

SOCIAL Activities
ENTERTAINMENTS
WEDDINGS
BETROTHALS

International Study and Travel Club opened its season with a breakfast and patriotic meeting today, in the Travertine room of the Lincoln. Decorations consisted of flags of nations with the American flag the center of attraction. Tables held bouquets of club colors, blue and gold. Mrs. J. R. Petersen presided and Mrs. T. B. Wright installed the new Alpine chapter, composed of young business girls. Mrs. Vincent B. Binager had charge of the program.

Mrs. David Ross, president of the National Photo Illustrators, gave greetings. Mrs. Harriet Gump Roberson gave a short talk on "International." Mrs. Grace Linn Sandy and Mrs. M. D. Didway played a piano duet, entitled "Songs of the Nations," which was concluded by the singing of the "Star Spangled Banner," by Mrs. William R. Sieber and Mrs. William Engle. Miss Catherine Allen, of the Washington Chapter, in colonial costume, sang "Carry Me Back to Old Virginny," accompanied by Mrs. Sandy.

Gives Readings

Miss Hazel Pester, dramatic reader, gave a reading entitled "A National Tribute to Our Flag." Mrs. Samuel R. Artman, lecturer, gave a talk on "The United States Flag in Panama." Mrs. W. O. Bates, president of the Theater Guild, gave a talk and Mrs. Pearl Gruelle, organist, played "Loves' Old Sweet Song" and the "Prayer" by Wagner. Greetings were given by Mrs. Bert L. Goddard and Mrs. O. C. Lukinbill. Out-of-town guests were Miss Violet Smith, Fresno, Cal.; Miss Marie Clincher, Little Rock, Ark., who is a dramatic teacher and dancer on her way to Hollywood, Cal., where she will teach this winter; Miss Ella Kohl, Elkhart; Mrs. Nettie Skiff, Munice; Mrs. Eva Lane, Lebanon; Mrs. Bert Smith, Zionsville; Miss Amelia Huffman, Ft. Wayne; Mrs. Glen Marcklin, Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Caroline Overman, Bakersfield, Cal., and Mrs. Roy L. Banks, New Haven, Conn.

Mrs. Dan Braoun, Jr., assisted by Mrs. R. E. Knowton, Mrs. E. W. Cowley and Mrs. J. K. Craig, had charge of arrangements. Covers were laid for 250 guests.

Miss Helen McLandress, 2007 Park Ave., will leave Friday for Chicago, where she will take up studies in the Art Institute.

Mrs. William Wertz, a recent bride, was guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower Tuesday evening, given by Mrs. R. E. MacBeth and Mrs. Charles Greenwood at the Greenwood home.

The home was prettily decorated with bridal colors of pink and orchid and the gifts were concealed in a large pink and orchid box on the dining room table under a canopy of the bridal color shower.

Guests, including Mrs. Wertz, were the Medanges Charles Clark, Edna Sharp, Herman Gladish, Ray Hanger, George Lance, Charles Swift, Franklin; R. G. Sullivan, Harry Lee Beau, Edward Frank and Perry Misner, and the Misses Mayme Calph, Oma Kathryn Gladish, Anna and Gertrude Linderman and Mary Elizabeth Sharp.

Women Voters Meet

Mrs. Isaac Born was chairman of the meeting of the Indianapolis League of Women Voters this afternoon in the American Legion Bldg. Three minute speeches were given by the legislative candidates who were guests. A board session preceded the meeting and plans for the year's program were made.

Mrs. Richard Coleman, chairman of the hostess committee, and Mrs. Frank D. Hatfield, president of the league, announced the following hostess chairmen for the year: Oct. 14, Mrs. Downing Johnson and Miss Georgia Alexander; Nov. 11, Mrs. Wolf Sussman and Mrs. David Ross; Dec. 9, Mrs. W. O. Bates and Mrs. Mary Knippenberg; Jan. 13, Mrs. Robert Elliott and Mrs. Charles Phafflin; Feb. 10, Mrs. George Flinck and Mrs. Ray Retif; March 10, Mrs. George Van Dyke and Miss Martha Beeson; April 14, Mrs. G. D. Beazel and Mrs. W. A. Eshbahn.

