

PERJURY CHARGES BROUGHT AGAINST THREE BONDSEN

Indicted by County Grand Jury—Alleged to Have Sworn Falsey.

Three municipal court bondsmen, one a woman, were indicted today by the county grand jury on charges of perjury.

They are alleged to have sworn falsely on bond affidavits that they owned property twice the value of the bond and that it was clear of all encumbrances.

Defendants are Mrs. Mary Rapia, 818 W. New York St.; Sam Farb, 1236 E. Ohio St., and Abe Greenspan, 850 S. Illinois St.

William H. Shearer, grand jury deputy, said that dealings of other bondsmen are before the grand jurors. Investigation of the practices of local professional bondsmen was instigated by Prosecutor William H. Remy several months ago, before the old grand jury.

All three were arrested and later released on $1,000 bonds. Farb's bond was signed by his son Albert, and Mrs. Rapia's by William McKinney of Beech Grove. Greenspan's bond was signed by Herman Unger, 330 W. Washington St.

It was disclosed that some of the bondsmen did not know the total number of bonds for which they were responsible and were unfamiliar with the law.

RHEUMATISM KEPT LOCAL CITIZEN IN CONSTANT AGONY

Well-Known Building Contractor Given Blessed Relief by Konjola.

It is generally conceded that rheumatic trouble is due to impurities in the system. Residue waste matters and old metabolic poisons are held within the body, due to imperfect elimination through the kidneys and bowels, and these impurities seem to concentrate in the sockets of joints, or to filter through and saturate the tissues and muscles, thus causing the awful aches and pains. It is declared that waste matters may continue to collect within the system in this manner for years before the effect is really felt, which is one of the reasons why rheumatic trouble is more common among people past 40 or 45, but it is stated that, in any event, improper elimination will nearly always result, sooner or later, in bad case of pain and misery that is known as rheumatism.

In view of this it is believed that what is really needed by the rheumatic sufferer is an internal medical preparation that will thoroughly cleanse the system and which will restore the kidneys and bowels to improved activity so that the body will be kept free of impurities. For instance, this new medical compound, Konjola, has given surprising relief in many rheumatic cases. It is a wonderful cleanser for the general system having effect on such organs as the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, invigorating these parts to healthy action so that the rheumatic poisons are driven out of the system in nature's way. A remarkable statement describing the power of this Konjola in rheumatic cases was recently received by the Konjola Man who is at Hook's Drug Store, Pennsylvania, and Market Streets, Indianapolis, from Mr. C. B. Raymond, well known local building contractor, living at 2911 McPherson Ave., this city.

"I had rheumatism for several years," said Mr. Raymond, "and this disease finally got so bad that I was in constant pain and misery. My knees were stiff and sore, and I always had to limp when I walked, so that I was in agony every time I went anywhere. My limbs would draw up and cramp, and sometimes my knees would get shaky so that I had to hold to something to keep myself up."

"I took lots of medicines for my trouble, but never could find the right thing until I got Konjola. This medicine had a different effect on my rheumatism than any remedy or treatment I ever tried. It seemed to start my whole system to working properly almost at once. Before the first bottle was gone I could eat and sleep better and my bowels were regulated better than I ever remembered before. The rheumatic aches and pains began to leave my system almost like magic, and now I will gladly say I have completely recovered. All the swelling and soreness has left my legs, and my knees do not ache or become stiff any more. I can walk without limping and I am able to forget all about the rheumatism. But I will never forget the medicine which gave me such blessed relief, and I will praise Konjola to everyone."

The Konjola Man is at Hook's Drug Store, Pennsylvania, and Market Streets, Indianapolis, where he is daily meeting the public and introducing and explaining the merits of this remedy.

Konjola is sold by every Hook drug store in Indianapolis and by all other druggists in surrounding towns. Advertisement.

lar with the statute applying to bondsmen.

