

TWO FROM HERE PERISH IN WATER

Girl Drowns South of City;
Boy Near Galveston, Ind.

Two Indianapolis young persons lost their lives Wednesday by drowning. Miss Thelma Jones, 17, of near Greenwood, drowned when she stepped into a deep hole in a gravel pit in Lick Creek at Bixler Rd. and Hanna Ave., south of the city. Frank Tuttle, Route 0, Box 288, leaped into the water fully clothed and brought out her body but efforts to revive her failed.

Carl Parsons, 14, of 1230 S. Talbot St., was drowned in a gravel pit on a farm near Galveston, Ind. Two boy companions warned the youth not to go in the deep water. His companions were unable to rescue him. The body was recovered about two hours later.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Parsons, the lad's parents, have gone to Galveston, where services will be held at an uncle's home on Friday. Burial will be there.

SURROUND BOY BANDITS

By United Press

PUEBLO, Colo., Aug. 19.—Armed with tear gas bombs a sheriff's posse was surrounded a narrow canyon near Rye, Colo., in which Lester and Forrest Gonco, 18 and 14 years old, respectively, youthful bandits, are believed hiding. The boys have terrorized the resort town of Rye, following the hold-up of fifty persons at a Y. M. C. A. camp, and have led a posse an exciting chase through the mountains.

ARSENAL SMOLDERS

By United Press

NORFOLK, Va., Aug. 19.—Magazine L-11 at Pig Point Arsenal, near Portsmouth, Va., was a smoldering ruin today following an explosion which detonated a billion rounds of revolver and rifle ammunition stored there.

None of the score of soldiers stationed at the arsenal or the civilians who worked there was killed, as far as could be learned. Several were suffering temporary partial blindness, however, as a result of the brilliant flashes of exploding powder. Lightning was blamed for the explosion.

Visitors from out of the city can easily find the way to White Cafeteria. It's "On the Circle."

Catchy and High-Sounding
In selecting your school, let reason guide you. Just use your own good judgment. Every one has to start as a beginner in order to start right. Don't be misled by some faraway "outrage" that would, through catchy and high-sounding statements, lead you to believe that you can work a little now and then, and be ushered into a "big executive position in a few months. Avoid the fellow who comes appealing to your vanity to collect a large fee, then probably forget you. There are many good, substantial and reliable schools, where courses are called by their right names, genuine merit pervades the entire program, and results are constantly sought. Use your own good sense of reasoning, cast your lot with such a school, be faithful, work hard, and the outcome will surely be satisfactory in every way. Consider the Indiana Business College at Marion, Muncie, Logansport, Anderson, Kokomo, Lafayette, Columbus, Richmond, Vincennes or Indianapolis—Ors. E. Rutz, General Manager. Get in touch with the point you prefer, or see, write or telephone Fred W. Case, Principal.
