MEXICAN LAW ASSAILED

Monsignor Gavisk Attacks Officials for Fight on Religion.

Reigning officials of Mexico were attacked vigorously by the Rt. Rev. Monsignor Francis H. Gavisk of St. John's Catholic Church Monday night at an open meeting in the Knights of Columbus auditorium.

Father Gavisk declared Mexico's religious laws, which it has begun to enforce by confiscating Catholic churches, are a result of the "prejudice of Latin countries against local self-government."

"In Mexico they don't trust the common people," he asserted.

NO WORD FROM GIRLS AT SESQUI

Reported in Accident—Parents, Here, Do Not Worry.

Parents today had received no word from four Indianapolis young women reported to have been in an automobile accident at Philadelphia, Pa., Monday.

Mrs. E. L. Carpenter, 102 S. Emerson Ave., mother of one of the girls, denied the report that they were short of funds and would have to ask aid from home after their machine overturned, slightly injuring them.

"The car is insured and I'm not worrying a bit. They'll get home all right," said Mrs. Carpenter.

The young women were Miss Evelyn Carpenter, 21; Miss Norma Ernsting, 20, and Miss Anna Ernsting, 18, of 1126 Woodlawn Ave., and Miss Lucille Dickman, 17, of 382 Prospect St. They were on a trip to the sesquicentennial at Philadelphia.