The Home Economics Club met this afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. Thompson, 2137 Linwood Ave., in celebration of President's Day. Mrs. Herman Roge was chairman of the buffet luncheon.

The home was decorated with

Bride at Home After Trip

Mrs. M. Katter

Before her recent marriage, Mrs. M. Katter was Miss Selma M. Farage, 2002 Columbia Ave. After a trip to Chicago and other western points, Mr. and Mrs. Katter are at home at 1341 Parker Ave.

Her Own Way
A STORY OF
A GIRL of TODAY

Joan's Request

"My dear, you did not take my advice, in fact, I gave you none when I first met you. You will remember that you were at a place where you had to let someone into your secret. It was a time for action, not words. Consequently, I didn't tell you what to do, I just turned in and helped you out of your scrape."

"And what a wonderful friend you are, Judy! And to think that I should have picked you out from behind the handkerchief counter in my step-father's store! I don't know why I did it. I am sure I never would have told my story to one of the girls that I know only in my own set. But speaking about getting me out of my scrape, I am afraid I am not yet out. However, I am not going to talk about that. I want to talk to you a little about your own affairs."

"But my dear Joan, I have no affairs. I am just living alone from day to day trying to help everybody who really needs my help. Just at present you seem to be the one—you with your brother John."

"That's it, Judy, that's it. I need not tell you that my brother John is on the verge of falling in love with you and I also need not tell one who never lies to herself that you are not quite sure whether you want him to do so or not."

"I am going to ask you, Judy, to please make up your mind immediately if you think by any possibility you could be interested in John."

"But I am interested, I think he is most charming."

"Don't put me off that way, you know what I mean. I mean do you think that you could marry him? Forgive me, dear, but if you could not I am going to ask you to go away from here until after he has gone on that African expedition."

Again I tried to speak, but Joan said quietly, "Please, please Judy, let me finish. I know that as yet you have done nothing to encourage my brother except what has been dictated in your kind heart. The moment you saw him you saw he was unhappy; that we who loved him did not really understand him and instinctively, as you always do, you immediately gained not only his interest, but his confidence."

(Copyright, 1926, N.E.A. Service, Inc.)

AMICK FUNERAL FRIDAY

Services Will Be Held at Ingalls Christian Church.

Miss Lottie M. Amick, 24, of 1535 Bellefontaine St., who died Tuesday after a short illness, will be buried Friday afternoon at Ingalls Christian Church. Miss Amick was the daughter of Mrs. Mary E. Amick.

She was born in Indianapolis and attended public school here, two sisters, Mrs. Eva Johnson and Mrs. Ruth Nicholson, and two brothers, Benjamin and Owen Amick, all of Indianapolis.

RARE TREAT FROM WFBM

Madame Claire Henry and Teacher in Group of Songs.

Miss Lyon expects to open a branch school here, with Madame Henry in charge.

L. G. (Alice) Gordner will play the accompaniment for tonight's program, which will be as follows:

"Steal Away" (Negro spiritual) arranged by Charles Fonteyn Manney.

"Alto Solo and Duet" "Entr'acte Me Not" "Save and 'Thee," iron Captain Gau.

"Ruthie" "Piano Solo" "Lullaby" "Hayden Wood" "Madame Claire Henry."

"Carry Me Back to Old Virginny," arranged for solo and piano.

"Guitar Solo" and "Sweet Dreams" "Husher" "Aria" from La Gioconda, voice and piano. Miss Elsa Lyon.

"Aria" from La Gioconda, voice and piano. Miss Elsa Lyon.

