

MISSING PAPERS ADD CHAPTER TO STEPHENSON CASE

Both Sides Fail to Obtain Documents From Miss Mildred Meade.

Another chapter has been added to the mystery serial running in the Stephenson case.

Efforts to obtain documents alleged to have been in the possession of Miss Mildred Meade, 3523 E. Sixteenth St., having a bearing on the charges brought by Thomas Adams, Vincennes (Ind.) publisher, have been unavailing. It was with these documents that Adams hoped to prove his case conclusively.

Having left his home in Evansville for the ostensible purpose of making a hurried one-day trip to Indianapolis, L. G. Julian, former associate of the former Klan mogul in the coal business, has been away three days and is now in hiding.

Woman Negotiates

Miss Meade has for days been negotiating with both sides in the mystery angle. She was met last Saturday evening by one of Stephenson's attorneys and a representative of a Chicago newspaper in the downtown district. Long conferences and hurried trips ensued, although there were grounds on which to base the premise that Miss Meade knew much of the documents.

A close confidant of the former Klan chieftain, she, it is reported, was the person to whom Forest Strader, former secretary and the man who had the photographs taken of the contracts and checks, gave the precious missing papers.

Repeated conferences and offers have not produced them from Miss Meade.

Julian Eyades Pursuers

In the meantime, L. G. Julian has kept his wife, his family, Stephenson's attorneys and newspaper men in hot water. Huddled trips, many long distance calls and secretive errands have found the pursuers just a little too late.

John H. Kiplinger waited for Julian in the Columbia Club for eight hours Monday and then left for Michigan City on the night train.

Kiplinger appeared at the prison Tuesday to see "Steve," accompanied by a stranger who, although he was "not a relative or attorney," was given admittance. After a visit of more than two hours both emerged and "borrowed" a taxi from Jacob Morgan, attorney, who had served the warden with the writ of habeas corpus in the proceedings to be held before Judge Sidney S. Miller, Superior Court Three.

A chase to the depot found newspaper men on the platform while the train whizzed on to Chicago.

Kiplinger returned to the city last night displaying a written order from Stephenson placing him in charge of civil matters in which the fallen dragon has become enmeshed. For publication, however, the Rushville attorney stated that he had been placed in charge of all legal matters, including criminal action and the appeal.

Julian has not returned to his home although his wife has been expecting him since Tuesday morning.

REED QUIZ HERE IS POSSIBILITY

to this matter I will say to Senator Reed, said Walb.

"I will be glad to tell Senator Reed everything I know."

He would not, however, promise to ask Reed to investigate.

Walb's letter was addressed to Senator William E. Borah, who late Tuesday remarked in Washington that if one-half of the Adams charges were true politics in Indiana were in an "awful mess," and he thought the Reed committee had ample authority to step in.

Walb's Letter

The Walb letter:

"Dear Senator Borah:

"Your name is being mentioned by the Indiana press in connection with the Indiana political affairs.

"As chairman of the Republican State committee, I issued a statement this morning and am enclosing herewith a copy which I earnestly request that you read carefully.

"Secretary of Labor Davis took breakfast with me this morning and we reviewed the Indiana situation completely and we are absolutely convinced that the whole situation in Indiana hinges around Senator Watson and Senator Robinson opposing the League of Nations and insisting that the foreign debt be paid.

"There is evidence everywhere that international bankers on Wall Street have their money in every precinct of this State in the hands of the fakirs who pretend to have something up their sleeves and are putting on a probe, and at every hand we see the activity of this outfit attempting to defeat our Senators and Congressmen on account of their stand in the United States Senate and Congress on the League of Nations and the payment of foreign debts.

"This is the political story in Indiana."

Information which Senator Borah sought from Adams regarding the charges of political corruption in the State, arrived late Tuesday.

Contents Secret

He did not wish to reveal any of the contents at this time or to indicate whether the accusations extended to others than State and municipal officials.

Senator Borah said he wished to make it clear that his sole intention in asking for information had been to acquaint himself with the true situation in Indiana. He considered it his duty as a Senator to have the facts first hand in view of what might come up this winter in the Senate, and he also wished to be fully aware of the political status in the Hoosier State, before he made any speeches there in the present campaign.

Believes Reed Knows
He said he believes Senator Reed, head of the Senate primary probate committee, is aware of the charges that congressional elections, in some instances, have been dictated by the Klan and therefore, would not presume to advise Senator Reed of his belief that the committee has jurisdiction to undertake a probe of the charges.

ONE INJURED BY CRAZED DRIVER

Auto Zig-Zags Through Downtown Streets.

John S. Asbury, 38, the Severin, of the Harrison Loomis Advertising Company, Chicago, was in serious condition in city hospital after being struck by an auto driven by a "crazed" driver at Pennsylvania and Maryland Sts., at noon today.

Police said Lawrence Long, 20, Negro, 537 Bright St., speeding east in an auto on Maryland St., struck Asbury. Traffic Officer Cravens, at Maryland and Meridian Sts., said Long disregarded a stop sign and drove through a safety zone. Trafficman Lawrence Fleming fired one shot at Long after the youth failed to heed the traffic signal and struck three parked cars. The car zig-zagged through the street, narrowly missing several persons.

Sergeant Elsenhut, who arrested Long on six charges after a stiff battle with the Negro, said the youth had not been drinking.

Home-made Supply of Fine Cough Syrup

Better than ready-made cough syrups, and saves about $2. Easily prepared.

If you combined the curative properties of every known "ready-made" cough remedy, you probably could not get as much real curative power as there is in this home-made syrup, easily prepared in a few minutes.

Get from any druggist 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex, pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup, or clarified honey, as desired. The result is a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for three times the money. Tastes pleasant and never spoils.

The Pinex and Syrup preparation gets right at the cause of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the phlegm, stops the throat tickle and breaks the irritated membranes so gently and easily that it is really astonishing.

A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough and it is splendid for bronchitis, hoarseness and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract and palatable guaracol, which has been used for generations to break severe coughs.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with directions. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

PARIS MEDICINE CO., Beaumont and Pine Streets, St. Louis, Mo.

YEARS ago, a mother gave Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to her young daughter. The daughter married and became the mother of seven children.

Mrs. L. E. Randall
Box 381
Centralia, Wash.

She writes: "I always took it before my babies were born and I know it gave me strength to do my work. I am now having the Change of Life and am taking the Vegetable Compound again. I am giving it to my oldest daughter. I have always recommended it to my friends. I will answer any letters from women asking about the medicine."

MRS. L. E. RANDALL,
Box 381,
Centralia, Wash.

MRS. PACKARD: "Time for your Pinkham's Compound, Eleanor."
MRS. REED: "Mother, that sounds exactly like Grandma. Remember how she used to praise it?"
MRS. PACKARD: "Yes, three generations in our family have relied upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Some day you'll be giving it to little Marjorie."

BEFORE her marriage, Mrs. Frankum was a working girl. Like many girls, she sometimes had to stay home from her work. A friend told her of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and she found that it relieved her trouble.

She was in good health until her second baby came. "I began to take the Vegetable Compound again," she writes, "and so was able to do my housework. Women ask me what I have been doing and I tell them about your medicine. I feel that I owe a lot to it."
