressing for Beets
3 parts Hot Butter and 1 part

SAUCE

Take Travelers Cheques with you on your vacation.

TO ENTERTAIN FOR TOURNEY VISITORS

Tennis Affair Promises to Be Gala Event — Dances Will

Be Held—Names of Box-holders Given.

Many entertainments have been planned for out-of-town players who will be in Indianapolis for the western tennis championship tournament to be held under auspices of the Associated Tennis Clubs of Indianapolis at Woodstock Club the week of June 21.

In years past, tennis tournaments here have been gala events from a social standpoint and there are indications that this one will be no exception. Dances will be held at the Woodstock, Meridian Hills and Highland Country Clubs.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald M. McLeod are in charge of this social feature of the tournament. John L. Eaglesfield, Mrs. Ward D. Hackleman, Martha Geyer, Mildred Lucille Glick, Agnes Loretta Pusine.

Mrs. Samuel E. Suplin and Mrs. Edward L. McKee are the committee in charge of the sale of boxes.

Included among the boxholders for the tournament are: Messrs. Joseph J. Daniels, Oscar P. Welborn, Donald McLeod, Frank Powell, William H. Coleman, Ernest Kneifer, Frederick Ayres, John Eaglesfield, John Kingham, Edward Wuench, William H. Coburn, Jacqueline S. Holiday, Gordon Murdoch, William M. Rockwood, Matthews Fletcher, George Forrey, Charles Roemer, Frederick M. Marion, Edwin Forrey, William J. Taylor, Paul Ritchie, Nicholas Noyes, Anton Vonnegut, Lee Burns,