BETROTHALS

Miss Marie M. Riedel, daughter of Mrs. Mary Riedel, was married to Orrin C. Pixley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred D. Pixley, 513 E. Twenty-Fourth St., at the parish house of St. Peter and Paul Cathedral this morning. The Rev. Edgar O'Connor officiated. The maid of honor, Miss Alice Miller, wore rose taffeta with transparent pale rose picture hat. The bride's gown was of white satin with trimmings and bandings of seed pearls and crystals. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the Elks Club. Mr. and Mrs. Pixley left on a wedding trip to Detroit on other points. After Aug. 15 they will be at home at 1332 Ashland Ave.

A pretty evening church wedding was that of Miss Leona Moeller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moeller, 1341 S. State St., to the Rev. Karl F. Elsie, which took place at the Emmaus Church, Wednesday evening. The Rev. W. G. Meisinger and the Rev. W. F. Nordseick officiated.

The maid of honor was Miss Lorraine Elsie, sister of the bridegroom, who was groomed in peach color taffeta. Little Velma Louise Woempner, niece of the bride, was flower girl. The bride was groomed in ivory satin, with trimmings of Chantilly lace, applied with seed pearls and rhinestones. Her veil was arranged in soft fashion and she carried white roses. Theodore Moeller, brother of the bride, was best man and the ushers were William Breda of Cleveland, Ohio, and William Schmidt. A reception at the home of the bride's parents followed the ceremony. The Rev. and Mrs. Elsie left on a wedding trip to Cleveland, Ohio. After Aug. 15 they will be at home at Moose Jaw, Canada, where the Rev. Elsie will be a city missionary.

Miss Mary White, 1552 Spann Ave., and Mrs. Clarence Lyster, entertained with a miscellaneous shower Wednesday evening at Miss White's home, in honor of Miss Helen Sullivan, who will be married to George Rooker, Aug. 1. Guests included Mesdames Joseph White, Lawrence Downey, Floyd Taylor, George Ross, C. Baird, Joseph Foreman, Michael O'Connell, Daniel Healy, Dale Gillespie, William Welsh, Helen Sullivan, Leslie Wheeler, Alphonso Marco and John White and Misses Ellen McGinley, Margaret Rooker, Gertrude Donahue, Gertrude Freihage, Caroline Erbecker, Ella Cook, Lillian Bourgeois, Mary Agnes Sullivan, Margaret Sullivan, Jewel Sheehan, Mary Cecelia Sullivan, Catherine and Kathleen Sullivan, Ann Hurley, Birdie Fitzgerald, Mary

Lost! Millions of Fat Pounds of Fat

People have lost in the past few years millions of pounds of fat. They are losing millions more every year. Slender figures are in vogue, as you can see every day. And such figures are now easy to attain.

The modern method is Marmola Prescription Tablets, perfected in 1907. They have been used by millions of people all about you can show you what they do, promptly and pleasantly, without abnormal exercise or diet. The lighted users have told others about them until people are now using a million boxes yearly.

You should try Marmola. It could never have gained this dominant place and held it for 19 years if it did not remove in a harmless way the fat people want removed.

Fat is a blight to beauty, health and fitness. In fairness to yourself, go learn at once how easy it is to combat.

All druggists sell Marmola at $1 a box. Or it is mailed direct in plain wrappers by Marmola Co., 1763 General Motors Bldg., Detroit, Mich.

Musician Visits Parents Here

Mrs. C. W. Otey

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester G. Walden, 1758 Howard St., have as their house guest their daughter, Mrs. C. W. Otey of Baltimore, Md., and Mr. Otey. Mrs. Otey formerly was Miss Florence Walden of this city. She is a teacher of piano in the Peabody University of Music at Baltimore, and a member of the W. B. A. L. trio, widely known for its broadcasting programs.

Florence Sullivan, Katherine Manley, Marie Sullivan, Bess Sullivan and Alice Sullivan.

Miss Kathryn Stiegman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Stiegman, 3130 College Ave., was married to Carl Voorhes, Wednesday evening, at the home of the bride's parents. The Rev. P. R. Daries performed the ceremony before an altar of flowers arranged at the fire place. Miss Betty Stiegman, sister of the bride, was her only attendant, and was dressed in orchid georgette. The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of light pink georgette, fashioned with duchess lace, with applique of pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of pink roses, and small white flowers. Following the ceremony, a reception for seventy-five guests was held at the home of the bride's parents.

A luncheon and theater party was given Wednesday by Miss Virginia Smith Lucas, 806 Fairfield Ave., for the following guests from Martinsville: Misses Mary Alice McGinnis, Mary Anne Kinsman, Grace Ross, Mary Eloise Kennedy, Mary Katherine Dickson, Evelyn Poston and Mrs. Ray Curtis.

