

SHIPSTEAD TELLS FARM AID NEED

Says Neither G. O. P. Nor Democrats Are Helping.

By United Press
WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—Neither the Republican nor the Democratic party is doing much to help the farmer, Senator Henry Shipstead, Minn., Farmer-Laborite—the only man in the Senate who owes no allegiance to either major party—declared here today.

The plight of the farmer in the West has not been exaggerated in information received in the East, Shipstead said during a brief visit to Washington. ("He is in great need of legislative assistance."

"But I don't know where he is going to get it."

"I can't find out what the difference is between the Republican party and the Democratic party on this issue or any other issue or all issues."

INSTITUTE ENDS TODAY

Bryan, Ohio Prexy, Gives Teachers Parting Advice.

"When you return to school say to yourself 'I'll teach a better school than ever, and never let an opportunity slip whereby my life will be enlarged."

This advice was given at the last day session of the Marion County teachers' institute by Dr. Elmer B. Bryan, Ohio University president.

Dr. Gilmore Stott, Franklin, Ind., spoke at the morning session. He likened life to a game of baseball, in which men and women often fail to reach home plate. With a healthy body, team work and advice from the "Great Coach," a man can score in the game of life, Dr. Stott said.

REALTOR MOVES
T. R. Jones, realtor, 501 Union Title Bldg., has moved offices to 1202 City Trust Bldg., Delaware and Market Sts., to obtain larger quarters.

Boyd W. Templeton Says:

(Indiana Trust Co.)

"I had trouble with my kidneys—and a severe case of neuritis. I took no medicine but followed a diet and drank Mountain Valley Water. My health is better now than in many months."

Neuritis, Sciatica Relieved

Severe cases of neuritis, sciatica and rheumatism have been completely relieved by this delightful water from the famous Hot Springs, Arkansas. It quickly transmutes through all body tissues, carrying all impurities with it. Doctors everywhere endorse it. Phone for a case today.

Century Old Melodeon Bans Playing of Jazz

Mrs. Metivier and her century-old melodeon

"How would jazz sound on a century-old melodeon?" was the question asked the owner of one, Mrs. E. R. Metivier, wife of city Patrolman Metivier, 439 N. Garfield Ave.

The melodeon will be used Saturday at the meeting of the McGuffeyites when those who used the McGuffey readers and spellers in their school days will meet at Ellenger Park and enjoy a program of old-time music and readings.

W. D. Wilson, known as "the Statehouse fiddler" will play. The house of Mrs. Frank Holt, directly across the street, will be used if the weather turns rainy. Miss Verle Marie Holt will recite.

Mrs. Metivier, who owns the melodeon is the daughter, wife, and mother of soldiers. She is active in war organizations.

The melodeon first came to her through marriage to her first husband, Joseph Jordan II, a railroader, who was killed in an accident. The instrument has spent its whole life in Indianapolis, having been given to the Jordan family by David Kregel, founder of the undertaking establishment which still bears his name.

It is a very handsome antique of excellent walnut, and will eventually become the property of Joseph Jordan, III, city fireman, who occupies the other half of his mother's house on Garfield Ave.

Patrolman Metivier probably would protect the ancient instrument in his home to the full extent of his public and unofficial power.

But if it is ever stolen he will not look for the robbers among the younger generation of law-breakers. For the instrument will not play jazz according to Mrs. Metivier.
