

STIRRIN' the DOPE

By VEDDER GARD

SEE where those Giants are? The National League race? McGraw is never through fighting. The Gotham club has nosed up into the first division after many weeks in the depths.

By defeating the Cubs Monday, New York tied the Chicago outfit for fourth place with a .523 percentage. Pittsburgh, St. Louis and Cincy are watching the Giants' climb with some trepidation.

That race is still anybody's—and don't think Jawn McGraw doesn't know it.

"Pep" Florence, former Indian catcher now with New York, is back at the job he held with the local club for a long time. He is warming up the pitchers in the "bull pen." He may have been plucked for the majors just a little too soon.

A new boy star among the city tennis players has sprung up suddenly. He is Emmett Lowery of Irvington. All the youths around a certain drug store on E. Washington St. are watching his progress in the national meet at Chicago. He won his first match, Monday.

Monday was a typical Babe Ruth day. He paid a fine and hit a homer.

HEY call Corbett, former heavyweight champion, "Gentleman Jim." He evidently is trying to live up to the cognomen. The former pug is to referee a handball tournament in New York. There's a tip for Dempsey, who would like to be called "gentleman" better than anything else in the world. Jack might umpire a tennis match—or something.

It is said that Princess Maria de Bourbon, beautiful cousin of King Alfonso of Spain, lost $9 in her first lesson in the game. "The American pastime of shooting craps." That wasn't much, but that's the way all the games start. One begins with dimes and ends up with dollar bills, trying to get even.

Answer to "Steve's" question—He really IS too busy.

Here's a tip for sports' officials. If Bob Nipper, freshman coach out at Butler, gets "tough" just ask him about a certain play-umpired baseball game he umpired.

THE United States Naval Observatory experts say that falling stars in large numbers will be visible for three nights beginning tonight. This is not taken to mean, however, that the tennis stars of the Davis cup team will tumble.

It looks as though Tilden, Richards, Johnston and Williams are fixed securely for another year in the tennis firmament. They clung tenaciously to their orbits in Monday's Davis cup trials with flashing young stars all about them coming down to earth.

The big display will come next month. French comets are sure to collide with the Yankee luminaries—and then—well, the French meteors travel at great speed.

Ishaak Helmy of Egypt probably will swim the English Channel "when the sands of the desert grow cold." His latest attempt lasted only four and one-half hours. He's like some of these big football players and gaudily dressed golfers—mostly form.

Many expect Bell to ring the bell in national junior tennis tourney. If the youngster from Texas plays as well as he did in the Western meet in Indianapolis he should down any junior opposition. He was plenty tough for the men at Woodstock.

The Boston Braves are taking good care of the home plate. They don't want to spoil it by giving prizes. Not opposition base-runner has crossed the plate for twenty-seven innings. The Pirates failed to dent it in two games Saturday and St. Louis could not score on Monday.

With the Majors

The New York Giants climbed into the first division Monday, losing 5 to 1 to the Chicago Cubs, whom they defeated in front of the home crowd, beating Brooklyn, 9 to 3.

Breaking even with the Phillies, the Reds moved up to within one percentage point of second place, which they surrendered to the Cardinals Sunday. The Reds made seven runs in the first inning of the first game, which they won, 7 to 4. Cincinnati scored three of its final five runs in the second game and won, 10 to 5.

The Braves continued to prove the expected stumbling block, upsetting the Cardinals, 5 to 0. They seem unable to score Boston's delivery.

While their rivals were shuffling back and forth, the Pirates stepped another full game out in front of the bunch, beating Brooklyn, 9 to 3.

In a wild ball game at Detroit, the Yankees beat the Tigers 10 to 8. Babe Ruth and Tony Lazzeri hit homers and seven pitchers were changed about. It was Babe's thirty-sixth circuit clout. With New York leading 9 to 0 in the ninth, the Tigers batted Jones from the box, kept right on hitting Braxton who was rushed to the hospital and finally was rushed by Bob Shawkey one run short of a tie.

This Speaker's homer off Walter Johnson helped Cleveland beat Washington, 7 to 4. Walters held the White Sox, 10 to 4. The Athletics winning 2 to 1. The Red Sox made sixteen hits at St. Louis where they beat the Browns, 7 to 5.

GIANTS DEFEAT A. B. C. Ruben Foster's American Giants of the Negro National League bunched its in the sixth inning Monday, scored six runs and defeated the Indianapolis A. B. C. 5 to 3, in the third day of a five-game series at Washington Park. The Giants won two of the first three.

The teams were to battle again this afternoon and the series will be brought to a close Wednesday.

LICENSE COMMITTEE CONSIDERS DEMPSEY-TUNNEY PERMITS

VETERANS DEFEAT YOUTHS

Tilden, Johnston and Williams Win in Davis Cup Tennis Trials.