Mrs. Jesse Hanft, 316 E. Forty-Second St., entertained today with a small bridge party at her summer home, "The Beeches," northeast of the city. Covers were laid for Mesdames E. F. Bowen, Oklahoma City, Okla.; Fred Davis, Homer B. Stevens and Claude F. Myers.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. McClellon, 5302 Broadway and Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Hoatson, have returned from an extended motor trip through the East. They spent some time in Atlantic City, N. J., and in New York and Niagara Falls, N. Y.

The WOMAN'S DAY
By Allene Sumner

The Ideal House!

It should have a kitchen with a north or northwest exposure, dining room looking to the east, living room south and west, with two windows at least in each room. The floor of the home demonstration department of a State college. The same expert states that rooms with warm exposures should be decorated in the cool background colors of blue, green, grey, or mauve, and north rooms should be warmed with colors of orange, yellow, tan or red. Light colors make a room seem larger, and dark colors make it seem smaller. The floor should always be darker than walls and draperies.

Beauty and Traffic

About four centuries ago there lived in France a woman so beautiful that dense crowds gathered before her house waiting for her to appear that they might bask in her beauty. The city fathers, perturbed by this basking, the narrow streets, asked Le Belle France to come for that a certain hour twice a week with face unveiled so that every one might see her loveliness at those times, and leave the streets unblocked at other hours.

Don't Crowd Today

A sad commentary on the beauty of today's woman is that crowds do not block streets to see any of them pass. Justine Johnson, recognized as one of our foremost beauties, even if not of the sort that crowds gather for to see, gives a few pointers. "I use scented oil in my bath," writes she. "It makes a film on the bath water which clings to the body, making it soft and smooth. Just before my shampoo every week, I rub olive oil into my scalp. I clean my face with a very greasy cold cream. I have discovered an eye lotion which may be used four or five times a day to freshen the eyes. I use ten cents worth of camomile flowers and put them in boiling water and apply this lotion. To my eyes whenever they feel tired."

CHANCE FOR STUDENTS

Greater opportunities are seen for students in agricultural colleges these days because of the low enrollment and more prosperous times seen ahead.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH SCENE OF PRETTY SUMMER WEDDING

Miss Agnes Search Becomes Bride of Oral W. Bridgford.

A mid-summer church wedding, beautiful in its appointments, was that of Miss Agnes Search, daughter of Mrs. Constance E. Search, Haverstick Park, who became the bride of Oral W. Bridgford at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Wednesday evening. The Rev. Lewis Brown performed the ceremony.

The church was lighted by cathedral candles. As the guests were assembling a program of bridal airs was played by Carl Sells, organist, and just preceding the ceremony Barton Higginbotham of Mansfield, Ohio, sang "O, Promise Me."

The maid of honor, Miss Ruth Bridgford, sister of the bridegroom, was groomed in light green taffeta with basque waist and full skirt. The bridesmaids, Miss Florence Thorells of Chicago and Miss Helen Weibke, wore taffeta gowns of orchid shade, fashioned on bouffant lines. The little flower girls, Betsy Ann Murbarger and Barbara Ellen Struck were dressed in flesh taffeta. The best man was E. Bartlett Brooks of Muncie, and ushers were Harry Briggs of Shelbyville and Herman Kurtz.

The bride wore a gown of white taffeta, trimmed with filmy malines. Her tulle veil was arranged with a coronet, caught with clusters of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and small flowers. Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Struck, 525 Eugene St.

Mr. and Mrs. Bridgford left on a wedding trip for Atlantic City, N. J., and will be in their new home at 5693 Carrollton Ave., after Aug. 25.

Her Own Way
A STORY OF A GIRL OF TODAY

A REAL FRIEND

"Lela, it is!" said Joan coming forward from behind me.

With a cry Mrs. Cornwall sat up in bed and with a gesture with her weak hands as though trying to push Joan away, said:

"Don't come near me, Joan Meredith. I am punished enough for trying to get my husband to get all the money he could out of you."

"This morning I knew that it was I who sent him to his death. I knew he was going to blackmail you. It was I who first put it into his head. I knew about the name of Barry Cornwall and wife on the 101st register, and I also knew what he did not, that I was in the closet of your bedroom all night."

"What?" I exclaimed.

Barry Cornwall's wife paid no attention.

"Oh, I couldn't help it, Joan. You see I was jealous of you. I thought I planned it. I know you were beautiful and rich and it seemed to me that you had everything, everything I did not have to, make him happy. And I felt so ashamed when I knew he was perfectly loyal to me."

