

ADULT SCHOOL IS DISCUSSED AT LUNCHEON

Preventive Measure, Say Speakers Favoring Opportunity Proposal.

The Opportunity School, proposed for the public school system of Indianapolis to give training to older men and women, who have missed their chance in life, was outlined Wednesday at a public luncheon at the new Chamber of Commerce Bldg., as a preventive measure. Crime and unemployment can be warded off by practical education, said the speakers in favor of the school.

"The boy or girl over sixteen, who has failed to take advantage of his compulsory school education and later realized his great need here may receive the instruction and individual attention which will perhaps mean the difference between a life of crime and uselessness and one of intelligent citizenship and a useful career," said Mrs. Frank J. Lahr in her address.

"The establishment of an Opportunity School such as the one in Denver means to any city that wishes wholesome growth a saving in the tremendous loss of misplaced human energy which now takes place. The old, the hopeless and discouraged will here find a way to make a living."

To Aid Untrained
"Some career for which he has a special inclination will be opened to the untrained and uneducated adult who desires to be equipped for this work."

Superintendent of Schools E. U. Graff said there must be a revision of the law or an amendment before public school money can be used for an adult school. The cost of financing the school must be considered in proportion to the possible number of persons who would attend," he said.

Operation of the successful opportunity school in Denver was discussed by Miss Kate Mason, principal of School No. 9, who was sent to study the school. She said that the opportunity school has a large attendance and the full cooperation of the people of Denver.

Miss Emily Griffith, principal of the Denver school, will be in Indianapolis Sept. 22. The public is invited to attend a dinner at which she will speak.

Cheaper to Educate
"It is cheaper to educate our citizens so that they are able to help themselves than to offer charity, or later, in some cases, to imprison them as offenders," said Mrs. Lahr.

"By such a school, modeled on the one at Denver and adapted to our needs, the untrained and misfit may be reborn to usefulness."

Mrs. Lahr is chairman of the home and education department of the women's department club, sponsoring the school. Other supporters who spoke favorably Wednesday were Judge James A. Collins, Judge Frank J. Lahr, Miss Marie Chomel, Mrs. F. L. McWhirter, Mrs. E. J. Robinson, Mrs. O. C. Lukenbill, president of the Indianapolis Council of Women; Mrs. David Ross, chairman of the Seventh District Federation of Clubs, and Mrs. H. K. Fout, chairman-elect; Mrs. William G. Clark; the Rev. E. H. Kistler, president of the Indianapolis Ministerial Association; Summer A. Clancy and R. Webb Sparrow.

Covers were laid for 175. All organizations, clubs and lodges for men and women were urged to co-operate in investigating the possibilities of the school and to attend the luncheon Sept. 22.

YOU CAN'T BE DECENT AND BE A LOVE-THIEF

It is hard not to notice that a man or woman is good-looking simply because that man or woman belongs to somebody else.

But the only decent thing to do is to act as though all those whom you meet and who are dear to someone else were infected with poison ivy.

Let us try to keep away from them, never to let them know that we see them as attractive, or that we have any attraction ourselves. We do not know the harm we do unless we can thus train ourselves to ignore the sweethearts and friends of others. To break up a home is bad, but to interfere in a budding love affair is almost as bad.

"You know he (or she) belongs to somebody else, so why don't you leave him alone," is a good rule for the love-thief to try to follow.

Dear Miss Lee: I am 18 years of age and am considered good-looking. I have a fellow who likes him very much, but do not love him. My girl friend is jealous of me when her fellow comes to see her. She says I am trying to take him away from her, but when I tell her I am only a friend, she says I am trying to hurt her. Tell me what I should do.

Do not give your girl friend any opportunity to think you are trying to gain the affection of her friend, and I believe she likewise will consider your feelings. You can still be kindly courteous to him, but do not overstep the law of good manners by being over friendly.

THE point to remember when buying breakfast oats is that only Quaker Oats have the rich Quaker flavor that you want.

One package of oats without that flavor may spoil your breakfasts for a week.

The price you pay is the same. Thus "trying" a substitute is a folly. Quaker flavor is the result of some 50 years milling experience. No other oats has it. Quaker milling, too, retains much of the "bulk" of oats. And that makes laxatives less often needed.

Get Quick Quaker, which cooks in 3 to 5 minutes, or regular Quaker Oats as you have always known.

Your grocer has both kinds.

Quick Quaker TWO WOMEN FOUND HELP

By Reading Experiences of Other Women

Mrs. Nina Matteson, Box 206, Oxford, N. Y., writes:—"If it had not been for the Quaker Oats, I could not have done my work as I should have been done. Mother told me of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I had read in different papers 'what it had done for different women.'"

She wanted me to try it, so my husband got me one bottle at first; then I took two others. Now I am feeling quite strong again."

Mrs. Ernest Tanguay of Adams, Mass., says she was ill for four years and could not sleep nights or go out on the street. She read about the Vegetable Compound and decided to try it. After taking eight bottles she was able to do all her work and go anywhere and is quite herself again.

This Dependable Vegetable Compound is a household word in thousands of homes. The fourth generation is now learning the merit of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. If this medicine has helped other women, why shouldn't it help you? At your druggist's.

Dr. R. Newman, a licensed practicing physician, of 286 Fifth Avenue, New York, announces that he has perfected a treatment which has quickly rid fat people of excess weight. What is more remarkable is the Doctor's statement that he has successfully treated thousands of patients for fat reduction without unnecessary change of diet or burdensome exercise. He also says that fat people who suffer from chronic rheumatism, gout, asthma and high blood pressure obtain great relief from the reduction of their superfluous flesh. Realizing that this sounds almost too good to be true, the Doctor has offered to send without charge, to any one who will write him, a free trial treatment to prove his claims, as well as his "Pay-when-reduced" plan. If you want to rid yourself of superfluous fat, write him today, addressing Dr. R. Newman, 286 Fifth Avenue, New York City, Dept. R.—Advertisement.

Her Own Way. A Story of a Girl of Today

JUDY SPEAKS OUT

I was furiously angry.

"In the first place, I cannot understand what you mean by 'encouragement of your poor friend.' I am only treating him as I would treat any other man who is interesting and apparently interested in me. I deny absolutely that there is any reason for treating Mr. Meredith any differently."

"It does not necessarily follow that he has intentions which are serious, or that I have designs. I think your intimations are insulting."

"Mr. Meredith, Miss-Dean, is a very wealthy man."

"I cannot understand where that concerns me," I answered quickly. "Perhaps, however, it concerns you more. You seem to be afraid that something will interfere with your expedition into the wilds of Africa."

"As far as I am concerned, you need have no fear as I think this expedition would be a great help in bringing John Meredith into his own, especially if accompanied by the right companions."

Care of Teeth.

A message to mothers was given at the Ladies' Lions Club of Indianapolis noon luncheon Wednesday at the Severin when Dr. Kyle B. Mayhill spoke on "Moral Hygiene and the Care of Teeth," with particular attention to the care of children's teeth.
