By VEDDER GARD

AMONG golf professionals, this is a MacDonald Smith year. Although he failed in the national open at Scioto, the Scot showed flashes of great form, and since that time has been playing the most consistently good golf of his career.

He will defend his western open title at Highland course here starting Thursday, and it is likely to take some shooting to dislodge him.

Last Sunday Mac took only thirty-five strokes on the nine holes out at Highland. Then just to show he was human, needed forty-two to get back in.

Twice Mac Smith has nipped important championships out from beneath little Gene Sarazen's sunburnt nose, the first time at Salisbury and again at Montreal, where he was the Canadian open.

It took Smith 126 holes to beat Sarazen for the Metropolitan title, but the slender Scotsman shot a 66, seven strokes under par, on the final round. Gene, incidentally, had a 70 for his last 18 holes. Tied at the end of the tournament, this pair played three additional rounds before Smith won.

At Montreal, Mac played his last two rounds in seven strokes under par, coming from behind to overtake Sarazen and Johnny Farrell. Mac Smith's good year is a triumph of the short game. He out-drives him from the tee. At chip shots, run-ups, pitches and half mashies he has no superior. And his putting is deadly.

WILBUR SHAW of this city is getting quite a reputation as a dirt track auto race star. He is going over big in Chicago. Shaw will drive a new Frontenac creation built by Art Chevrolet in the 150-mile race at the new board track at Akron, Ohio, Labor day.

Fred Harder of Indianapolis, a rival of Shaw's, will drive a car for Clemons Company. These two pilots are pretty certain to give the Akron speed bugs plenty of thrills.

ACCORDING to Henry Farrell of the United Press, Dempsey seems in almost perfect condition. He shows speed in his workouts and a good punch. But trainers will tell you that outward appearances sometimes are deceiving.

Jim Jeffries was fat inside when he met Johnson, and could not stand the body punches. Tunney probably will work on Jack's body. That seems the logical plan of attack.

Before Dempsey went to his training camp, some friends in New York gave him the laugh when he said he was not taking Tunney lightly.

"Explain, if you can," one of them said, "how you can lose unless you're in such bad shape that you collapse from your own exertion. Tunney can't hurt you."

"Listen," Dempsey interrupted, "any man can be hurt if he's hit in the right spot, and I've got just as many right spots as any other champion."

Two Hoosiers Qualify and Compete in Match Play at Chicago.

By Times Special
CHICAGO, Aug. 24.—Mrs. Lee W. Mida, Chicago, low medalist; Mrs. O. S. Hill, Kansas City, who was in second place; Miss Virginia Van Wile and Mrs. Melvin Jones, both of Chicago, and Miss Margaret Waddles, Hutchinson, Kan., who were tied for third place, attracted the largest crowd as they went to the first tee for today's first round of match play of the Women's Western golf championship at the Olympia Fields course.

Mrs. Mida, who has broken women's records on eleven courses this year, carved three off the Olympia Fields women's par in her medal performance, making an 80 on the par 83 route. She made her score on a rain-soaked course through a driving storm.

Today's match play was over the eighteen-hole distance for the thirty-two women who qualified Monday.

Miss Naomi Hull of Kendallville and Mrs. Robert Tinsley of Crawfordville were Hoosiers in the running. Miss Hull met Mrs. Mida today and Mrs. Tinsley was paired with Mrs. Veltsch.

Miss Elizabeth Dunn, the Indiana champion, failed to qualify by one stroke. Her score was 98.

Indians Within Four and a Half Games of Leaders—Speece Blanks Saints.

By United Press
ST. PAUL, Aug. 24.—Owens Bush's Indians built up more percentage Monday by making it three in a row over the Saints, and today the Bushmen were with four and one-half games of the league-leading Breviers and within two and one-half games of the second-place Colonels.

The Tribesmen have been knocking 'em dead in the Twin Cities. They took four of five at Minneapolis and the first three here. Milwaukee stumbled before Toledo Monday and Louisville lost to the Millers. Since the healthy game made by the Hoosiers, the old pennant battle in the A. A. is tightening again.

Byron Speece was the big noise here Monday as the Indians downed Nick Allen's outfit, 8 to 0. The thrower of the submarine ball had the Saints baffled in the pinches and the first three here. Milwaukee stumbled before Toledo Monday and Louisville lost to the Millers.

