

STIRRIN' the DOPE

By VEDDER GARD

It must be nice to sit around the lobby in August and talk about who you will meet in the coming world's series. That's what the New York Yankees are doing these days. It is said by Eastern sports writers that the Huggins fear the Cardinals more than Pittsburgh or Cincinnati.

Take it or leave it. Maybe it's just a dream. The Gotham club probably doesn't fear any of them very much. It shouldn't. Of course, the Yankees have not won, but they are so close that it would take a cataclysm to dislodge them. Exactly nine games separated Cleveland from New York before today's schedule. Such a lead so late in the season is almost insurmountable.

The Yankee infield seems a bit wobbly and Manager Huggins admits such a condition when he displaced Koenig, the former St. Paul player, at shortstop for the important Cleveland series.

However, the American League pace-setters need only to win half their remaining games to clinch the flag. Cleveland won't win all its games. Bunting and pitching have carried the team to the top and will keep it there.

MISS EDERIE need not sigh, as Alexander the Great once did. There seems to be more channels to conquer. William Wrigley, Jr., has offered $25,000 to the first one swimming the Catalina channel.

What's a little dough to a gentleman like that, who Wednesday paid $50,000 for English, Toledo's star shortstop?

Gertrude, hurry back home! There's some twenty-three miles of choppy water between Los Angeles harbor and Catalina Island waiting to be conquered. And there's a pot of gold awaiting.

A publicity note from Wittenberg College says that the freshmen caps weigh only one-half ounce. These probably won't rest very heavily on even a freshman's brain.

This may be unkind, but when the golf writers speak of the good iron game of some of the women, we wonder how skillful they are at wielding the flat irons in the kitchen.

The Waterproof Garment Workers are on strike. Probably getting ready for another rainy football season such as was dished out by the weather man last fall. The moisture grid fans prefer does not come from clouds.

MAYBE you noticed that every game Wednesday in that light National League race was won by one run. Cincy and Pittsburgh each lost by 2 to 1 scores, while St. Louis went into the lead by a 4 to 3 eleventh-inning victory over Boston. The Cubs nosed out Philadelphia, 3 to 2.

In only one inning was more than one run made. The Cards got a pair in the second against the Braves. All the other tallies were made with much travail one at a time.

None of the pitchers needs hide his head today after those exhibitions of hurling. The scores looked like old times.

INDIANA GIRL IS WINNER

Miss Hull Takes Match in Third Round of Western Open Golf.

CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—Favorites came through handily in the quarter-final round of the women's western golf championship here today.

Miss Naomi Hull, Kendallville, Ind.; Miss Dorothy Page, Madison, Wis., and Mrs. Stewart Hanley of Detroit won their matches, while Mrs. O. S. Hill of Kansas City, Mo., had an advantage at the turn.

Results of the quarter-final round: Miss Dorothy Page, Madison, defeated Miss Elsie Hilding, Grand Rapids, Mich., 5 and 4.

Mrs. Stewart Hanley, Detroit, defeated Mrs. Perry Flske, De Kalb, Ill., by default. Mrs. Flske was forced to leave the course at the turn on account of illness.

Miss Naomi Hull, Kendallville, Ind., defeated Miss Marion Turpie, New Orleans, 2 up.

At the turn Mrs. O. S. Hill of Kansas City was leading Miss Margaret Waddles, Hutchinson, Kan., one up.

Naomi Hull, the Hoosier star, defeated Mrs. Mida Tuesday and Mrs. Cassriel Wednesday.

LOCALS WIN

Sagalowsky and Kurzrock Still in Running.

PT. WAYNE, Ind., Aug. 26.—The quarter-final round of the State tennis singles was on the program today. Matches were as follows: Gorchakoff vs. Kurzrock, Bell vs. Donovan, Kussman vs. O'Connell and Sagalowsky vs. Taverex.

Sagalowsky and Kurzrock of Indianapolis entered the quarter-final round in the doubles Wednesday by defeating Bok and Sorenson, 6-1, 6-1. Bell and O'Connell defeated Haworth and Markey of Indianapolis after a battle, 6-6, 6-2.

Kurzrock defeated Haworth in the only singles match Wednesday, 6-0, 6-3.

Printers' Tourney Nears End

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 26.—Typo teams of St. Louis and Boston were to meet here today in the Union Printers' International League baseball tournament and the winner will battle Washington Friday in the finals for the championship.

