No Damage Done but Homeless Are Terrorized.

By United Press
LISBON, Sept. 7.—Renewed earthquakes caused panic among the inhabitants of Horta, in the Azores Islands group, Monday night. There was no damage reported but the homeless refugees who suffered from last week's severe quake in which twelve persons were killed and several hundred injured, were badly frightened. Business still was paralyzed.

BEVERIDGE GIVES COOLIDGE PRAISE

Predicts Re-Election—Rebuke to Indiana G. O. P.

Nomination and re-election of President Coolidge were predicted by Albert J. Beveridge, former United States Senator, Monday night, just before his return to Beverly Farms, Mass., to resume his work on "The Life of Lincoln," interrupted by a return to Indiana for the Indiana State fair. He spoke at the fair Sunday. Beveridge's stand for Coolidge was considered a definite rebuke to the Republican State organization, which is conducting a senatorial campaign independently of the President. Many observers think the campaign is designed to lead to the nomination of Senator James E. Watson for President. "I expect to see the nomination of President Coolidge by acclamation and his overwhelming re-election as President for another term, if he can be induced to run again," Beveridge said. Coolidge fits the transition period of today in an unusual degree.

MR. FIXIT

Safety Zone on Central Ave. Is Sought

Let Mr. Fixit present your case to city officials. He is the Times representative at the city hall. Write him at The Times.

Crowded conditions at Twenty-Eighth St. and Central Ave. make a safety zone a necessity, Mr. Fixit was advised by a correspondent today.

DEAR MR. FIXIT: In order that life may be protected, why can't we people have a safety zone established at Twenty-Eighth St. and Central Ave.?

This is not an expensive outlay and its necessity is apparent to anyone any evening at this point, a regular car stop. A large picture show here causes a solid line of automobiles to be parked on both sides of the street, leaving about two feet for passengers to stand and wait for street cars, which brush by them before they can board the rear end. A SUBSCRIBER.

An immediate investigation will be made by the police department accident prevention bureau.

DEAR MR. FIXIT: I appeal to you for aid in getting some repairs done on Dawson St. between Woodlawn Ave. and Prospect St. This is not a paved street, but is in very good condition, with the exception of two or three bad holes which can be made good with a little gravel. We have requested the street repair department to make the necessary repairs, but as yet nothing has been done.

TIMES READER.

Repairs will be made at the earliest possible moment, streets department advised Mr. Fixit.

HAS DRESS OF RICE

LONDON.—Mellon seeds have already been used as dress and hat trimmings, and now has arrived a frock made entirely of rice grains. Thousands of grains, dyed brilliant colors and strung together to form a fringe, make the unusual frock which Miss Eva Moore, actress, wears.

'Gentle as a Lamb'

She likes lambs, so Miss Barbara Barnett, 12, of 4251 N. Capitol Ave., went to the fair to see her favorite pet. The camera man caught her talking to a 1-year-old imported Canadian ram entered by J. McHaffie of Clay ton, Ind.

BOY DROWNS IN FACTORY POOL

Had Been Swimming With Another Lad.

Gilbert Bailey, 12, of 1425 N. Colorado Ave., was drowned Monday afternoon in a five-foot pool at the Marietta Glass Works, 3800 E. Sixteenth St., while swimming in the pool, part of the plant's fire protection system.

William Hill, 1520 N. Garfield Ave., and H. F. Stamper of Ben Davis, Ind., recovered the body, which was taken at once to the home upon request of the boy's mother, Mrs. Goldie Bailey.

Drowning was reported by Harold Newsom, 10, of 1549 N. Garfield Ave., who had been swimming with the Bailey boy. He said that he left the pool and the Bailey boy said he would join him. Walking home slowly he became frightened when the other boy did not appear, returned and found only the clothes on the bank. Plant officials said they did not know the boys were using the pool.

GREGGORIZERS ARE BACK

This is the first of a series of programs by these popular artists which will be broadcast each Tuesday evening at this hour from the local station.

FAST ENGINEER RETIRES

English Trainman Claims World Speed Record.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—England's claimant to the world's railway speed record is shortly to retire, after forty-eight years' service with the Great Western Railway. He is George Henry Flewelling of Swindon.

He set what he claims is a world record in May, 1904, when the engine he was driving attained a speed of 102.2 miles an hour between Plymouth and London.

"Despite American claims that they have driven faster than the over there," said Flewelling, "I am confident that my record has never since been reached, much less beaten anywhere in the world. Americans claimed higher speeds, but when it came to a test they could never get anywhere near my record."

Flewelling is retiring under the age limit of 65, but in spite of his years he is remarkably fit and energetic.

COLLECTORS GET STUNG

English Butterflies Grow Stingier for Protection.

By Times Special
COMPTON PAUNCEFOOT, England, Sept.—Mother Nature and Uncle Evolution have come to the aid of local butterflies, pursued by hordes of collectors from all parts of the world who flock here after several rare and many ordinary varieties that make their homes about here.

The butterflies are developing battling proclivities, and apparently are growing either teeth or stingers, for they have attacked several collectors, all of whom show red lumps as proof of their claims that they have been stung.

TRY TO CAP VOLCANO

MANAGUA, Nicaragua.—German engineers are engaged in the unique task of trying to put a cap on a volcano, Masaya, which is near the town of that name. They seek to close the crater so that its poisonous gases will not escape and damage the crops.

CHARLES H. CLARKE DEAD

Well Known Journalist Dies at Age of 79.

By United Press
HARTFORD, Conn., Sept. 6.—Charles Hopkins Clarke, editor of the Hartford Courant and nationally known journalist, died at his home here last night in his 76th year after an illness of several months. A cerebral hemorrhage was the immediate cause of death but he had been seriously ill for some weeks following a general breakdown of his nervous system due to advancing years. His family was at the bedside when the end came. Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

Clarke was a graduate of Yale University and a member of the Yale Corporation.

MAIL DELAYS CHECK

NEW YORK.—A rubber company has just received a letter mailed eighteen years ago containing a check for $25.20 in payment for two inner tubes.

The letter was caught in the mail chute of the Mills building and remained there until wreckers discovered it. The same tubes today would cost not more than $10.

HOP FLAVORED OR PLAIN—IT'S WONDERFUL STUFF

Energy to sustain the man power of industry, comfort for the end of each rigorous day—both are provided by Buckeye. They are the ties that, throughout the whole country, bind millions to Buckeye.

Strength springs from its purity; fascinating flavor is found in its formula. Tests have proved that the 2½ pound can of Buckeye is much to be preferred to 3 pounds of ordinary malt.

Leadership came to Buckeye as the natural tribute to Buckeye quality—and Buckeye is the nation's largest selling brand.

Buckeye is used in making malt tonics, malt lemonade, malt limeade, malt chocolate cream and malted milk.
