

ORGANIZATION FOR SPREADING CHEER IS STARTED HERE

Is Branch of National Flower and Fruit Guild—Hoosier Founder.

Honor has been paid Mrs. John Wood Stewart, formerly of Evansville, founder of the National Plant, Flower and Fruit Guild, by establishment of a branch in the Indiana capitol.

The "baby" chapter, organized here by Mrs. George Hill of New York is one of more than four hundred branches.

"Formation of an Indianapolis branch of the 33-year-old sunshine organization is a fitting tribute to its founder, a Hoosier," said Mrs. Hill.

Will Be State-Wide

"Civic interests here are wide awake and the guild will soon be on its feet. Some of the community's leading citizens are pushing the movement."

"Indianapolis has led the way and I expect to form other guilds in Indiana."

Spread of life, love and happiness through distribution of gifts and beautification of homes and public property is the goal of the unique organization.

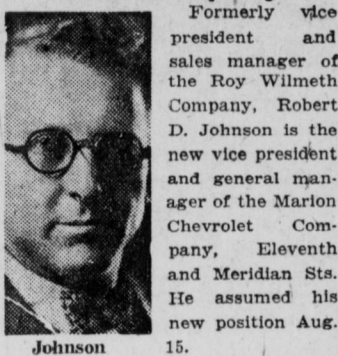

Cheer is brought to thousands by the year-round program for volunteer civic workers.

Sept. 21, a downtown clearing house, central point for distribution of flowers, plants and fruit to the aged, sick and lonely, will be opened by the guild.

Will Select President

Both Tarkington, the author, has been asked to become honorary president, Mrs. Christopher Coleman is executive committee chairman. President of the body will be selected by a committee composed of Mrs. R. H. Sherwood, Mrs. David Ross and Mrs. Joseph Daniels.

Mrs. John W. Moore is recording and Mrs. R. H. Sherwood corresponding secretary, and Evans Woolen, Jr., treasurer.

Eugene C. Foster, Hugh McKay Landon, J. K. Lilly, A. E. Henry, Mrs. John N. Carey, Elmer W. Stout, E. U. Graff and Mrs. S. E. Perkins are vice presidents. Irving Bertermann heads the flower committee and Mrs. Olive Edwards is distribution chairman.

French Tangier Colony Resents Effort of Spain.

By United Press
LONDON, Aug. 27.—Feeling is running high in Tangier between the French and Spanish colonies because of Spain's effort to obtain complete control of the international settlement, according to a dispatch to the Daily Mail.

The local French newspaper published a bitter anti-Spanish editorial and reprisals have been threatened unless the editor of the paper is expelled.

DIVORCE PRICES GO UP

Hotels Refuse to Co-Operate With Enraged Couples.

By Times Special
LONDON, Aug. 26.—The price of divorce in London is going up. Hotels are kicking at being mentioned in divorce cases as the scene of misconduct, which must be proved before anyone can be unhitched from marital harness.

Heretofore hotels have co-operated freely, if not gladly, whenever an outraged husband or wife has sought evidence of a partner's lapse, but in a case before Justice Hill, a lawyer representing a leading chain of hotels said:

"We will not furnish any information unless we are forced to. When people want to be divorced, one of them goes to a respectable hotel with whoever is selected as correspondent, and expects the hotel to furnish evidence of the visit."
