

RESERVATIONS FOR C. OF C. COURTESY TRIP MADE BY 29

Wholesalers Start on Indiana-Illinois Jaunt Friday.

A total of twenty-nine reservations for the courtesy trip to cities in western Indiana and eastern Illinois on Friday and Saturday, under auspices of the Chamber of Commerce, has been reported to C. Fred Klee of E. C. Atkins & Co., courtesy trip committee chairman, by C. G. Dunphy, division secretary. Reservations will be accepted as late as 4 p. m. today.

Due to a revision in schedule, the courtesy trippers will leave the Chamber of Commerce Bldg., promptly at 7 Friday morning instead of 7:15 as planned. The visiting wholesalers will make the tour in limousines furnished by the Wood Auto Livery Service.

Danville, Greencastle and Rockville merchants will be visited Friday morning with lunch at the Turkey Run State Park hotel. Friday afternoon the retailers of Veedsburg and Covington, Ind., and Danville, Ill., will receive calls. The wholesalers will spend Friday night at the Lincoln Hotel in Urbana and on Saturday morning will call on the merchants of Urbana and Champaign.

After luncheon at the Inman Hotel in Champaign Saturday, the visitors will be taken in a body to the University of Illinois Stadium to witness the football game between Butler University and Illinois. After having dinner at the Danville-Lincoln hotel at 6 Saturday evening, the visitors will return by way of Covington, Veedsburg, Crawfordsville and Lebanon.

Those who have made reservations to date, and the firms which they will represent, are as follows:

C. Fred Klee of E. C. Atkins & Co.; one representative of the Crescent Paper Company; C. O. Robinson of the Fletcher-American Company; R. A. Stevens of W. J. Holliday & Co.; John B. Reynolds, R. Bud Stillman to Wed Servant Girl

By United Press
PRINCETON, N. J., Oct. 7.—James A. Stillman, Jr., son of the millionaire New York financier, is engaged to marry Lena Wilson, a girl from the Quebec woods, who formerly worked on his mother's estate in Canada.

Stillman, known as Bud, said they would be married after his graduation from Princeton University next June. Mrs. Stillman has approved the match.

GET PERSIMMONS AT CITY MARKET

Little Change in Prices of Products.

Other than the appearance of Indiana persimmons at 25 cents a pint box and an increase in price of peas from 20 cents to 25 cents a pound, there was no change in offerings today at city market.

California quinces were 15 cents a pound; crabapples, 5 to 10 cents a pound; Lima beans, 50 to 60 cents a pound; Cuban pineapples, 50 cents each; fresh asparagus, 50 cents a bunch; white seedless grapes, 20 cents a pound; Indiana delicious apples, 10 cents a pound; peaches, three pounds 25 cents; Michigan Concord grapes, 25 cents a basket; tomatoes 10 cents a pound; turnips and radishes, 5 cents a bunch; cucumbers, 40 cents a dozen.

Prices in the produce market were steady. Hens were 40 cents a pound; ducks, 50 cents a pound; squabs, 75 cents each, and eggs, 40 cents a dozen.

BAD COLD? TAKE "CASCARETS" FOR BOWELS TONIGHT

No headache, constipation, bad cold or sour stomach by morning

Get a 10-cent box. Sick headache, biliousness, coated tongue, head and nose clogged up with a cold—delayed, fermenting food in the bowels or sour, easy stomach. Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is re-absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing, sickening headache.

Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist means your head clear, stomach sweet and your liver and bowels regular for months.—Advertisement.

FLOOD RECORD SET AT BEARDSTOWN

Business Suspended at Illinois Town.

By United Press
BEARDSTOWN, Ill., Oct. 7.—The Illinois river reached a new flood record here this morning when it rose to a stage of 25.7 feet and as a result practically all activity in the city is at a standstill.

The water has filled all basements making furnace fires impossible and causing suffering from the cold.

Merchants were forced to close their doors.

A new levee break has curtailed service on the lone railroad line.

The crest of the flood is not expected until late today or Friday.

The Love Thief

PRETTY, vivacious, and knowing too little of the world, it was only natural, perhaps, that Barbara's heart should beat a little quicker when she first met Norman Parish.

Parish was a stranger in Barbara's town — but his brown eyes laughed so frankly, and he seemed so perfect a gentleman, that there was not the faintest breath of suspicion that he was not everything he seemed to be.