Pipras was the losing pitcher. He worked eight innings, and Farquhar finished. Everybody in the Tribe line-up broke into the hit column one or more times. The Indians did not miscue once in the field.

Burwell was the Monday morning choice to pitch the third of the series, but Manager Bush changed to Speece when Byron reported his salary whip feeling good in practice. Burwell was slated to hurl the fourth of the series today.

The Indians executed two double plays to help Speece out of threatened trouble. Both were Sicking to Schreiber to Holke. Sicking and Schreiber played fine ball around the keystone.

Cullop got two doubles for the Saints. McMillan got three of the Saints' safeties, one for two bases. Fisher poled a double for the Hoosiers.

The Indians are carded in St. Paul through Thursday. Friday is an off-day. The Tribesmen open a series in Louisville Saturday. The Bushmen expect to see a big crowd of Indianapolis fans in Louisville Sunday.

The Tribe won't return to the home lot until Sept. 4. They play in Toledo following the Louisville series.

Nick Allen, St. Paul manager, was banished early in the Monday fracas. He is establishing a record for being kicked out this season.

The Indians have won seven of their last eight games.

ELIZABETH DUNN TELLS OF PLAY IN TOURNEY

Indiana Women's Golf Champ Has Hard Luck in Qualifying Round—Praises Course.

By MISS ELIZABETH DUNN
Indiana Women's Golf Champion and Special Correspondent for the Indianapolis Times at Olympia Fields, Chicago.

I took the side lines with the gallery today at the Western women's golf tournament because I unconsciously made a penalty move on the eleventh tee Monday.

That stroke boosted my score to 98, one stroke out of the select championship class.

I believe I could have made a good showing in match play if I had qualified. However, I played and lost, and am content to wait until next year.

Boosts Other Hoosiers
I think Mrs. Robert Tinsley of Crawfordville, Ind., who scored a 90, will make her opponents step, and any one who eliminates her will play real golf. The same goes for Miss Naomi Hull of Kendallville, Ind. Naomi drew a hard match today, being paired with Mrs. Mida, low medalist.

JUBILANT JOURNEY FOR TRIBE ROOTERS SUNDAY

With the Indians pulling up in the race again, interest has picked up in the booster trip to Louisville next Sunday and many fans have purchased tickets for the "jubilant journey" arranged by the Elks, with Dale Stout master of ceremonies.

It is a city-wide baseball affair, with the Elks lending the steering hand. The sum of $4 covers the round-trip fare over the Pennsylvania and a good seat to the Indianapolis double-header at Parkway field.

What could be fairer? A number of noon luncheon clubs are supporting the project in order to endeavor to even up for the big turnout of Louisville fans to Indianapolis some time ago.

It is believed 1,000 Tribe rooters will make the excursion and there will be no lack of entertainment going and returning. Noise-making devices will be distributed and the rooters will be tuned up in the "gentle" art of rooting in an enemy park.

For further information and tickets, call booster headquarters at the Elks' Club, Lincoln 2351. The club is located at Meridian and St. Clair Sts. Fans are urged to get in the "battering order" at once in order to give the booster directors time to obtain the proper number of coaches.

MOLLA IS TENNIS CHAMPION

Great Fight Put Up by Mrs. Mallory to Defeat Miss Ryan.

By Henry L. Farrell
United Press Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—Once again Molla Bjurstedt Mallory is the "American Girl" and not the "Norse woman."

When the court-worn veteran left the courts Monday after beating Elizabeth Ryan and becoming the national champion for the seventh time, she jumped up and down like a child with a new doll and gave the crowd the widest smile she ever has shown.

She had reason to be proud of a 4-6, 6-4 and 9-7 victory but—behind her smile and her display of happiness is a story of the hardest fight an athlete ever has made to come back.

Mrs. Mallory basked in the light of a national idol until after seven hard and successful campaigns she began to slip. Then her court conquests were buried from public notice.

She was hurt in 1920 when the American Olympic committee wouldn't fight for a suspension of international rules that would permit (Turn to Page 11)

Chesterfield offers "natural tobacco taste" at its mild and mellow best, just the natural leaf sweetness of fine tobaccos put together right—and "judged by results," that's just what smokers want.
