

STIRRIN' the DOPE

By VEDDER GARD

THE opposite sex who delight in remarking that woman is fickle might add a few more lines to their arguments by glancing at Tuesday's upset in the women's Western golf meet. Mrs. Mida, who specializes in breaking course records and went around in 80 to qualify was defeated by Miss Hull of Kendallville, Ind. (100-ray for her side).

Miss Virginia Van Wie, the young girl who surprised everyone by defeating Glenna Collett last winter in the Florida East Coast meet, also fell by the wayside. She was rated a strong contender for the Western title.

Then there was Mrs. Dave Gaut of Memphis, former champion, who will confine her activities, to consolation flights for the rest of the week. There might be some more of this fickleness, but that's enough to prove the point.

For a comeback the women will have to wait until the Western open starts Thursday at Highland. The fair sex is likely to find plenty of good (or horrible) examples.

Doubtless the ladies do not need this advice. They usually have the last word.

Jack Dempsey is in another pickle. Now don't become alarmed. The champ every night before retiring has his face and hands "pickled" in corn beef brine. He's a tough bird, but he wants to be tougher, that's the way with some folks—never satisfied.

SOME have been asking why there was no match play in the Western open. Spectators prefer to see two players battling it out stroke for stroke. The answer is easy. Medal play is the more difficult.

With that pencil marking down each swing of the club there can be no mistakes. A player cannot concede a hole and go out and win the next to square the number.

The winner must be consistently good. It is a true test. Some will contend that match play is more sensational, more competitive. They have much on their side of the argument.

Whatever your personal opinion is, you must admit that the golfer who takes the fewest number of strokes in the seventy-two holes at Highland in a field of some 250 richly deserves whatever honor and gold if he is a professional is his.

WE have often remarked that no matter in what line, the champion always gave us a real kick. We may have to change this since Fred Patzel, world's champion hog caller, is ready to accept the challenge of the Kansas City stockyards for a title match.

It is doubtful if we would go very far to see and hear this contest. And we probably wouldn't have to go very far. Maybe if it's a nice, clear day we'll hear the "poo-gie, poo-gie" in Indianapolis. You must remember, he is the champion.

THERE'S no use of congratulating Mrs. Mallory on her great triumph over Elizabeth Ryan to win the national tennis crown. Savage Molla always believes in herself, win or lose, and it isn't such a bad idea. She did a Norse war dance on every point she won in the decisive set in the title match.

We're for you, Molla, even though you don't like newspapermen. There's too much "Pardon me—after you, my dear Gaston" in this tennis game.

FAMOUS GOLF STARS HERE FOR WESTERN OPEN TOURNAMENT.

Huge Entry List for Three-Day Meet Starting Thursday at Highland Club Course.

With the final day's practice held today, approximately 250 golfers will start Thursday in the first 18 holes of the Western Golf Association open championship tourney at the Highland Golf and Country Club. The course is in exceptionally good shape, with perfect putting greens and rough that offers plenty of grief to the players who deviate from the straight and narrow.

The field of starters contains the class of American professionals. No great American star is absent, except Bobby Jones. MacDonald Smith, present Western open champion, is prepared to defend his title. Smith has been practicing since last Sunday morning and afternoon.

Among the players of great reputation who are generally given a chance to win the championship are Walter Hagen, Gene Sarazen, Leo Diegel, Joe Turnesa, Johnny Farrell, Jock Hutchison, Harry Cooper, Al Watrous, Harry Hampton, Bob McDonald, Al Espinosa and many others who stand at or near the top of American golf.

Several of the country's best amateurs have entered, including Chick Evans, only amateur to have ever won the Western open. Held, St. Louis; Jimmy Marion, St. Louis; Denmore Shute, Huntington, W. Va., and Johnny Simpson, Terre Haute, Ind., recent winner of the Indiana State championship.

Western Association officials arriving in Indianapolis this morning to take charge of the tournament, said the field of players is the greatest in class that has ever entered a Western open championship. Western officials in charge of the tournament are: Hobart P. Young, president; A. C. Allen, vice president; Robert M. Cutting, secretary; Ray Fruit, assistant secretary.

Entrants come from all parts of the country. A large portion of the entry list are Indiana professionals and Indiana amateurs eligible to play in the Western open.

ON TRAIL OF THE TRIBE; NEWS AND GOSSIP

ST. PAUL, Aug. 25.—Southpaw Dutch Henry was to do the pitching for the Indians today in the fifth fray of the series with the Saints, and Dutch's mates hoped to give him more encouragement than Bill Burwell received Tuesday.