By United Press
FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Aug. 10.—The old guard of American tennis neither dies nor surrenders. Youth must wait another year to be served.

"Big Bill" Tilden and "Little Bill" Johnston and Dick Williams, veterans of many a Davis Cup fight, succeeded Monday in staving off the challenge of three youngsters who would have disputed the right of the "big three" to places on the team which this year will defend the trophy.

Richards' Sure of Place
Vinnie Richards, whom one must class as a veteran now, was to have played Lewis White in the Davis Cup trials, but injured his leg Sunday and was excused by the selection committee. The young New York star is certain of a place on the team.

Tilden and Johnston and Williams did not triumph by comfortable margins, however, each had trouble in disposing of his opponent. Ed Chandler carried "Big Bill" to three sets in the first trial match, the scores being 6-2, 1-6, 6-2.

Lott Fights Hard
Dick Williams had to summon all his tennis finesse to beat George Lott, 3-6, 6-1, 7-5.

Johnston was given a great battle by Chapin before he triumphed over the Springfield youngster, 6-4, 7-5.

In the doubles Richards, whose leg didn't appear to trouble him much, and Dick Williams took the measure of Tilden and Johnston in straight sets, 6-4, 7-5, the New Yorkers' brilliant work being largely responsible for the victory.

BABE FINED
By Times Special
DETROIT, Aug. 10.—Babe Ruth was fined $15 Monday for fishing in Michigan last June without a license. He paid the fine, hurried to the ball park, and hit a home run in the seventh inning of the game with Detroit. The circuit clout was the Babe's thirty-sixth of the season.

BRASSIE BIRDIES

Pleasant Run women were hosts to a State-wide invitational golf tournament today.

One of the most successful tournaments in the history of the game of golf among women, in this State, was held at Highland, Monday. Mrs. B. C. Stevenson and Mrs. Fred Balz, with other Highland women, were hosts to a gathering of 108 "Shinnys" who came from all stick wielders, who came from all sections of the State in championship tournament fashion.

Thirteen beautiful prizes were given; five for low gross scores; five for low net scores; and three for low putting totals.

The tournament today at the east side course was a similar affair, with prizes for low net and gross. The certified club handicap was to be allowed.

Demonstrating the same ruggedness that featured her drive to the Indiana State women's championship, Miss Elizabeth Dunn of South Grove played through the Monday tournament with a badly sprained ankle, to score a 97.

Sunday Miss Dunn was playing with B. C. Stevenson, and while searching a ditch for a lost ball, stepped in a hole and twisted her ankle. She refused to stay out of the play Monday, however, and limped the eighteen.

Mrs. B. C. Stevenson was first low gross scorer, Monday, with a 91. Her handicap was 5, making 86 net. She took 29 putts.

Mrs. Carl G. Gibbs of the Country Club was second with 92 gross, 9 handicap, 83 net and 26 putts. Mrs. Robert Tinsley, with a card 94-11-84 and Miss Helen Bainbridge of Terre Haute with 94-13-81-39 were tied for third and fourth low gross places with 94's.

Mrs. Romney Willson, Country Club, was fifth low gross, with 95. Her card was 95-11-84-34. In the low net division, Mrs. Theodore Stein of Highland was low with a 76. Her card was 100-24-76 net and 36 putts. Mrs. R. Knode of Richmond was second with 77. Her card read 101-24-11 and 32 putts.

Mrs. George Stewart of Pleasant Run was third, with 78. She won after a playoff with Mrs. Homer Bur-

Colonel Phelan Holds Key to Heavyweight Fight Plans of Tex Rickard.

By Henry Farrell
United Press Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—"Even money and take your choice," was the tip passed on Broadway today as the New York license committee was scheduled to tell Tex Rickard officially and finally whether Jack Dempsey and Gene Tunney can meet in the Yankee stadium on Sept. 16, for the world's heavyweight championship.

There may be reasons why the license committee should go against the 2 to 1 vote of the boxing commission favoring the match, and there may be other reasons why the committee should stand on its own feet and declare that Tunney, instead of Harry Wills should fight Dempsey.

"We Soldiers"
There were reports that Colonel Phelan, chairman of the "Fighting Irish" club, would say to Sergeant Tunney of the Marines, "We soldiers must stick together; you can have a license to fight."

And to Dempsey, the same rumor had it, Colonel Phelan would say, "Out with you; you can't fight in this State."

This would put Tunney in the position of a recipient of a saddle without a horse.

There also were reports—which are more logical—that the committee will pick up the applications of Dempsey and Tunney for licenses, ponder over them and then tell the boys to come back in two weeks.

The longer the committee keeps Rickard from knowing what his top prices can be and the longer they can keep him in suspense about the fighter's license, the less the chances will be that Rickard can pull off the fight.
