Meighan to Visit Indiana

Three men, each internationally famous for his respective endeavor, will renew their friendship next week on the golf links at Brook, Ind.

There, at his country estate, George Ade, the humorist, will entertain Thomas Meighan, the motion picture star, and Gene Sarazen, the golf champion.

The visit was made possible by plans for production of Mr. Meighan's next Paramount picture, "The Canadian," exterior scenes of which will be made in the wheat fields of Alberta, Canada. When Mr. Ade was informed of the plans he insisted that Mr. Meighan visit him for a few days.

Their friendship has existed over a period of several years, during which Mr. Ade has written four stories as Meighan vehicles, "Womanproof," "Back Home and Broke," "Our Leading Citizen" and "Old Home Week."

Mr. Meighan will leave this weekend for the Ade estate, and will be followed next week by his company from the Paramount (Long Island) Studio, which he will join in Chicago.

The golfing will be recreation for Mr. Meighan as a part of the vacation he has been enjoying since completion of his latest Paramount picture, "Sin Gods." For Mr. Sarazen, however, it will be training for his participation in the Western open golf tournament in Indianapolis this month.

WOMEN VOTERS' MEETING WILL BE IN LIBRARY

Series of Gatherings, With Speakers From Both Parties, Arranged.

Due to a conflict in engagements, the American Legion Bldg. will not be used for the League of Women Voters meeting Wednesday afternoon at 12:30 and the meeting will be held in Cropsay Auditorium in the Central Library.

That women voters may become acquainted with candidates, a series of meetings have been planned at which both Republican and Democratic aspirants for office will speak during September and October.

"Know Your Candidates" is the slogan.

Following the recent survey, which showed that "indifference" is the cause for non-voting in most cases, the League has planned these meetings.

Mrs. S. E. Perkins, chairman of the meeting will be hostess to members of her committee at a luncheon at 12:30 Wednesday, at her home, 1101 N. Pennsylvania St.

Candidates who have been asked to speak are: Republicans, James M. Leathers, Lynn D. Hay, Maurice Tennant and Bryan Elliott, and Democrats Frank J. Brown, Stephen A. Clinchere, Woodburn Masson, Carl E. Wood and Thomas D. McGee.

A WOMAN'S DAY ABROAD

By Allene Summer

VENICE, Italy—One of the greatest outdoor sports of the woman tourist is to take a post before one of the vast French of Italian cathedrals and watch the members of her own sex ejected from the church, or refused entrance, because of too short a sleeve or too bare a neck, or too short a skirt.

The pastime may not be especially saintly, but few of "us travelers" can resist the fun of watching the utter blank bewilderment of a schoolma'am from Kalamazoo who has ever been a leader of the young and a light in the community, forcibly restrained from entering St. Mark's because the sleeve of her "best taffeta" descends only a fraction of an inch below the elbow, rather than to the wrist.

Remonstrance, threats, entreaties, even that powerful phrase, "American citizen" avail naught.

Uniformed gendarmes, policemen of the church, stand in almost solid phalanxes before St. Mark's, Santa Croce of Florence, Milan Cathedral, and even before the smaller churches, scrutinizing each female who advances. The gendarmes carry weapons of force, huge staffs, to be used if need be.

Sometimes a conference is held as to the eligibility for entrance of a "signorina." There seems no set rule as to so many permissible inches of bared throat or arms. One satisfies the sense of fitness of the particular policeman who scrutinizes one, or one does not.

I have seen women with sleeves below their elbows refused cathedral admission, and the next moment have seen girls with sleeves above the elbow permitted entrance.

Sometimes the vigilant eye is averted as a bare-throated damsel enters. But what a furor when she emerges and they see what has happened!

Some of the smaller churches are more lenient and are ready with a supply of coarse crash toweling, a la dresser scarves, which are doled out.

A Silent Charleston

It was a very noiseless convention that was held in Washington the other day when members of the National Association of the Deaf convened. They all talked on their fingers, and Miss Virginia Dries and Miss Molly Liss showed how a finger-talker says "Charleston." The delegates were sorry Mrs. Coolidge wasn't in town—they wanted to talk to her. She used to teach in a school for the deaf and dumb.

Two-Piece Dress

(Today's Design is 2816)
Perfection of detail is noted in this swaggy sports design, No. 2816. The two-piece skirt attached to a camisole body uses box plait across the front for smartness. Gathers in blouse form a yoke effect and also provide fullness across the bust. The narrow belt defines the waistline, giving the effect of the Page Boy Silhouette. Flat crepe silk, Faille crepe silk, Shantung, rajah and georgette crepe are used for its development. Pattern in sizes 16, 18 years, 36, 38, 40 and 42 inches bust measure. In the 36-inch size, 3 1/2 yards of 40-inch material with one yard of 32-inch material for camisole is required. Our patterns are made by the leading fashion designers of New York City and are guaranteed to fit perfectly.