To be sure, he told Barbara nothing about himself, except that he lived in New York, and had come West on an extended business trip. But Barbara's greater mistake was the unquestioning confidence, trust and love that she permitted to grow up in her heart.

Never before had she been so completely happy. Never had the sun shone so brightly, nor had the birds poured forth such a torrent of joyous song, as when she and Norman Parish were together—dancing, riding, or idling through the wooded hills on lazy summer afternoons.

And then one night, when he came to her in the moon-flooded garden where she awaited him, her heart near bursting with song, his slow step and the somber, wretched look in his eyes instantly told her that something was wrong.

But even then, until the hour of revelation, she did not dream of the terrible drama that was about to unfold, and in which, in the long, tear-filled days to follow, she was to play so tragic a part.

If Barbara could have been warned—if she could have had the slightest inkling of the heartbreaking events that were to grow out of her innocent and confiding devotion to this man of whom she really knew nothing, and who talked so winningly of love—she might have been saved the crushing remorse and bitter sorrow that were to darken her life for many years to come.

It is this story of the terrible price she paid for innocently trusting too far and believing too much, that Barbara has written, exactly as it happened, for the November issue of True Story Magazine. The story is complete, starting on page 31—and is only one of the 18 thrilling true-life narratives that appear in the November issue of this intensely interesting magazine.

Other Absorbing Features in November True Story Are:

"Cheaters"—A young wife, with too little to occupy her mind, it was with no thought of wrong that Alice accepted the invitation of a woman acquaintance to take her to places of doubtful reputation where she could "see a little of life." Thus blindly she was led into a most terrible situation. A powerful, thought-compelling true story.

"Mad Love"—Like many another girl who is misled by the false glamour of a "movie" career, Ruth dreamed of the day when she would have the world at her feet.

So with beauty and ambition as her sole capital, she set out to conquer fame in the studios. Of course, there could be only one result, and she might have profited by her defeat if she had not fallen madly in love with a popular screen idol. Today it is all like a terrible dream, which she feels will never be erased from her memory.

"Never Again"—If ever a girl had reason to be proud of the man she was engaged to wed, that girl was Bernice. He was the cleverest, handsomest, most popular young man on the college campus. The fascination of his smile, his airy grace and charm, were qualities that few girls could resist. Then something happened in the middle of his junior year that was to turn Bernice's world of happiness into a vale of black despair. A true-life chronicle that will tug at your heart strings as only a story of real life can do.

Minister Praises True Story

Dear Sirs:

If all publications that are now before the public received the careful scrutiny and thorough inspection that the Macfadden publications receive I am satisfied that there would soon be a great change for the better in home and community life. One of the greatest tasks of a rural minister's life is to combat the great evil that has been for years encroaching stealthily but surely upon the spiritual life of his people through the poisoning of the mind by indiscriminate reading.

May success attend your every effort for purer and cleaner living as you continue your good work of publishing the TRUTH.

Sincerely yours,
Rev. Walter E. Brooks
South Hamilton, Mass.

Who Is To Blame?

In these days of so-called moral liberty, who is to blame if young people fall into error through ignorance of Truth?

The only way to drive home the perils of wrong thinking and acting, is to emphasize the inspiring power of good.

True Story Magazine each month contains a great variety of gripping "fact-stories" that reveal the secret joys and sorrows, the temptations and struggles, the defeats and triumphs of people who have really lived the thrillingly dramatic events they write about.

Through these frank records of human experience, literally thousands are taught how to avoid those mistakes that can only end in remorse, bitter tears, and often tragedy.

The 18 heart-gripping features in November True Story, afford excellent examples of the great work this magazine is doing. If you are not now a reader, start with the November issue today.

"Slowly I turned my eyes to the slip of paper and read the words over and over—their meaning failing to reach my horror-stricken brain. Then passionate sobs shook my body. I could bear no more."

NOW DRIVE THE CAR!

Only those who have driven a Dodge Brothers Special Sedan—or any Dodge Brothers car BUILT RECENTLY—can fully appreciate all that Dodge Brothers have accomplished during the past few months.

So swiftly has improvement followed improvement, that today the car, to all intents and purposes, is a different and incomparably finer vehicle.

The announcement of smart new body lines and attractive color combinations first attracted general favor. But since then, improvements even more fundamental have been accomplished mechanically.

Drive the car NOW! Observe its impressive new silence, smoothness and elasticity of performance, and you will then begin to realize just how vital and varied these and other later improvements actually are.