Bill was bumped hard himself, and St. Paul won, 6 to 2, but there was another reason for the Tribe's defeat other than the fact the Saints solved Bill's delivery. That other reason was Ray Kolp, the blonde right-hander who twirled for St. Paul.

He's "Goat-Getter"

Kolp delights in defeating Indians, and he is known as a "goat-getter," especially effective against the Bushmen. When he isn't on the mound against the Indians, he sits on the bench or parades the coaching lines and casts arsenical remarks about the Hoosiers.

Kolp held the Bushmen to five hits Tuesday and shut 'em out until the eighth. Burwell was slammed for twelve hits in seven innings and Feltz, who pitched the eighth for the Indians, was solved for two safeties. Burwell was pounded hard, Feltz getting two triples, Stuvengen one and Cullop a home run.

Rapid-Fire Game

It was a rapidly-played contest. Both Burwell and Kolp are fast workers on the mound and the game was played in one hour and eleven minutes, the record for the league this season. The home club did not have to bat in the ninth, of course, which cut the time down.

The league record for time is 58 minutes, established several years ago.

The defeat Tuesday was a blow to the Indians in their efforts to gain on the league-leading Brewers. Milwaukee downed Toledo and was five and one-half games ahead of the Tribesmen today. Two home runs by Bunny Brief and one by Simon crushed Toledo, 3 to 2.

Minneapolis again knocked off Louisville Tuesday, 5 to 4. The Colonels are two and one-half games ahead of the Hoosiers.

International League pennant winners and A. A. flag winners play a post-season series each fall and if Baltimore happens to be nosed out in its league this season the Class A A series will mean big dough for the ball players. Baltimore does not draw well in a fall A. A. classic any more, but Toronto, Newark or Buffalo would supply packed parks for such an event. That reward makes the 1926 A. A. pennant worth scrapping for.

Toronto is on top in the International League by a slight margin over Baltimore, and Newark is running a strong third. Buffalo, fourth, still has an outside pennant chance.

President Tom Hickey of the A. A. must be ashamed of his judgment on managers by this time. Since there has been talk of Cincinnati being entered, including Walter Hagen, Gene Sarazen, MacDonald Smith, Joe Turnesa, Johnny Farrell, Leo Diegel, Chick Evans, Jock Hutchison and more than 200 others, representing best professionals and amateurs. The greatest golf show ever held in Indiana.

Tickets on sale at Em-Roe, Spalding, Habich, Smith-Hassler, Sturm and Highland Club.

United States Open (twice)
British Open (twice)
U. S. Professional (thrice)
also
French, Belgian, Western,
Metropolitan and North and South Opens

In the Western open links tourney at the Highland Golf and Country Club, starting Thursday, in a three-some that tees off at 10:30, will be included Walter Hagen, who is rated the king of the pros. His list of titles is impressive. He has captured many "big" tourneys.

Hagen is so good at the links game that he has a manager. Oh, yes, he is one of the outstanding favorites to cop the Western event. Fact of the matter he's always among favorites in any meet he enters. Walter is a baseball fan and has been sojourning in Cleveland, occupying a box seat at the diamond battles between Giants and Reds.

Playing in the three-some Thursday with Hagen will be Robert McDonald, Chicago pro, and Eddie Held, star St. Louis amateur. Hagen is entered as representing Sarasota, Fla.

League Changes Due

South Bend and Ft. Wayne Want Berths in Michigan Loop.

By United Press
GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Aug. 25.—South Bend and Ft. Wayne, Ind., with Lansing, Mich., have applied for berths with the Michigan Central League, according to President Emerson W. Dickerson.

Bad weather this season and small interest in several Michigan cities have caused all teams to lose money, Dickerson said, indicating the three applicants might be accepted next year.

SECOND ROUND IN MEET

Miss Naomi Hull Stays in Running by Defeating Medalist.

By United Press
CHICAGO, Aug. 25.—Sixteen women golfers, including four dark horses who defeated tournament favorites in the first day of match play, went into the second round in the women's Western golf tourney at the Olympia Fields course here today.

Miss Naomi Hull, Kendallville, Ind., who eliminated Mrs. Lee Mida, medalist in Tuesday's play, was to play Mrs. J. S. Cassriel, Aurora, Mrs. Perry Fiske, De Kalb, Ill., who upset the girl phenomenon, Virginia Van Wie, was to play Miss Virginia Ingram, Chicago, who won from Miss Lillian McEntee. Miss Marion Turpin, New Orleans, La., who beat Miss Vera Gardner, Chicago, was to cross cheeks with Mrs. Melvin Jones, a surviving Chicago star.

