

CAN'T LEAN ME, COOLIDGE INT TO WATSON

President Won't Let Sanders Make Speeches in State for Senator Jim.

Times Special
WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—Sen.
James E. Watson of Indiana is the latest Republican leader to learn President Coolidge is objecting to being leaned upon in the forthcoming campaign.

President Coolidge wants to make parity the issue and keep out of the fight himself. Republican canvases, however, including Watson, are working both with galle and tre to lug him in. His friends arranged for Everett Sanders, secretary to the President and former

Indiana congressman from Terre Haute, to make a few speeches in Indiana for Watson. It was all right with Sanders and he was preparing his speeches when Coolidge heard about it. The President indicated he did not wish Sanders to engage in a stumping campaign, fearing that anything he said would be popularly construed as coming from the President himself. This has not tended to put Watson in the best frame of mind although he still is talking vociferously on the stump of his loyalty to the administration.

President Coolidge well remembers what befell Wilson in 1918 when he led the country to elect a Democratic Congress that would stand him.

Another reason too why Coolidge is fighting shy of participation in fall's campaign is the fact that he has set his eye on 1928, politicians say. He does not want to be responsible for what happens then.

BUCKLEBERRY'S ANNUAL DEBUT
Appear on City Market at 25 Cents a Pint.

Huckleberries at 25 cents a pint, home-grown cling peaches, 25 cents for two pounds, and coconuts, 13 cents each, or two for 25 cents, all made their initial appearance at city market today.

Plentiful supplies of Florida grapefruit are now being received, and the price has dropped from 20 to 15 cents. Squash pumpkins are being sold at 10 to 50 cents; okra, 25 cents a pound, and pickles, which are scarce, are quoted at 40 cents to $1 a hundred.

Other commodities remained steady with previous prices. They are: Celery, 25 cents bunch; cucumbers, 40 cents dozen; corn, 30 cents a dozen ears; Jonathan and Grimes Golden apples, 10 cents a pound; turnips and radishes, 5 cents a bunch; green tomatoes, 75 cents a bushel; Irish potatoes, 5 pounds for 25 cents; Michigan Concord grapes, 45 cents a basket; home-grown head lettuce, 15 cents a head; New York Bartlett pears, 10 cents a pound; to-matos, two pounds for 15 cents.

WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE
Praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Mrs. Annie Kwnski of 526 1st Avenue, Milwaukee, Wis., writes that she became so weak and rundown that she was not able to do her house work. She wrote the name Lydia

E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the paper and said
to her husband
"I will try that medicine and see if it will help me." She says she took six bottles and is feeling much better.

Mrs. Mattie Adams, who lives in Downing Street, Brewton, Ala., writes as follows: "A friend recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and since taking it I feel like a different woman."

With her children grown up, the middle-aged woman finds time to do the things she had time to do before and the new tasks, like new plays, enjoy her grandchildren, take an active part in church and civic affairs. Far from being pushed aside by the younger set, she finds a full, rich life of her own. That is, if her health is good.

Thousands of women past fifty, say they owe their health to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