The indictment charges Mrs. Rapia is on bonds totaling $19,890, while the property listed in her name has an assessed value of only $10,960. It charges Farb has bonds out totaling $29,200, while the property listed in his own name has an assessed value of $6,180.

Greenspan is alleged to be on bonds totaling $15,775, with property in his own name assessed at $3,000.

Every time a bondsmen goes on a defendant's bond, that is an encumbrance against his property, said Shearer.

The indictments were drawn up under the Indiana statute defining perjury in voluntary affidavit which provides a two to twenty-one year prison term, a fine of $50 to $1,000 and disfranchisement for violations of perjury.

They are alleged to have sworn falsely on bond affidavits that they owned property twice the value of the bond and that it was clear of all encumbrances.

Defendants are Mrs. Mary Rapia, 818 W. New York St.; Sam Farb, 1236 E. Ohio St., and Abe Greenspan, 850 S. Illinois St.

William H. Shearer, grand jury deputy, said that dealings of other bondsmen are before the grand jurors. Investigation of the practices of local professional bondsmen was instigated by Prosecutor William H. Remy several months ago, before the old grand jury.

All three were arrested and later released on $1,000 bonds. Farb's bond was signed by his son Albert, and Mrs. Rapia's by William Mc

Kinney of Beech Grove. Greenspan's bond was signed by Herman Unger, 330 W. Washington St.

It was disclosed that some of the bondsmen did not know the total number of bonds for which they were responsible and were unfamiliar with the law.

RHEUMATISM KEPT LOCAL CITIZEN IN CONSTANT AGONY

Well-Known Building Contractor Given Blessed Relief by Konjola.

It is generally conceded that rheumatic trouble is due to impurities in the system. Residue waste matters and old metabolic poisons are held within the body, due to imperfect elimination through the kidneys and bowels, and these impurities seem to concentrate in the sockets of joints, or to filter through and saturate the tissues and muscles, thus causing the awful aches and pains. It is declared that waste matters may continue to collect within the system in this manner for years before the effect is really felt, which is one of the reasons why rheumatic trouble is more common among people past 40 or 45, but it is stated that, in any event, improper elimination will nearly always result, sooner or later, in bad case of pain and misery that is known as rheumatism.

In view of this it is believed that what is really needed by the rheumatic sufferer is an internal medical preparation that will thoroughly cleanse the system and which will restore the kidneys and bowels to improved activity so that the body will be kept free of impurities. For instance, this new medical compound, Konjola, has given surprising relief in many rheumatic cases. It is a wonderful cleanser for the general system having effect on such organs as the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, invigorating these parts to healthy action so that the rheumatic poisons are driven out of the system in nature's way. A remarkable statement describing the power of this Konjola in rheumatic cases was recently received by the Konjola Man who is at Hook's Drug Store, Pennsylvania, and Market Streets, Indianapolis, from Mr. C. B. Raymond, well known local building contractor, living at 2911 McPherson Ave., this city.

"I had rheumatism for several years," said Mr. Raymond, "and this disease finally got so bad that I was in constant pain and misery. My knees were stiff and sore, and I always had to limp when I walked, so that I was in agony every time I went anywhere. My limbs would draw up and cramp, and sometimes my knees would get shaky so that I had to hold to something to keep myself up."

"I took lots of medicines for my trouble, but never could find the right thing until I got Konjola. This medicine had a different effect on my rheumatism than any remedy or treatment I ever tried. It seemed to start my whole system to working properly almost at once. Before the first bottle was gone I could eat and sleep better and my bowels were regulated better than I ever remembered before. The rheumatic aches and pains began to leave my system almost like magic, and now I will gladly say I have completely recovered. All the swelling and soreness has left my legs, and my knees do not ache or become stiff any more. I can walk without limping and I am able to forget all about the rheumatism. But I will never forget the medicine which gave me such blessed relief, and I will praise Konjola to everyone."