Difficult Role

Matthew, the publican apostle of the Christ, is to be portrayed by Robert Edeson in "The King of Kings," Cecil B. De Mille's biblical production.

This characterization is said to be one of the most difficult in the story for Matthew Levi, a tax collector under Herod, was universally hated by the people of Judea for the usury he practiced before his conversion yet he was possessed of noble ideals and principles.

Other members of the cast for "The King of Kings" include H. B. Warner, Jacqueline Logan, Joseph and Rudolph Schildkraut, Victor Varconi and Ernest Torrence. Jeanne Macpherson prepared the screen play.

KOTEX

No laundry—discard like tissue

Science for this new hygienic pad that discards easily as tissue—no laundry

P. T. A. FEDERATION PRESIDENT'S DAY

Program for Year Is Discussed at Luncheon at C. of C.—

Board Members, Guests Attend.

Indianapolis Federation of Parent Teachers' Association, observed President's Day with a luncheon at the Chamber of Commerce today. Mrs. Charles H. Smith, president, presided. Following the luncheon, the program of work for the year was discussed.

Officers of the executive board, present, besides Mrs. Smith, were Mrs. James H. Dunne, first vice president; Mrs. Robert Walden, second vice president; Mrs. N. C. Tracey, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Robert Kendall, corresponding secretary.

Board members were Miss Olive Selby, Miss Olive K. Funk, Mrs. Murray Dalman, Mrs. William H. Hick, Mrs. L. G. Hughes, Mrs. A. C. Raffensberger, Mrs. Roger N. Williams, Mrs. Ernest Hesser, Mrs. Samuel M. Myers and Mrs. C. F. Helm.

Reservations were also made for Mesdames N. A. Noonan, G. V. Underwood, W. Muller, R. E. Reinhardt, C. P. Driggs, C. Welch, T. Davee, S. T. Lee, F. Hamp, E. L. J. B. Irwin.

Times Pattern Service

PATTERN ORDER BLANK

Pattern Department,
Indianapolis Times,
Indianapolis, Ind.
Inclosed find 15 cents from which send pattern No 2837
Size
Name
Address
City

SUITABLE FOR BORDERED FABRICS

Design No. 2837.

A frock of crepe silk in straight-line styling with pressed plaits at sides that is especially designed for bordered fabrics. Style No. 2837 features a boyish collar and deep opening at front, which is piped in contrasting material. The insets are finished with tie-strings. Delicate flannel or wool jersey is appropriate and smart for active sports. Crepe satin, faille crepe, canton crepe or crepe rame for afternoons. Four seams to sew! Inset pressed and stitched to dress at performances. You'll be amazed at the result. Complete instructions with pattern, which can be had in sizes 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42 inches bust measure. The 36-inch size requires 2 1/4 yards of 54-inch bordered material with 3 1/2 yards of 3-inch ribbon. Price 15 cents in stamp or coin (coin preferred). Our patterns are made by the leading Fashion Designers of New York City and are guaranteed to fit perfectly.

Every day The Times will print on this page pictures showing the latest up-to-date fashions.

This is a practical service for readers who wish to make their own clothes.

You may obtain this pattern by filling out the accompanying coupon, enclosing 15 cents, coin preferred, and mailing it to the pattern department of The Times. Delivery is made in about one week.

Be sure to write plainly and to include pattern number and size.

By United Press

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—The League of Women Voters is to take no part in the New York state contest for United States Senator, it was announced by Mrs. Charles L. Tiffany, regional director of the league.

Under the statutes, anyone may file a divorce petition who has been a resident of the State for two years immediately previous and a resident of the county for six months immediately previous to filing his or her action. The grounds for divorce in Indiana are: Adultery, impotency,

or desertion.

Under the statutes, anyone may file a divorce petition who has been a resident of the State for two years immediately previous and a resident of the county for six months immediately previous to filing his or her action. The grounds for divorce in Indiana are: Adultery, impotency,

or desertion.