Washington drew the bye in the semi-finals and rested today. St. Louis defeated St. Paul Wednesday, 14 to 5, Boston eliminated Cleveland, 7 to 5, and Washington knocked off Pittsburgh, 8 to 2. Complete results previous to today in the elimination tourney follow:

St. Louis, 12; New York, 3.	St. Paul, 9; Toronto, 5.
Boston, 3; Chicago, 2.	Cleveland, 8; Detroit, 6.
Washington, 9; Indianapolis, 0.	Pittsburgh, 8; Cincinnati, 3.
St. Louis, 14; St. Paul, 5.	Boston, 7; Cleveland, 5.
Washington, 8; Pittsburgh, 3.

every third hole. A detachment of eighty-five soldiers handled the galleries.

Par for the course is 35-35, and most of the players who went around Wednesday played above the score. Here and there a player was a stroke under.

Ralph Stonehouse, assistant pro at the Highland course, shot a 68 to tie the course record held by Leonard Schmutte. Charles Hall, Birmingham, Ala., set the gallery groggy by missing a four-foot putt that rimmed the cup, and which would have been a 67, a new course record.

With the course drying it was felt that the course record would be shattered by one of two strokes during the play.

MacDonald Smith with a 69 in practice and several 70s could do that very thing.

A large gallery followed Hagen, Jock Hutchinson, Eddie Held and Harry Cooper. Wednesday Hagen shot 73, Hutchinson and Held, 72, and Cooper, 74.

Hutchinson came within an inch of holing out a drive on the 173-yard fourth hole.

Much speculation over the total score for the 72 holes is heard everywhere. The 281 score, which won for Smith at Youngstown, Ohio, last year, will not be broken in the popular belief.

The players are all enthused about Highland, and most of them think the total will be over 285.

Joe Turnesa, who lost to Bobby Jones at the Seic to course at Columbus, Ohio, in the national open, was a luminary after another puts long and short were sunk by Jones on the practice green, while the fans marveled at his trained putting blade.

All indications point to a great tourney. The best of the professionals and many of the leading amateurs are present.

Nothing seems lacking to make Indianapolis' biggest golf venture a success.

BIG FELLOWS BATTLE

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—Heavyweights will be in action in Madison Square Garden tonight, foremost among them the Swedish champion, Harry Persson, who meets Johnny Risko of Cleveland in a ten-round bout.

Monte Munn of Nebraska will be the other main attraction. He faces Jim Sigmund in a six-round match.

ON TRAIL OF THE TRIBE; NEWS AND GOSSIP

ST. PAUL, Aug. 26.—Owne Bush's Indians were to make their last 1926 appearance at Lexington Park this afternoon in the sixth and final game of the series with the Saints.

The Bushmen won three and lost two previous to today. Friday is an off-day for the Tribesmen and they will spend it traveling to Louisville, where they open a round of three games with the Colonels Saturday.

The Hoosiers kicked Wednesday's fracas away in the ninth and St. Paul won, 8 to 5. Schreiber put the winning run for St. Paul on base with a miscue. McMillan, first up in the final stanza for the locals, was safe on Schreiber's low throw.

Cullop sacrificed and Stuvengen was passed purposely. Henry thereupon lost control and walked Foss, filling the bases and leaving the way open for McMillan to score on a long fly, there being only one out. And Bruno Haas quickly produced the long fly and McMillan scamped home after the catch with the run that brought victory to St. Paul.

The Indians were out-batted, thirteen hits to eight, but they reached first eight times on walks issued by Schupp. The Tribe was minus a punch, however, and missed many opportunities to drive in runs.

Hoffman crashed a home run double and single for the Saints Wednesday to score on a long fly, there being one out. Louisville is in the midst of its second "slide" now.

Milwaukee has been bothered by only one slump this season. Louisville has added badly twice, and Indianapolis three times met with reverses. The Brewers are fattening their percentage to protect them during their final road trip.

The league-leading Brewers made a big gain Wednesday by taking a double-header from Toledo while Louisville and Indianapolis added badly twice, and Indianapolis three times met with reverses. The Brewers are fattening their percentage to protect them during their final road trip.

ENGLISH SOLD TO CHICAGO

Cubs Pay $50,000 and Give Three Players for Toledo Shortstop.

TOLEDO, Ohio, Aug. 26.—Woody English, shortstop for the Toledo Mud Hens, American Association team, has been sold to the Chicago Cubs for $50,000 cash and three players, it was learned here today.

English came to Toledo from Newark, Ohio, as a rookie. His sensational playing has attracted favorable attention this summer, resulting in the present deal, one of the largest of the current baseball season.

English will be delivered to the Cubs before Jan. 1, and President Dick Meade of Toledo will select his three exchange players at the end of the season, it is understood.

English, just turning 20, is "the greatest infielder in the minor leagues," according to Cubs' scouts.

Pinch Hitter Hefey of the St. Louis Cardinals, singled in the eleventh inning Wednesday with the bases loaded, and gave his team a 4-to-3 victory over the Boston Braves. The win put the Cards in the lead in the National League, when Cincinnati and Pittsburgh both lost.
