

PITCHER BOUGHT BY TRIBE

Ferd Schupp, Southpaw, Obtained From Saints—Bushmen Lose Again.

By Eddie Ash
Pitcher Ferd Schupp, southpaw, today was purchased by the Indians from the St. Paul team and the slender veteran probably will hurl one of the games of the double-header in Louisville, Sunday. Manager Bush added, Schupp to the Tribe roster in a final effort to brace the mound corps for another fling at the pennant.

Staff Weakens
The Indian hurling staff was forced to do too much work during the Minneapolis and St. Paul series and weakened under the strain. Even Carmen Hill cracked Thursday and was forced to retire early in the wind-up fray at St. Paul.

Schupp is effective when he has control and the change of clubs may give him more ambition and cause him to "bear down" more. At any rate, Ferdie is expected to be of some service.

Series Divided
The Bushmen knocked off again in St. Paul Thursday in the sixth and final struggle of the series. The score was 7 to 4. The Tribe was outbatted again, and a fat third inning, in which four runs were scored, put the Saints over to a victory. The long series was divided, each team winning three games. The Tribe won three in a row and then weakened and lost the next three.

The Indians were traveling today and the Tribe pastimers had a vacation from the diamond. The Bushmen open a three-game series at Louisville Saturday afternoon. A twin bill will be played in Louisville, Sunday, first fray at 1:30.

Shortstop Schreiber received an injured throwing hand in St. Paul, Thursday and was forced to retire from action. He has hopes of returning to the line-up in Louisville, Saturday.

Three double-headers in the Twin Cities finally exhausted the flinging staff. Eleven games were played, five with the Millers and six with the Saints. The Bushmen won seven and lost four.

The league-leading Brewers lost to the Hens Thursday, and Louisville defeated Minneapolis. The Indians are six and one-half games back of the Brewers and three and one-half behind the Colonels.

Baseball Booster Trip News

Only a limited number of tickets are left for the all-Indianapolis baseball booster excursion to Louisville Sunday, Dayle Stout, general chairman of the event, announced today. The baseball committee of the Elks is sponsoring the trip, but everybody is invited. You don't have to be an Elk to get in on the "jubilation journey."

It is expected that 1,000 fans will make the trip Sunday, leaving here over the Pennsy at 8:30 Sunday morning and leaving Louisville Sunday night at 8:30. The sum of $4 covers round trip and choice ticket to the double-header between Indians and Colonels.

For information and tickets, phone the Elks Club, Lincoln 2351, or visit baseball headquarters at the club, St. Clair and Meridian Sts. Fans are urged to make reservations at once.

Entry List Narrowed Today —64 Low Scorers Play Saturday.

on the tail-end of the Thursday starting list, and who were forced to call their matches at various points between the ninth and eighteenth holes on account of darkness, gathered at the clubhouse at 7 a. m. today and, with their scorers, finished their first eighteen holes.

As darkness came Thursday officials of the Western Association gathered hurriedly and devised this scheme to complete the first round. They also set up the starting time for today from 8:30 to 8 a. m. and hoped to get all of the entry list in with thirty-six holes of qualifying golf by nightfall today.

Three of the country's famed players, Charles Evans, Joe Turnesa, and Al Watrous, victims of the large entry list put out on the eighteenth green Thursday evening when it was impossible for them to see their drives. They were forced to depend on the gallery for guidance.

Of the players that finished Thursday Gene Sarazen, former National Open and Pro champion, was low medalist, with a 69. It might be declared brilliant, because only one score was near it. F. O. Hart, dark horse from Marietta, Ohio, shot a 70.

MacDonald Smith, defending champion, did nothing to attract the attention of the large galleries and had a 76. Walter Hagen, 75, and Joe Turnesa, National Open champion this year, and Chick Evans, famed amateur, had the same score. It was the opinion of the officials of the Western Association that something must be done before next year to take care of the conditions that have grown about the crowning of the western open champ.

As long as it is an open every one must be allowed to enter if their home course handicap is below 5, at this time. Either the handicap will be lowered, or else the entry list will undergo a divisional qualifying weeding, such as is held in various centers for the national open.

It is pointed out that in such a qualifying round in this State half the entries would have been eliminated before the final play started if the qualifying scores were 85.

With scores gracing the board as high as 106, and under the handicap of high winds, and a huge field one of the noteworthy features of the Thursday play was the showing made by the six Nelson brothers, five of whom finished in the seventies. All are Indiana golf club pros. Chester had 76, Wally, 78; Dick, 79; Ervin, 78; Chick, 77, and Lee, 82.

Laurie Aytton, Chicago, F. S. Gallert, Milwaukee, Wis., had 71's for third place, and from there on the totals rose gradually. Harry Cooper and Pittsburgh hit the finish line abreast and a play-off was necessary.

