

SIXTY-FOUR FALL IN NET OF LAW OVER WEEK-END

Two Good Liquor Raids Are Staged by Sheriff and Sheriff's Squad.

Police raiders, who Friday started a drive against baseball pool operators, on orders of Police Chief Claude F. Johnson, kept busy over the week-end and arrested sixty-four persons.

Only two of those taken, however, were charged with pool ticket selling. They gave their names as Ada Mitchell, Negro, 410 Indiana Ave., and Joseph Mitchell, Negro, 415 Indiana Ave.

Vagrancy led the arrest list. Twenty-five persons facing that charge. Twenty alleged blind tiger operators were listed, thirteen men were charged with gambling and four men with driving while intoxicated.

Plenty of Brew

Seven hundred quarts of home brew and 100 gallons fermenting were seized by Sheriff Omer Hawkins and squad at a house in Washington Township. Marshal Rogers, 29, of 848½ S. Meridian St., was charged with operating the "brewery."

The sheriff's squad also arrested Herbert Theising, 35, recently acquitted on a murder charge, at a camp at Seventy-Ninth St. and White river. Raymond Haubauer, 34, also was arrested at this place, where eighty-six quarts of beer were found.

$354 IN LOOT TAKEN

"Money Racket" Worked on Filling Station Attendant.

Burglars who gained entrance to the home of M. A. Klusman, 1827 Bellefontaine St., by removing screen in a window Saturday escaped with cash and clothing valued at $354.

No trace has been found of the three Negroes who worked the "money racket" on Orval Rupe, 1818 Bellefontaine St., filling station attendant at Tenth St. and Senate Ave. Rupe said he lost $10 in a quick manipulation of change when he sold the men some oil.

REPUBLICANS TO MAKE FIGHT FOR 1925 VOTE LAW

Special Group Meets—Battle Over Mrs. Wheatcraft Due Tuesday.

Registration of Indiana voters, which may become necessary as a result of a technical defect in the 1925 registration law, would cost $100,000, it was estimated today at a meeting of the Severin of a special registration committee, appointed by Republican State Chairman Clyde A. Walb.

The committee decided to use all efforts to sustain the 1925 law, which provides that the 1924 voting record shall serve as the basis for registration. A test case in Indiana Supreme Court was deemed likely.

Fight Expected

Interest in the meeting of the G. O. P. State central committee Tuesday morning centers on the fight to oust Mrs. Vivian T. Wheatcraft, vice chairman, from control of the women's division during the coming campaign.

It is generally believed that Mrs. Wheatcraft will survive the onslaught and there are reports that a deal has been arranged through which she will receive promotion to service with the national committee.

Simultaneously, the candidates for representatives in Congress will meet.

To Choose Bureau Heads

Walb, who obtained power to name a complete organization of campaign bureau heads, at a reorganization meeting of the State committee immediately following the primary election, is expected to choose a number of subordinates who will be in sympathy with his ambition to become Indiana's next governor.

Those chosen to date are: Frank E. Rozelle, Lagrange, speakers' bureau; John Wight, Indianapolis, first voters; Myron Green, Indianapolis, publicity, and Ernest G. Tidington, Evansville, colored bureau. Walb is expected to name heads of the following bureaus: Agriculture, labor, registration and poll, legislative and business men.

Completion of the combine, if it is ever perfected, will not come for several months, he indicated. It is said important mines in District 11 are included in the proposed consolidation, and engineers are making estimates of valuations.

HISTORIC MANSION BURNS

Lure of Old Wines Blamed for Virginia Blaze.

By United Press

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—The lure of old wines and fine liquors was blamed today for the fire which destroyed Ravensworth, 130-year-old mansion in Fairfax County, Virginia.

The historic house, home of Gen. W. H. F. (Rooney) Lee, Confederate general, had been deserted for a year since the death of his widow, but it still contained its luxurious furnishings.

Some one who knew of the valuable contents of the liquor vaults started the fire in the hope of gaining access to the cellars, it is believed.

One man is held for questioning.

The Greeks used a concoction of ashes, earthworms and perfumed oil to keep the hair from turning white.

FIRE OFFICIAL TO SPEAK

Fire Prevention Chief Horace W. Carey will speak at the Wednesday noon luncheon of the East Side Commercial Club at Liberty Hall, 3208 E. Michigan St.