Miss Dorothy Page, Madison, Wis., who eliminated Mrs. H. S. Clark, Oklahoma City, was to meet Mrs. Harley Highbee, capable Detroit player, as her next opponent. Miss Margaret Waddles, Hutchinson, Kas., who blasted the hopes of Mrs. Jack Vilas, Chicago, was paired with Mrs. David Vetch, Kansas City.

Mrs. Curtis Sohl, Columbus, Ohio, was matched with Mrs. O. S. Hill, Kansas City, in today's play. Mrs. Stewart Hanley, Detroit, was matched with Miss Sarah Richards, Chicago, and Miss Dorothy Klotz, Chicago, was to meet Miss Elsie Hilding, Grand Rapids, Mich.

Tunney Action Pictures on Circle Reel

The News Reel at the Circle this week has some clear-cut views of Gene Tunney going through training paces for his world's title bout with Jack Dempsey. The views show the former Marine "shadow" boxing, skipping the rope and doing other stunts.

Close-ups give a splendid idea of the challenger's physical make-up and many boxing fans here are expressing the opinion he lacks "bull strength" to cope with the champion.

Indianapolis Typos Blanked in Printer Tourney.

By Times Special
ST. LOUIS, Aug. 25.—The typo ball team representing Indianapolis in the Union Printers' International League tournament here this week was eliminated Tuesday. The Hoosiers met the Washington nine, 1925 champions, and the champs won, 9 to 0. Other games Tuesday resulted as follows:

Tourney deponents predict Washington and St. Louis will clash in the finals. St. Louis was carded to meet St. Paul today. Washington has been the cup winner four times and has been champion the past three years.

PENNSY TOURNEY SEPT. 11

400 Athletes to Compete Here—Track, Baseball, Golf, Other Sports.

Four hundred Pennsylvania Railroad athletes and approximately four thousand employees of the company and members of their families are expected to attend the big Western Region outdoor athletic meet to be held here Saturday, Sept. 11.

Ten divisions comprising the Western Region, from Chicago to the north; Columbus, Ohio, to the east; St. Louis to the west and Louisville to the south, will be represented. The Pennsylvania athletic field on E. Maryland St. has been conditioned for the meet. Bleachers have been added to the grand stand. A quarter-mile cinder track has been constructed.

Additional Facilities

Five additional dressing-rooms for male athletes and three additional dressing-rooms for female participants and two large restrooms have been built under the grand stand.

Forty-one events, including the various track and field contests, are on the program.

The baseball game will be between Columbus, champions of the western region, and the champions of the central region.

Golf at South Grove

Golf will be played at the South Grove course. The trap-shooting contest will be held at the Indianapolis Gun Club. The swimming contests will be staged at the Central Y. M. C. A. Tennis will be played at Willard Park courts. Rifle shooting will take place at the Pennsylvania Railroad rifle range.

POLO RANKINGS

By United Press
NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—The United States Polo Association has reduced Lewis Lacey, Argentine star from ten goals to nine, making the Argentine team a 33-goal combination, only two more than the Meadowbrook-Army team. There are now but three ten-goal polo players, Devereaux Milburn and Thomas Hitchcock, Jr., of America, and Capt. J. E. Traill, a British-Argentine player.

inseparable companions-

P.A. and jimmy-pipe joy

YES, indeed. Prince Albert and pipe-pleasure go together like "fair and colder," "Romeo and Juliet," "song and dance." Inseparable companions . . . in fair weather and foul. Wherever you see one, you see the other. Prince Albert means jimmy-pipe joy . . . precisely that!

P. A. is cool as picnic lemonade. Cool and consoling when problems press. Sweet and fragrant as wind-blown blossoms. Mild with a mildness that lets you smoke all you want, morning to midnight. Yet with sufficient body to let you know you are smoking. Nicely balanced!

You'll like the taste of this fine old pipe tobacco. More men have liked it than any other brand. This is a matter of record. Quality through and through. Real tobacco for real men. That's Prince Albert. Kind to your tongue and throat. Friendly in spirit and friendly in fact.

If you haven't smoked P. A., you can't possibly know how much deep-down satisfaction that old jimmy-pipe can give you. No matter how set you think you are, buy a tidy red tin of Prince Albert today. Tamp a load into your pipe and take a deep drag. Good? You said it!

PRINCE ALBERT

—no other tobacco is like it!

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, pound and half-pound tin humidor, and pound crystal-glass humidor with sponge-moistener top. And always with every bit of bite and parch removed by the Prince Albert process.