The Konjola Man is at Hook's Drug Store, Pennsylvania, and Market Streets, Indianapolis, where he is daily meeting the public and introducing and explaining the merits of this remedy.

Konjola is sold by every Hook drug store in Indianapolis and by all other druggists in surrounding towns. Advertisement.

PIONEER RESIDENT OF CITY IS DEAD

C. F. Wishmeier, 78, Veteran Railroad Employee.

Christian F. Wishmeier, one of the pioneer residents of the eastern part of the city, died today, after a long illness.

Mr. Wishmeier was born in Indianapolis seventy-eight years ago and has lived within a radius of six blocks of his present home, 544 N. Pine St., all his life.

Up until ten years ago he was employed by the Vandals and Pennsylvania Railroads thirty-five years, working for both the roads. He has been on the retired list ten years.

Surviving are the widow, two sons, Charles H. of Indianapolis and William L. of Holland, Mich.; two daughters, Mrs. Ralph R. Reeder of Indianapolis and Mrs. Ed Smith of Gary, Ind.; seven grandchildren and three greatgrandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Monday at the Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church.

Golf, tennis, stunts, contests, bridge and dancing are on the program.

BANK TO HAVE PICNIC

Washington Company Employees and Families Will Frolic Aug. 6.

Officers, directors and employees of the Washington Bank and Trust Company, with their families, are planning a picnic, to be held at the Meridian Hills Country Club Friday afternoon, Aug. 6. The committee in charge is headed by Wayne Hartman.

Golf, tennis, stunts, contests, bridge and dancing are on the program.

PLAN PARK CARNIVAL

Affair Will Be at Douglass Pool Saturday Night.

The city recreation department has completed arrangements for a gigantic bathing carnival, Charleroi contest and swimming meet, to be held for the Negro patrons of Douglass Park pool Saturday night.

Jesse McClure and William Lebold of the recreation department have gathered a large number of prizes for the affair.

EX-AVIATOR KILLS SELF

By United Press

ERIE, Pa., July 30.—William C. Johnson, 31, of Chattanooga, Tenn., former United States Army aviator, shot and killed himself Monday near here, it was revealed today when his body was found in a clump of bushes.

REALTY COMPANY FILES

Incorporation papers of the Kerr Island Land Company with capital stock of $25,000, were filed in the secretary of State's office today.

The company plans to divide and sell land on Kerr Island in Sylvan Lake, Noble County.

REPORTS RINGS STOLEN

William E. Thompson, 2020 Dexter St., reported to police today that his home had been entered and a diamond and a pearl ring with total value of $200 taken.

ZANGWILL COLLAPSES

By United Press

LONDON, July 30.—Israel Zangwill, author, teacher and journalist, suffered a serious nervous breakdown today.

MR. C. B. RAYMOND

to concentrate in the sockets of joints, or to filter through and saturate the tissues and muscles, thus causing the awful aches and pains. It is declared that waste matters may continue to collect within the system in this manner for years before the effect is really felt, which is one of the reasons why rheumatic trouble is more common among people past 40 or 45, but it is stated that, in any event, improper elimination will nearly always result, sooner or later, in bad case of pain and misery that is known as rheumatism.

In view of this it is believed that what is really needed by the rheumatic sufferer is an internal medical preparation that will thoroughly cleanse the system and which will restore the kidneys and bowels to improved activity so that the body will be kept free of impurities. For instance, this new medical compound, Konjola, has given surprising relief in many rheumatic cases. It is a wonderful cleanser for the general system having effect on such organs as the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, invigorating these parts to healthy action so that the rheumatic poisons are driven out of the system in nature's way. A remarkable statement describing the power of this Konjola in rheumatic cases was recently received by the Konjola Man who is at Hook's Drug Store, Pennsylvania, and Market Streets, Indianapolis, from Mr. C. B. Raymond, well known local building contractor, living at 2911 McPherson Ave., this city.