Pirate fans were exultant today over the champions' rout of the faltering Giants in the first game of the series in Pittsburgh. Unless the demoralized New Yorkers rally from their sloppy fielding and batting slump, it looks good for the Pirates. The Cincinnati Reds were equally confident after May out-cast Brooklyn's ace, Dazzy Vance, Thursday for a 3 to 1 victory. The teams met again today at Cincinnati's home grounds.

The St. Louis Cards gritted their teeth and swore vengeance after being tripped by the league-trailing Phils in a game that had plenty of hard luck for the Cards. Despite thirteen hits against Philadelphia's eight, the Quakers took the game, 3 to 2. The Cards also have the advantage of a game at home in seeking to humble the Phils today.

Betting here in New York favored the Cardinals to win out in the long run. They were quoted at even money, with the Pirates, 6 to 5, and the Reds, 8 to 5.

The Yankees are conceded the American League race, and the world series probably will open at the Yankee Stadium about Oct. 2, where the first two games will be played.

Golf tournaments have their fan-ning bees, and the Western Open at Highland Golf and Country Club is running to form in this respect. The big event is quite a social feature and is proving a classic both on the greens and from the gallery standpoint.

The picture shows Mrs. George E. Feeney, mother of Al Feeney, well-known Hoosier sportsman and former star athlete, and her daughters, Virginia and Mrs. Marquette, trying to figure out with Johnny Farrell, a national golf prominent, whether or not he is one of their relatives from Down East. Related or not, Farrell says he is stunned by the hospitality of our Hoosier golf society.

NATIONAL LEAGUE RACE CONTINUES IN DEADLOCK

Pittsburgh on Top Again, With St. Louis and Cincinnati Tied for Second Place.

By United Press
NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—With Pittsburgh back on top in the National League race, and St. Louis and Cincinnati tied for second place, only four percentage points behind, the deadlock in the baseball pennant race showed no indication of breaking today.

In fact, it is being conceded that the situation may result in a fight which may not be decided until the last game of the season. The three leading teams are much more closely bunched at this date than they were in 1925, the tightest pennant fight on record, when New York, Chicago and Pittsburgh hit the finish line abreast and a play-off was necessary.

Pirate fans were exultant today over the champions' rout of the faltering Giants in the first game of the series in Pittsburgh. RISKO LOSES

Swedish Champ Gets Verdict Over Cleveland.

By United Press
NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—On his first ring appearance in America, Harry Persson, heavyweight champion of Sweden, won the decision last night over Johnny Risko of Cleveland in a ten-round bout at Madison Square Garden.

The fight was an active one, Risko finishing the bout in such a manner that a decision in his favor was expected by some.

In the hard hitting battle, Persson consistently hammered Risko, though the Cleveland heavyweight was able to respond with like punches occasionally.

Monte Munn, Nebraska heavyweight, started the first round in earnest and in less than two minutes knocked out his opponent, Jim Sigmund of the Navy.

Butler Trainer

William McGill

Butler athletes will have their physical well-being cared for during the coming college year by a trainer who was playing big league baseball before the youth who will be under his care were born. "Wee Willie" McGill will be Butler University's new trainer. It was announced today by Arthur V. Brown, chairman of the athletic committee.

Brown went on to say the committee felt it was its duty to see that the athletes were taken care of with the utmost attention.

McGill will supervise diet, attend to injuries and generally conduct the boys who are in the various sport activities.

The new trainer has a fine record. He was a major league ball player with the famous Anson Colts of Chicago, the Philadelphia Nationals and other clubs. He was in the American Association at Milwaukee and in 1905 played with Indianapolis.

McGill was battery coach at Chicago University under Stager and worked under George Huff at Illinois. He also was at Northwestern as baseball coach. He has lived in Indianapolis since 1920, being employed by the city recreation department.

At the turn, Mrs. O. S. Hill of Kansas City, Mo., was one up on Mrs. Stewart Hanley of Detroit. Both were out in 42, or one over par.

Miss Dorothy Page of Madison, Wis., and Miss Naomi Hull of Kendallville, Ind., were all square at the turn. They were both out in 43.

By United Press
CHICAGO, Aug. 27.—Miss Naomi Hull, Kendallville, Ind., whose uncanny ability to dig out of traps and bunkers won her a close victory over Miss Marion Turpie, New Orleans, today met Mrs. O. S. Hill, Kansas City, Mo., in the semi-finals of the Women's Western golf tournament.

Mrs. O. S. Hill, Kansas City, Mo., matched strokes with Mrs. Stewart Hanley, Detroit. A four eagle on the nineteenth hole, after a 325-yard drive, gave Mrs. Hill a victory over Miss Margaret Waddles, Hutchinson, Kan. Miss Page advanced into the semi-finals by eliminating Miss Elsie Hilding, Grand Rapids, Mich.

In Thursday's quarter-finals Mrs. Perry Fisher, Detroit, former Western women's champion, was forced to drop out at the eighth hole on account of illness, and her opponent, Mrs. Hanley, was awarded the match by default.
