

ANOTHER BARRETT SUIT CONSIDERED

More Favorable Decision Is Hoped For.

Filing of a suit is one of the Marion County Superior Courts to prevent County Treasurer Edward A. Ramsay from pocketing interest on Barrett law prepayments is being considered today by persons interested in halting the system through which the treasurer makes more money than President Coolidge.

Those who wish to reform the procedure hope that a more favorable decision than the action of Judge James M. Leathers of Superior Court One may be obtained in another Superior Court. Leathers refused to sanction appointment of a receiver for the interest funds.

Meanwhile, Alvah J. Rucker, corporation counsel, who is leading the fight, plans to pursue energetically a suit he filed in Federal Court, seeking to dissolve an injunction preventing placing of interest funds in a public depository.

ACTOR'S HOME ROBBED

George Somers Reports Theft of $800 in Clothes, Ring.

Detectives today were assigned to investigate a burglary at the home of George Somers, 1915 N. Talbot Ave., local dramatic director and actor.

Motorpolceman George Baker and Otis Baker, who investigated, said the burglar entered through a basement window and stole $800 worth of clothing and a ring. Police are inclined to believe more than one man robbed the house.

License Clerk Blocks Plan of Couple Seeking to Marry.

The ill-fated 13, blamed for the wrecking of many plots and plans, may have prevented a young couple from getting a license to marry from Mrs. Effie Carter, deputy license clerk, Tuesday, July 13.

Shyly, the two walked into the county clerk's office and in a whisper asked for a marriage license. They were handed an application for a license by Mrs. Carter and sat at the table, each eager to fill it out.