"I had rheumatism for several years," said Mr. Raymond, "and this disease finally got so bad that I was in constant pain and misery. My knees were stiff and sore, and I always had to limp when I walked, so that I was in agony every time I went anywhere. My limbs would draw up and cramp, and sometimes my knees would get shaky so that I had to hold to something to keep myself up."

"I took lots of medicines for my trouble, but never could find the right thing until I got Konjola. This medicine had a different effect on my rheumatism than any remedy or treatment I ever tried. It seemed to start my whole system to working properly almost at once. Before the first bottle was gone I could eat and sleep better and my bowels were regulated better than I ever remembered before. The rheumatic aches and pains began to leave my system almost like magic, and now I will gladly say I have completely recovered. All the swelling and soreness has left my legs, and my knees do not ache or become stiff any more. I can walk without limping and I am able to forget all about the rheumatism. But I will never forget the medicine which gave me such blessed relief, and I will praise Konjola to everyone."

The Konjola Man is at Hook's Drug Store, Pennsylvania, and Market Streets, Indianapolis, where he is daily meeting the public and introducing and explaining the merits of this remedy.

Konjola is sold by every Hook drug store in Indianapolis and by all other druggists in surrounding towns. Advertisement.

FACES FOUR CHARGES

Negro Motorist Slated; Four Other Drivers Taken.

William Harris, 32, Negro, 626 N. Meridian St., was slated at the city prison today charged with driving an auto while intoxicated, assault and battery, speeding and failure to stop after an accident. F. F. Brady, 501 J. F. Wild Bank Bldg., reported to police that at Indiana Ave. and Vermont St. on Wednesday he was struck and knocked to the pavement by a speeding auto in which several Negroes were riding. Traffic traced the auto to Harris.

Four other motorists were charged with operating the vehicles while intoxicated. They gave their names as C. F. Brady, 60, Toledo, Ohio; William Laffey, 38, of 1417 Marlow Ave.; Alonzo Culley, 31, of 204 E. Twenty-Fourth St., and Rufus Cowen, 23, of 924 S. Senate Ave.

STOKES LOSES IN DEATH

Children of Helen Will Get Part of Estate After All.

By United Press

NEW YORK, July 30.—The battle against his wife, which W. E. D. Stokes, millionaire hotel man, fought during the last years of his life, has defeated him in death.

W. E. D. Stokes Jr., sole heir, in the will has agreed to give between $1,500,000 and $2,000,000 to the two children of Mrs. Helen Elwood Stokes.

He is survived by his widow and two children by a former marriage.

Mrs. C. W. Legeman and Edward C. Foster, Indianapolis.

$600,000,000 Loss in Foreign Market

shown:

BRIDGE LAMPS

Complete

$5.95

Polychrome bridge lamps at a special price tomorrow. Metal bases and exquisite silk shades. A bargain.

Porch Swing

$2.98

Oak swing, complete with strong chains at this trifling cost. Select yours tomorrow and save.

END TABLE

$2.89

Tudor style end table in walnut or mahogany effect. Well built. A small amount of cash necessary.

54-lb. Mattresses

$9.98

45-lb. combination felt and cotton mattresses at a sensational low price. Deeply tufted, sanitary and built for years of comfort and service.

$1.00 Down—50c a Week

RECEPTO-KAN

12 Ins. High, 10 Ins. Wide

98c

One of the best receptacle cans we have ever had. White enamel finish makes it easy to keep clean. Equipped with handle and with patent lid. A real value at a real price.

As illustrated

The National Furniture Co. offers the greatest values in fine quality furniture and the convenience of our 52 Weeks to Pay Plan!

Extreme Value! Room Size Axminster Rugs

$24.85

Gorgeous rugs of guaranteed quality at a sensational low price. Choice of beautiful color combinations. Hurry for first selection.

Pay Only $1 Down

52 Weeks to Pay

OUT OF THE HIGH RENT DISTRICT

</div