

INDIANA FARMERS FILL FAIRGROUND

the outdoor vaudeville and fireworks exhibition will be presented in front of the grand stand.

All of the State's dignitaries will be present Thursday, which has been set aside as Governor's and Legislators' day. Governor Jackson and members of the General Assembly will be special guests. At noon they will be entertained at a luncheon given by the girls' home economics school.

President Edward C. Elliott of Purdue University will speak at the reunion of Purdue alumni Thursday afternoon in the Purdue building. Dean J. H. Skinner and Director G. I. Christie will assist in the program. Several hundred agricultural graduates are expected to attend.

City Horses Win

Since opening of the fair last Saturday, 330 persons have received treatment at the Red Cross tent, according to Dr. Herbert T. Wagner, physician in charge. All but ten were children.

Indianapolis mounts continued to carry off a generous portion of the awards at the night horse show. Dinah Madge, an Indianapolis pony owned by Mrs. Robert E. Trimble, won first in the best pony in harness event and Comedy, also owned by Mrs. Trimble, won third. Other Indianapolis horses winning one or more prizes were Blanchette Flower, owned by William F. Nelson & Son; Cooperhead, owned by Laura Hare; Seaton Secret, owned by Mrs. Trimble; Chestnut Twigg, owned by Howard J. Lacy; Bob's King, owned by Lynn Legsdon; Merle Dars, owned by J. P. Day; Indody, and Dinah Madge, and Comedy, owned by Mrs. Trimble.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

AT THE DRUG STORE

MRS. RHODES: "Good Morning, Mrs. Greene. I've just bought a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I always keep it in the house."

MRS. GREENE: "So do I. And that reminds me that I should buy one too."

WHEN Minnie Reinking was a schoolgirl she read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the papers and wanted to try it.

"I did work around the neighborhood," she writes, "and earned a dollar in this way and bought one bottle and tried it. This one bottle did me so much good that I made my mother buy another and she also started to take it for her troubles and it had done her much good. I have now taken it for eight years and always have a bottle on hand. I recommend it and am willing to answer questions about it."

MISS MINNIE REINKING,
R. R. No. 1, Box 114,
Robbinsdale, Minn.

THE women who worked in the factory with Mrs. Matilda Hoksom knew that she was not feeling well. Her back ached and she was weak and discouraged.

"One of them got to praising Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and telling all it had done for her," she writes. "I went out at noon time and got a bottle and am taking it steadily. I am on my fifth bottle and these two months I have been fine. I have a nine-room house to look after so I have to be in trim to do it all."