Under the statutes, anyone may file a divorce petition who has been a resident of the State for two years immediately previous and a resident of the county for six months immediately previous to filing his or her action. The grounds for divorce in Indiana are: Adultery, impotency,

or desertion.

Under the statutes, anyone may file a divorce petition who has been a resident of the State for two years immediately previous and a resident of the county for six months immediately previous to filing his or her action. The grounds for divorce in Indiana are: Adultery, impotency,

or desertion.

Under the statutes, anyone may file a divorce petition who has been a resident of the State for two years immediately previous and a resident of the county for six months immediately previous to filing his or her action. The grounds for divorce in Indiana are: Adultery, impotency,

or desertion.

Under the statutes, anyone may file a divorce petition who has been a resident of the State for two years immediately previous and a resident of the county for six months immediately previous to filing his or her action. The grounds for divorce in Indiana are: Adultery, impotency,

or desertion.

Under the statutes, anyone may file a divorce petition who has been a resident of the State for two years immediately previous and a resident of the county for six months immediately previous to filing his or her action. The grounds for divorce in Indiana are: Adultery, impotency,

or desertion.

Under the statutes, anyone may file a divorce petition who has been a resident of the State for two years immediately previous and a resident of the county for six months immediately previous to filing his or her action. The grounds for divorce in Indiana are: Adultery, impotency,

or desertion.

Under the statutes, anyone may file a divorce petition who has been a resident of the State for two years immediately previous and a resident of the county for six months immediately previous to filing his or her action. The grounds for divorce in Indiana are: Adultery, impotency,

or desertion.

Under the statutes, anyone may file a divorce petition who has been a resident of the State for two years immediately previous and a resident of the county for six months immediately previous to filing his or her action. The grounds for divorce in Indiana are: Adultery, impotency,

or desertion.

Under the statutes, anyone may file a divorce petition who has been a resident of the State for two years immediately previous and a resident of the county for six months immediately previous to filing his or her action. The grounds for divorce in Indiana are: Adultery, impotency,

or desertion.

Under the statutes, anyone may file a divorce petition who has been a resident of the State for two years immediately previous and a resident of the county for six months immediately previous to filing his or her action. The grounds for divorce in Indiana are: Adultery, impotency,

or desertion.

Under the statutes, anyone may file a divorce petition who has been a resident of the State for two years immediately previous and a resident of the county for six months immediately previous to filing his or her action. The grounds for divorce in Indiana are: Adultery, impotency,

or desertion.

Under the statutes, anyone may file a divorce petition who has been a resident of the State for two years immediately previous and a resident of the county for six months immediately previous to filing his or her action. The grounds for divorce in Indiana are: Adultery, impotency,

or desertion.

Under the statutes, anyone may file a divorce petition who has been a resident of the State for two years immediately previous and a resident of the county for six months immediately previous to filing his or her action. The grounds for divorce in Indiana are: Adultery, impotency,

or desertion.

Under the statutes, anyone may file a divorce petition who has been a resident of the State for two years immediately previous and a resident of the county for six months immediately previous to filing his or her action. The grounds for divorce in Indiana are: Adultery, impotency,

or desertion.

Under the statutes, anyone may file a divorce petition who has been a resident of the State for two years immediately previous and a resident of the county for six months immediately previous to filing his or her action. The grounds for divorce in Indiana are: Adultery, impotency,

or desertion.

Under the statutes, anyone may file a divorce petition who has been a resident of the State for two years immediately previous and a resident of the county for six months immediately previous to filing his or her action. The grounds for divorce in Indiana are: Adultery, impotency,

or desertion.

Under the statutes, anyone may file a divorce petition who has been a resident of the State for two years immediately previous and a resident of the county for six months immediately previous to filing his or her action. The grounds for divorce in Indiana are: Adultery, impotency,

or desertion.

Under the statutes, anyone may file a divorce petition who has been a resident of the State for two years immediately previous and a resident of the county for