

FLASHLIGHT MAY SOLVE HALL CASE

Churchman Admits He Recognized One.

By United Press
SOMERVILLE, N. J., Sept. 11.—A flashlight, turned on the scene of the Hall-Mills murder under a crab-apple tree on the Phillips farm near New Brunswick, was believed to be the key to the solution of the four-year-old mystery.

Ralph V. Gorsline, vestryman in the church of the Rev. Edward W. Hall, who was found murdered with Mrs. Eleanor Mills, choir singer, was reported to have admitted that he recognized at least one of the participants in the murder when he turned on his flashlight after hearing shots and screams in De Russsey's lane.

Gorsline, after denying for four years that he was anywhere near the scene of the murder, weakened under a twenty-four-hour "third degree" Friday and admitted he was in his automobile in De Russsey's lane that night with Miss Catherine Rastall, choir singer in the church.

INDIANAPOLIS HAS ITS DAY AT FAIR

position. Some of the most skillful and daring Negro speed pilots in the country were to compete in the afternoon events, scheduled to begin at 1 p. m. on the one-mile track. A band concert was to precede the races. Although the judging of livestock has been completed, practically all animal exhibits, as well as the displays of farm machinery and agricultural products were continued today.

The fair was to end this evening with a display of fireworks, featuring "The Birth of America," and vaudeville in front of the grand stand. All told, the Saturday events were as interesting to the average fair visitor as those on preceding days, there being no end to the attractions.

Records Shattered

With Friday's attendance reaching the gratifying total of 31,030 paid admissions, fair officials announced that all previous attendance records had been shattered. Up to this morning the turnstile registers had clicked off a total of 213,442 paid admissions. With today's attendance in, the total should be raised to something above 255,000. Fair officials had set 250,000 paid admissions as the goal, but will be satisfied with the smaller total, considering the decidedly unpleasant weather on two days.

More than $135,000 in awards have been distributed this year, $40,000 to winners in the Grand Circuit racing events.

Indianapolis society turned out in a body Friday night at the Horse Show in the Coliseum, which marked the close of a wide range of activities on Indianapolis day. The huge Coliseum was completely filled.
