

130,000 SEATS AT STADIUM

Rickard Submits Plans for Handling of Crowd at Dempsey Fight.

By United Press
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 8.—Plans for the accommodation of 130,000 spectators for the Dempsey-Tunney championship battle here Sept. 23 have been officially submitted to Police Director Elliott, by Tex Rickard.

The seating plan of the Sesqui-centennial Stadium, as submitted by the promoter, calls for placing of approximately 50,000 seats in the stadium field, about 15,000 of which will be on the ground level with the balance to the rear slightly elevated.

Rickard, who called upon the police head in company with Frank Weiner, chairman of the Pennsylvania State Boxing Commission, declared that, although the crowd for the fight would largely exceed that at the Dempsey-Carpenter battle, the gate receipts would be smaller.

"At the Jersey City fight," Rickard said, "ringside tickets sold as high as $50, whereas at the coming battle the top price is $27.50. I do not think the gate here will exceed $1,500,000. The gate at the Jersey City fight was $1,628,000.

Arrangements for the preliminaries are now occupying Rickard's attention. Pairings of the boxers is now under consideration, and though no decisions have definitely been made, it was believed that Harry Persson, Swedish champ, is practically certain of a place on the card. Others believed possibilities are Knute Hansen, Danish heavyweight, and Monte Munn of Nebraska.

MAY GO FISHING
By United Press
ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Sept. 8.—Unless Jack Dempsey decides that he is fairly aching for ring combat, the heavyweight champion of the world was to continue his vacation from active training today, and perhaps take the fishing trip which was foreseen Tuesday because of the weather.

He bought a quantity of fishing tackle and Tuesday night expressed the wish to catch something else besides an occasional blow from a sparring partner.

TUNNEY RESTS
By United Press
STROUDSBURG, Pa., Sept. 8.—Out in the woods, in a quiet cottage far from the stars of the fight fans, Gene Tunney slept late today, with nothing to look forward to but a good long day of rest.

Thursday he will be back in the ring again, and perhaps his sore lip which has troubled the challenger considerably, will be healed enough to withstand his sparring partner's blows.

Tunney is now giving much time to developing his right. He was criticised Tuesday for "telegraphing" his blows. Tunney's aides know of that tendency, and are ceaselessly working to overcome it.

TOSS-UP IN DIXIE FOOTBALL

Coach McGugin Sees Hectic Grid Race Among Strong Southern Teams.

By United Press
NASHVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 8.—Dan McGugin, the "grand old man" of Southern Conference football, who has guided the Vanderbilt Commodores for twenty-two years, predicts the coming season will be one of the hardest to "dope" of any since he first donned a uniform.

"Alabama, Georgia Tech, Georgia and Vanderbilt all have excellent prospects for fine teams this year, and since all may play the other, it looks too risky to predict anything other than a great season," the Commodore chief told the United Press.

"Our prospects at Vanderbilt are particularly good, but I'm not overly confident, since I realize the task of moulding so much new material into a machine offers a tremendous problem.

"Then, too, Alabama must be met so early in the season that there's a chance that both teams may be set back considerably by being forced to reach fine condition so early in the campaign.

"We face a tough schedule with Alabama, Texas, Georgia, Tennessee, Georgia Tech and Sewanee, Tennessee had a fine team last year and will be one of our most dangerous foes this year. Sewanee always is a real foe. The others are all strong machines and only a great football team will be able to keep a clean record this year."

Coach McGugin came to Vanderbilt in the fall of 1904 from Michigan, where he had served under Fielding H. Yost, and had made a name as one of the greatest guards of the times. Outside of being the dean and ranking with the greatest of all southern coaches, the Vanderbilt mentor is one of the South's most noted athletes.