"And so the morning he gave me that page from the register to keep, I almost told him."

I started forward as she said this. I opened my mouth to ask her where she put it, for I knew that Joan or I must get that page before Jem Smith got there, and I expected him every minute.

It was Joan this time that kept me from starting things. Slowly she went forward toward the bed. Slowly she held out her hands, and, although Lela visibly shrank back upon the pillows, Joan came near her, and began to speak.

"Dear Lela, I know about it all. He told me last night that you were going to have a child and he told me he loved you, and because he loved you, Lela, I have come to help you. I'll be your friend if you will let me."

"What are you going to do that for? Don't you know that I tried to ruin you! I framed it up for you, and—Oh my God—that is the reason Barry died. That is my punishment. Let me die, both me and my poor baby!"

"No dear, you are going to live and I am going to take care of you."

BUTLER CO-EDS STAND HIGHEST IN SCHOLARSHIP

Excel Men, Registrar's Figures Show—Organized Students Lead.

In defense of co-eds—as if they needed defending—Miss Sarah E. Cotton, Butler University registrar, came forward today with uncontradicted statistical support to show that Butler girls are better students than Butler men.

From last semester's records, Miss Cotton figured that co-eds' grades averaged 7 per cent higher than those of the boys.

Athletes Students

Of the mere men, the athletes averaged higher than the rest. Miss Cotton shattered another false assumption to the contrary also by figuring that the grades of men and girls belonging to fraternities and sororities were higher than those of students not belonging.

The girls averaged 82.566 and the men 75.874 for the semester, the entire school averaging 79.517.

Averages

Sorority members averaged 83.152; fraternity members, 76.576, and unorganized students, 78.925.

Sorority averages were: Kappa Alpha Theta, 84.779; Kappa Phi, 84.436; Delta Gamma, 84.261; Alpha Chi Omega, 84.047; Kappa Kappa Gamma, 83.837; Pi Beta Phi, 83.222; Delta Delta Delta, 83.031; Zeta Tau Alpha, 82.438; Alpha Delta Phi, 81.455; Delta Zeta, 80.895; Alpha Delta Theta, 80.444.

Fraternity averages follow: Butler Association, 86.738; Lambda Chi Alpha, 78.474; Sigma Chi, 76.542; Tau Kappa Tau, 76.263; Delta Tau Delta, 76.141; Phi Delta Theta, 75.491; Sigma Nu, 74.188; Chi Rho Zeta, 72.612; Alpha Rho Delta, 69.187.

TALE OF SOULS NOT WORTH PURCHASE PRICE

"What doth it profit a man that he gain the whole world, if he lose his own soul?" What indeed? For nothing, no worldly happiness can compensate a man for the loss of that best self, that conscience, that God within him.

It isn't a matter of religion, as much as his endurance of himself while he yet lives on this plane of existence. For no man can tolerate himself when he has sold his soul for a mess of pottage. Everything has its purchase price in life. You pay with time, energy, strength, and the coin of that inner spirit conscience or intelligence which for lack of a better and more complete word, one calls a soul. Each person has his own code of right and wrong. Each person at some time in his life, and according to that code, considers selling his soul for some earthly possession or bliss. But it is worth the purchase price?

Two girls' letters have reached me on the same mail. One has sold her "soul." I know that she has sold it, according to her code, because she is "ashamed." The other is considering giving up hers for passion's sake. Though I cannot print the second girl's letter, I am answering it with the letter of the first girl. The second girl's decision must be her own. My answer is obvious.

For XYZ and QED

Dear Martha Lee: I have read so much of your advice, and know it has proved valuable. I am now asking you to help me out of my difficulty. I have gone a little far for ever a while, and what I am in trouble he has left me. What am now ashamed to go out. He is a coward and will not marry me because he is well known in the community where we live. I don't think it is known in our neighborhood, but I cannot keep it a secret much longer. Please advise me, for I am desperate. Death would be a blessing, but I am young and want to live. Please advise me, for I am desperate. Those without sin cast the first stone.

So his code of morals was dirty enough to get you in trouble, but too clean to marry you eh? That always makes me so furious. I could almost sell my own soul and commit murder! But it really isn't necessary. Some wise person has said that the greatest revenge is to keep a person alive! However, you can force this pure white lily to marry you if you so desire! I think it would probably be easy to prove that he is the father of the child, and any court would make him marry you. Your payment is to face the music and the comment by self-righteous persons.

LEVIATHAN CHARGES DENIED

By United Press. NEW YORK, July 29.—Charges that liquor had been sold aboard the
