

BLAINE WINNER IN WISCONSIN

give the progressives two votes from Wisconsin in the Senate instead of having their one vote balanced by Lenroot.

In the gubernatorial race Fred R. Zimmerman, secretary of State, continued to gain over Herman L. Erkern, attorney-general. Zimmerman is a progressive but challenges the right of Governor Blaine to lead the State's progressives. Blaine sponsored Erkern's candidacy.

Results from 1,768 precincts in the Republican gubernatorial primaries gave:

Zimmerman, 139,171.

Erkern, 111,128.

The Republican nomination in Wisconsin is tantamount to election and there were no Democratic contestants for Senate or Governor.

MOSES RENOMINATED

Bass Concedes Victory to New Hampshire Senator.

Bu United Press CONCORD, N. H., Sept. 8.— Senator George H. Moses was renominated in Tuesday's Republican senatorial primary by a plurality of about 17,000, returns from 261 towns and wards out of a total of 394 indicated today. Former Governor Robert P. Bass early today conceded the nomination of Senator Moses, whom he had opposed in the primary.

Governor John H. Winant appeared to have lost his primary fight for renomination to Huntley N. Spaulding, chairman of the State board of education. The Republican gubernatorial vote stood: Spaulding, 17,055; Winant, 23,683.

Eaton D. Sargent of Nashua was given the Democratic gubernatorial nomination without a contest. Robert C. Murchie of Concord appeared to have been renominated for United States Senator by the Democrats over Albert W. Noone of Peterborough. Only a few hundred votes were cast in the contest.

GOVERNOR HUNT AGAIN

Holds Two to One Lead in Renomination Race.

Bu United Press PHOENIX, Ariz., Sept. 8.—Governor Hunt, seeking re-election to a sixth term, was renominated by Arizona Democrats in Tuesday's primary returns indicated today.

W. S. Clark, an attorney, was leading. Thomas Maddock, an engineer, by 550 votes for the Re-

In a Big Hurry to Defy Death

Findley Henderson, Clayton, Ind., stunt aviator, was too anxious to get to Broad Ripple Park Monday to stage the airplane crash in which he risked his life, police charged today.

Henderson was fined $25 and costs on a speeding charge by Municipal Judge Paul C. Wetter when an officer testified Henderson turned a corner on his way to the park at fifty-eight miles an hour.

The stunt in which Henderson escaped unscathed consisted in flying between two poles knocking the wings from his plane and crashing into a house.

ROAD OFFICIAL KILLED

Bu United Press MICHIGAN CITY, Ind., Sept. 8.— Senator Tasker L. Oddie, world court supporter and administration man, had a commanding lead early today over Mayor E. E. Roberts of Reno in the Republican senatorial primary.

Incomplete returns from all of the State's seventeen counties gave Oddie 5,240 votes and Roberts 2,225.

Raymond T. Baker, former director of the mint, led Pat McCarran, his nearest opponent, 2,908 to 1,673, for the Democratic senatorial nomination.

Georgia VOTES TODAY

Four-Cornered

Race for Democratic Gubernatorial Nomination.

Bu United Press ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 8.—Clear weather and a vigorous campaign, especially in the four-cornered gubernatorial nomination race, was expected to bring out a large vote in the State Democratic primary today.

The World Court issue between the senatorial aspirants was over shadowed by the contest among John Hodder of Jefferson, chairman of the State highway commission; George Carswell of Irwinton, J. O. Wood of Atlanta and Dr. L. G. Hardman of Commerce for the governorship nomination.

Senator Walter F. George, World Court adherent, was favored to defeat Justice Richard Russell of the State Supreme Court for the senatorial nomination. Russell declares the court is "an iniquitous institution."

LOVE PLOT CASE HEARD

Gary Man on Trial on First-Degree Murder Charge.

Bu United Press CROWN POINT, Ind., Sept. 8.—Trial of William Donaldson, charged with first-degree murder in love-slaving plot, was scheduled to start here today.

Donaldson, accused of murdering Joe Mullins, steel mill worker, when Mrs. Mullins, with whom he admitted being intimate, led her husband into an ambush in a Gary park.

Model Butler Fired, Kills Two Women

Bu United Press HEREFORD, England, Sept. 8.—Charles Houghton was a model butler for fifteen years, serving two wealthy and elderly spinsters, Ellinor and May Woodhouse, at Burghill Court. The sisters informed Houghton that he was to be dismissed. The butler served breakfast as usual, pleaded for reinstatement and finally shot and killed both women. He was charged with murder.

394 AT INDIANA CENTRAL

With a total of 394 students enrolled on the first day of school, Tuesday, Indiana Central College today held its first convocation of the year. Dr. W. R. Patterson of Coe University, Cedar Rapids, Iowa, spoke. More students registered today.

WINS FOR THIRD TIME

Harmsworth Speedboat Trophy Stays With Gar Wood, Detroit.

DETROIT, Sept. 8.—The Harmsworth international speedboat trophy remains in the possession of Gar Wood of Detroit, who late Tuesday won it for the third time when the French challenger, Excelsior France, withdrew after the first lap of the first thirty miles, because of motor trouble.

Aside from the challenger, the only boats entered in the race were the three Wood boats, Miss America V, Miss America IV and Miss America III, piloted by Gar Wood, George Wood and Phil Wood, respectively, and all averaging approximately sixty miles per hour. The Excelsior France, owned by Henri Edders and piloted by T. A. Clarke, averaged forty-one miles per hour on its one lap.
