Sister Mary's Kitchen

Breakfast—Stewed prunes, cereal, thin cream, crisp broiled bacon, toast, marmalade, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—Lima beans in tomato sauce, whole wheat bread, floating island with red raspberries, milk, tea.

Dinner—Cold sliced roast beef, spiced currant jelly, rice croquettes, kohlrabi in cream sauce, fruit salad, cheese sticks, graham bread, milk, coffee.

The dinner menu planned is worth keeping in mind if you like to serve porch or garden meals. The cold sliced meat with its accompanying jelly, croquette and vegetable makes an attractive "mixed grill," of one plate dinner. And the salad does double duty as salad and dessert both. This means only two plates and but one change in serving.

Lima Beans in Tomato Sauce
One pint lima beans, 3 tomatoes, 2 small onions, 1 sweet green pepper, 2 tablespoons butter, ½ teaspoon salt, pepper.

Cook beans in boiling water to cover until tender. Add salt the last fifteen minutes of cooking. Let water cook away as much as possible without burning. In the meantime, peel tomatoes and cut in small pieces. Put into a smooth sauce pan and add onions peeled and chopped and pepper freed from seeds and the white pith and cut in fine shreds. Cook over a low fire until pepper is tender, about thirty minutes. Add butter and salt and pepper. Reheat beans in this mixture if necessary and serve at once. (Copyright, 1926, NEA Service, Inc.)
